The Glacier has always prided itself on the fact that its pages and columns were devoted to local affairs. We have ever devoted our space to the advancement of the Hood River community. Since last April, however, the Glacier has devoted largely of its space to affairs that are national, and yet who will say that the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. drives, the liberty bond campaigns, information pertaining to the selective draft and other war news is not local? Today the things that are of foremost interest to us here in Hood River are also most interesting, or should be, to every other loyal community in the United

A WARNING

We should be thankful that we are not grief stricken as a result of an automoblie accident tragedy. The in cident of Tuesday evening is enough to make any one shudder. As to whether or not there was a violation of traffic rules we will not stop to consider, but ar and A. D. Moe.
the fault lies in that young Loving, a 15 year old boy, was at the wheel where he had no business. We have frequently seen motor deliverymen accompanied by children and small boys. But by all means these youngsters should be kept from the wheels. Young Barton and his fellow motor deliveryen sickness and death of our son and should enforce such a ruling.

As anyone may have observed, motor traffic rules in general are not adhered to very strictly in Hood River. We have had too much careless driving on our residence streets. May Tuesday evening's accident be a warning that will be heeded.
