L. J. SIMPSON ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

L. J. Simpson, of North Bend, today formally enters the race for Republican nomination for governor. Mr. Simpson, one of Oregon's most successful young business men, announces his platform as follows:

"In announcing myself as a candidate for nomination for governor on the Republican ticket at the primary election to be held on May 17, 1918, I desire to appeal to the voters of Oregon as individuals, who, as such, are well qualified to judge the issues of the day and who can and will vote as their judgment shall direct."

"I am a Republican and believe in the principles of the Republican party, and above everything I am an American and believe in the principles of my country. I am not a member of, nor affiliated with, any particular faction or party of the Republican party; nor am I pledged to support any of the candidates for office at the coming primary election. I pledge the people of Oregon that, in conducting my campaign, I will not support any particular candidate for office in preference to the other candidate for the same office; that I will not promise appointment to office or political patronage to anyone; that if nominated and elected I shall enter office with neither promise nor pledge to redeem, except those which I give to the people themselves reserving the right to make such appointments and to conduct the office with whatever unprejudiced independence the best interests of the people of Oregon and the development, peace and welfare of the state shall demand. If the voters decide that they do not desire that I be their candidate I will give my undivided support to the Republican candidate of their choice."

"I shall, as far as possible, make a personal campaign, with the object of meeting as many individuals as time will permit, and shall endeavor to establish and maintain a close personal relationship with the people of the state, so that I may the better know and understand their needs and requirements."

"In the present struggle for world peace, democracy and the very existence of the nation itself, the first and foremost obligation of every man, woman and child is to the land of their birth or adoption. Faithful to that obligation Oregon is proud of its contribution in men, money, food, lumber and ships. The entire wealth of all of the resources of the state have been placed at the disposal of the government, and if nominated and elected, I shall accord the nation and the administration that full and complete measure of support and assistance which patriotic citizenship has already exacted."

"The people of Oregon have placed upon the state books certain laws which, if nominated and elected, I shall, with all the honor and authority of the office of governor, rigidly and uncompromisingly enforce. The spirit of the times and the vital importance of state wide prosecution of the government's war activities require that law and order shall prevail. I shall consider it my sacred duty to preserve such a condition."

"I favor the establishment of a national, universal eight hour day for all classes of labor except for agriculture, the very nature of which makes it impossible to restrict the working hours to any set number. "I am firmly convinced that the progress, prosperity and development of Oregon demands that all lines of business, with the exception of the absolute necessity of practicing most rigid economy, be maintained as nearly normal as war conditions will permit; and that public expenditures should be limited to actual necessities, under no circumstances to be used for the purpose of public improvement to interfere with the successful prosecution of the war."

"I favor the comprehensive improvement and construction of roads, particularly the main or trunk highways, which are of themselves military necessities, and I believe that during the war this work should be prosecuted only, with the consent and approval of the national government. I favor the construction of an adequate system of military highways for the defense of the Pacific coast, and believe that the national government should undertake such construction immediately upon the termination of the war, so that those resources upon which the nation is so largely depending in prosecuting the war will be properly conserved and protected and further as a means of affording employment for the hundreds of thousands of soldiers during the period of readjustment or until such time as the prohibitive activities of peace will require their employment."

"I shall encourage and support such legislation as may be necessary for the establishment of nationwide prohibition and the permanent adoption of equal suffrage in the state and nation. "I shall endeavor at all times to create and stimulate that patriotic cooperation between employer and employee rendered so necessary by the strenuous conditions of war and so essential to the progress and advancement of the state. "I shall aid and assist in every way, commensurate with due and proper economy, the educational system and institutions of the state and in every possible manner increase their efficiency."

"With a knowledge and appreciation of the enormous resources of Oregon, I shall endeavor to promote development of those resources through establishment of new industries and by encouraging settlers and urging such legislation as will tend to make living conditions better for the thousands of workers and laborers throughout the state. "In administering the office of the state's highest executive I shall consistently endeavor to give Oregon an impartial, clean, economical and businesslike administration, an administration which will have as its ideal the greatest possible advancement of the moral, social and economic prosperity of the people of the state, and through an ever increasing development of its tremendous resources keep Oregon at the top in the vast fabric of our national life."

"I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble and three months ago was down sick in bed for my back ached so severely I couldn't get up," writes C. H. Henney, 412 Herrick St., Elmira, N. Y. "While in this condition we read of Foley Kidney Pills so I commenced taking them. In a few days I was up out of bed. Foley Kidney Pills strengthened kidneys and bladder. Recommended for backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints. Sold everywhere."

Constant Sufferer Finds Relief "I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble and three months ago was down sick in bed for my back ached so severely I couldn't get up," writes C. H. Vegetable Affinities Found Vegetable affinities were discovered by J. I. Miller, an Oak Grove orchardist, the other day when he was digging carrots. Two roots, very similar to human arms, had branched off from one of the carrots, and were holding it in a tight embrace. Labeled, "Sweethearts," the vegetable freak was placed on display at the Glacier office.

A Hint to the Aged If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days they would recover much more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.

