PINE GROVE FLAG HAS 34 STARS

Characterized by its expression of cooperative spirit and the feeling of patriotism that prevails over the community, the fifth annual community institute of the Pine Grove district, just over, had to have been the best ever held. The meeting was opened Friday afternoon, when Prof. J. F. Brumbaugh, of O. A. C., delivered an address on thrift.

The participation by Mrs. C. H. Castner, Mrs. C. H. Sletten and Rev. M. L. Hutton has much to do with the success of the meeting. The most inspiring incident of the institute was the presentation by Mrs. Percy E. Laraway of the community's service flag, bearing 34 stars. The flag was made by the Ladies' Aid and was presented to the Pine Grove community, A. G. Lewis making the acceptance speech. A handsome American flag was presented to the church by the men of the community. J. D. McCully made the presentation speech. The Pine Grove pastor, Rev. E. C. Newham, delivered a sermon Sunday on "Abraham Lincoln." Sunday night Rev. W. H. Boddy, of Parkdale, delivered an inspiring sermon.

The men of the Pine Grove community in the service are: Hayes Bickford, Harold Blackman, Carl Benson, Blaise L. Clark, James E. Clark, Bruce Combs, Carl Houston, Thorold Hansen, John Hansen, Carl Johnson, Albert and Herbert Krussow, Arthur, Eugene and Francis Lewis, Albert Miller, Carl Miller, Fred Murray, Mills, E. L. McClain, Jr., Carl Newman, Mark Robertson, Earl Robertson, Harold Sexton, George and Lionel Schetky, Herman Sieverkropp, Fred and Alfred Thomsen, Edward Van Horn, Joe Vanlier, Clifford and William Wells and Joe Winchell.

The committee, on behalf of the community, wishes to express thanks to all who helped in this institute.

Christian & Missionary Alliance

The convention which closed Monday night was one of the most successful ever held in Hood River. The preaching was excellent. The pastor, a habitually the sermons on the Judgements, the Three Resurrections and the Seven Ages, or God's Hand in History, by Rev. Herbert Dyke, of Oakland, Calif. The stereopticon views and lectures by the returned Congo missionary, Rev. A. R. Williams, were full of interest. The missionary money paid during the coming year $950. The pledges for expenses was only $150. The $47 for church starts on a new year with hope and faith. Services next Sunday as usual. Young school at 9:45, preaching at 11, Young People's society at 6:30 and evening sermon at 7:30. Everybody made welcome.

D. M. Carpenter, Pastor.

FINN, FURN AND FEATHERS

That St. Patrick never saw any snakes in Ireland, let alone drive them out is the claim of Patrick Murphy, native of Ireland and sergeant in the marine corps.

Snakes, declares Murphy, were unknown to the sons of Erin until one Dr. Guithers in 1773 imported two small reptiles, then considered a curiosity.

"The first man to really 'see snakes' in Ireland," says Sgt. Murphy, "was a friend of Dr. Guithers. This occurred on night when the man, a habitual drinker, awakened out of a drunken sleep and saw the doctor's pets crawling over the floor of his home. Dr. Guithers, after that, claimed snakes to be a positive cure for drunkenness, but St. Patrick?—why, he never even saw one."

E. J. Middleswart caught four fine salmon trout one day last week. Middleswart had more large whitefish than his friends could count.

L. R. Gano landed a fine salmon trout one day last week.

Pat is a mere dog of mongrel breed and medium size, but he is considered as a full fledged member of the police force by other officers. Pat recently came to town with his former owner, Deputy Clerk Francis, when Mr. Francis moved in from his ranch. He became attached to Joseph Frazier, city night officer, and since their first meeting the dog has been a faithful assistant of the police officer.

Pat before 10 o'clock at night has distinguished features from any other ordinary dog. But after that hour he becomes an alert representative of the law. He begins to sniff in dark alleys and the shadows of box cars. The late prowler is very apt to feel the nip of the shary. A few evenings ago Mr. Frazier was attracted by the urgent barking of Pat. He hurried to a dark yard back of a Japanese home. Returning to their homes after an evening spent with the city friends, the rural Japanese men had been espied by the police dog. One of them was frantically calling for help from the top of a stack of cordwood, while the other was perched in safety in the branches of an oak tree.

As a result of work at the mouth of the Hood river by the Hood River County Game Protective Association cooperating with the State Fish and Game Commission, permitting the fish to enter the local stream, winter fishing was never better here. Scores of fishermen visit the stream each Sunday, and hundreds of the fine salmon trout have been caught. Thinking they could have better luck on a stream where winter fishing is rarely indulged in than on Hood river, where so many are constantly fishing, E. A. Franz and son, Earl, visited the White Salmon river Sunday. The latter caught a single salmon trout. Because of conditions at the mouth of the stream the fish do not enter the Washington stream, it is said.

Last Saturday Joe, the 11 year old son of Geo. Hasinger, decided to go fishing. He felled a maple bush and from it cut a pole about the size and length of a hoe handle. To this he tied a piece of sheetboard about the length of the rod. A small rock was used for a sinker. The hook was the only thing he purchased.

With a fat woodworm on the new hook, the latter sank into the ripples at the lower end of a deep hole. The woodworm evidently was just what a big salmon trout was awaiting for his breakfast. With a mighty tug Joe hauled in the fish. It measured 25 inches. Sunday afternoon George, Joe's nine year old brother, took the home-made apparatus. He came home with a 19 inch salmon trout.

Frank Middleswart returned to Mosier last Friday after having spent two weeks in Hood River with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Middleswart, and at Parkdale with the family of his brother, Bert Middleswart. He took his bamboo rod with him and made several nice catches of salmon in the waters of Hood river.

C. J. Littlepage has been doing good work this week looking up telephone lines that needed fixing up. If you have a line that is wrong, try to fix it. If you cannot locate the trouble tell any of the directors. If you have no telephone, have one installed. One hurry call the doctor in case of accident, will be worth a year's reasonable charge.

E. A. Race passed through this city Sunday en route for Portland, where he had been sent by the farmers of Moro to purchase lumber for two large grain elevators to be erected as soon as possible. Mr. Race returned on Wednesday, and stated that he had made contracts to purchase about 700,000 feet at this time and later would increase the total to a million, on all of which he was granted a very satisfactory price. The Farmers' Union at Moro, has been disorganized, he said, and the farmers organized the grain elevator company, incorporated at $50,000.

A plan was suggested by an efficient, highly recommended Austrian engineer in Portland, said Mr. Race, whereby the bins are made round instead of square, thereby making a big saving in lumber and conserving space and adding to the strength of the many large bins. The plan was submitted to government men and other engineers in Portland and details wired to Washington, D. C. If acceptable, the plan will be adopted by the Moro farmers. It follows the system of the military plans for grain elevators used in Austria.

Small Blaze at Spray Factory

Because of indefinite information given, when the alarm was turned in to the exchange office of the telephone company, the Hood River Volunteer Fire department, directed to go to West Cascade avenue, was unable to find the fire they had been called to fight.

The fire was finally located on Railroad avenue at the Hood River Spray factory, where a boiler containing sulphur, boiling over, caused an explosion. The flames were extinguished with only a negligible damage resulting.

EDISON IS BUSY

in the service of his country. We hear of him at sea on one of his sleepless go-get-her campaigns of experimentation. He is trying to scotch the German sea snake—the submarine.

But his big Phonograph Plant keeps ever increasing its output. In spite of the heavy National problems with which Mr. Edison is wrestling, he has still found time to devote to perfecting

THE EDISON RECORD

His German supply of chemicals cut off, Mr. Edison bent his matchless mind to the problem of making all his own chemicals, so now everything in the make-up of this famous record comes from his own plant. We are his Hood River agents, carrying a fine line of his Machines and Records for your inspection. Come and see.

THE LIBERTY WILL OPEN MARCH 1ST

Work on Hood River's new playhouse, The Liberty, is progressing very nicely and it will shortly be open to the public. The painters and decorators are already at work on the main auditorium and as soon as the carpenters are through finishing the other parts of the building will be ready to decorate them. Practically all of the electrical work is finished and some of the main ceiling fixtures are hung.

The scenery and stage setting for the picture screen has arrived from Portland and will shortly be installed. Paul Woolsey, who had charge of the moving of the pipe organ to the new organ room, will soon be finished with voicing and tuning the organ, and by the time the new seats and motion picture machines arrive the building will be ready for them to be installed.

All things considered it will be somewhere about the first of March when the new theatre will give its initial performance to the Hood River public. Definite dates of the opening will be announced later.

Why I Buy at Home

Because this is the place where I make money and this is the place to spend it.

Because my interests are here.

Because I believe in transacting business with friends.

Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough to buy in.

Because I want to see the goods.

Because I want to get what I pay for.

Because every dollar spent at home stays at home and works for the development of the city and community.

Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods.

Because I sell what I produce here at home.

Because the man I buy from pays his part of the city and county taxes.

Because people by citizens who help support my school, my church, my lodge and my home.

Lieut. Pineo Has Pneumonia

Lieutenant H. D. W. Pineo, local dentist, who is now in the Dental Reserve Corps, who recently returned to his duties at Camp Lewis, Wash., after a 10 day illness with rheumatism at a local hospital, is again ill with pneumonia and is a patient at the Camp Lewis base hospital.

Lieutenant Pineo, according to a letter from Mrs. Pineo, who has removed to Tacoma to be near her husband, was on duty only a week when stricken with pneumonia. She states that he is very ill.

Worst Winter in Years

Snow, wind and extreme cold caused more colds this winter than in past years. Foley's Honey and Tar proved its worth in thousands of homes. Men, women and children checked colds and coughs and prevented serious consequences from exposure. It clears the passages, heals raw inflamed membranes, banishes irritation and tickling throat. Mrs. Edward Streety, R. 37, Clinton, O., says: "I think Foley's Honey and Tar the only medicine for coughs and colds and recommend it highly." Sold everywhere.

An inspection will convince you that the service of the Palace Hotel, Portland, Oregon, Washington and Twelfth streets, is second to none. Convenient to shopping and theatre districts, cleanest rooms in city for 50 cts. and up. 1511

A POPULAR VERDICT

Based on Evidence of Hood River People.

Grateful thousands tell it— Of weak backs made strong— Of weak kidneys made well— Urinary disorders corrected. Hood River people add their testimony.

They praise Doan's Kidney Pills. Hood River evidence is now complete. Hood River testimony is confirmed. Reports of early relief substantiated. Merit doubly proved by test of time. Let this Hood River man speak.

Wm. Boorman, retired farmer, 415 Sherman avenue, says: "I was feeling pretty bad when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, but I am glad to say they quickly cured me. My back, which had been quite lame, is now all right, and I can bend or stoop without difficulty, something I couldn't do before I used Doan's Kidney Pills." Over eight years later Mr. Boorman said: "You may continue to use my recommendation for Doan's Kidney Pills, for I still hold a high opinion of this old, reliable kidney medicine. Whenever necessary I take Doan's and they never fail to do me good."

Mr. Boorman is only one of many Hood River people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If you're back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS. The same that Mr. Boorman has twice publicly recommended, the remedy backed by home testimony, 50 cents at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When your back is lame, remember the name."