MRS. HARRIET HALD, PIONEER, IS DEAD

Friends, neighbors and relatives paid their last sad respects Friday afternoon to another Oregon pioneer, Mrs. Harriet Hald, native of Illinois, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Hall, crossed the plains by ox cart in 1847, settling at Oregon City.

Mrs. Hald was then 16 years old. In 1850 she was married to Henry C. Hald, a well-known pioneer furrier and veteran of early Indian wars. Mrs. Hald and her husband came to Hood River in 1884. The latter died 13 years ago.

Six daughters survive the pioneer. They are: Mrs. W. S. Hall, with whom she has been residing, and Mrs. Zora Dimmick, of Hood River; Mrs. Harriett G. McCoy, of Bellevue, Ida.; Mrs. Emma Tate, of Baker; Mrs. Helen Edmondson, of The Dalles; Mrs. Nettie Hamilton, of Odessa, Wash. Thirty-seven grandchildren and thirty great-grandchildren survive the remarkable pioneer woman.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Friday afternoon. Rev. W. G. Eliot, pastor of the First Unitarian church of Portland, a lifelong friend of the family, officiating. Interment followed at the Idlewild cemetery. S. E. Hartness directed the funeral.

By 1851 Mr. and Mrs. Hald removed to Roseburg, where they settled on an Indian claim. They resided there until 1855 when they removed to The Dalles. In 1867 they removed to Mitchell, Crook county, thence in 1883 to Drewsey, Malheur county, where they resided until 1888, when they removed to Roseburg. From Roseburg they removed in 1891 to Bay City, where they resided until they came to Hood River.

HEAVY SNOW IN THE UPPER VALLEY

With the hardest snowstorm of the winter over, the blanket that covered the Upper Hood River Valley around Mt. Hood Lodge settled down to a foot in depth Sunday. In the Lower Valley the snow was only six inches deep. Since to an extent it assures orchardists and power systems against a water famine the coming summer, the snow was welcome.

J. Wesley Ladd, of the Portland Snowstorm Club, and other members of his organization arrived here Tuesday to visit their clubhouse near Cloud Cap Inn. The Portland Y. M. C. A. Ski Club, the members of which had planned to visit the snowfields in January but were thwarted for lack of snow, according to a letter from A. M. Grilley, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., to Mrs. H. A. Rogers, may forego their annual pilgrimage this winter. Mr. Grilley explains in his letter that he is busy in recreational work at army cantonments and that a large number of those who usually participate in the snowfield sports are in the army.

Mrs. Esther Davis Seeks Divorce

Mrs. Esther Davis has filed suit in circuit court, asking for decree of divorce from her husband, Elbert M. Davis, whose treatment, she recites in her complaint, has been cruel and inhuman.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, the former 22 years old and the latter 16 at the time, were married at Woodard, Okla., March 20, 1913. After the birth of a son, Lawrence, in January 1914, according to allegations, Mrs. Davis underwent an operation that left her an invalid for a time. The husband, it is claimed in the complaint, became abusive.

"As time passed defendant's dissatisfaction with plaintiff, her manner and her way of living, grew with time, and, seemingly strengthened, until he would frequently uncoil his wrath and swear at plaintiff," according to the complaint.

Mrs. Davis declares in her complaint, also, that her husband, child, her attending nurse. She asks custody of the child and $15 monthly alimony. The husband, she says, is now employed in Portland.

I. W. W. Sent to Portland

Frank Nevis and Joseph Schroder, self confessed I. W. W., who were arrested by Geo. W. Hunt at Cascade Locks Wednesday of last week, were turned over to federal authorities in Portland. The men, among whose personal effects were found large quantities of I. W. W. literature, refused to sign up with the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen. Schroder has been held at Klamath Falls and other points for his seditious agitation.

March Jury Drawn

The jury list drawn last week for the March term of circuit court, is as follows: William A. Copeland, Ralph R. Root, Roscoe Miller, B. F. Moses, Chas. E. Swanson, J. R. Crosby, C. E. Copple, E. N. Benson, T. D. Galkins, A. Butts, W. H. Furrow, Warren Miller, J. T. Beal, C. R. Jensen, J. R. Phillips, J. C. Butcher, C. H. Clymer, Frank Van Horn, Alex B. Brooke, S. E. Kimball, W. H. Rountree, A. T. Zeek, J. O. Curtis, Hugo Paasch, Alex Hukari, J. D. McCully, W. G. E. Smith, W. S. Townes, Gus Miller and J. I. Miller. Court will convene Monday, March 4.

C. H. Henney's Mother Dead

C. H. Henney, deputy collector of customs in Portland, who formerly resided here, has received telegraphic advices that his mother, Mrs. Carrie Henney, died in St. Louis Tuesday evening of last week. At almost the minute she passed away Mr. Henney says he was playing a solo at the Mulsonah hotel, where the Rosarian club, of which he is a member, was giving a concert. "Vacant Chair," was the title of the selection he was playing. His mother had been ill for a long time. She was 75 years old.

Vegetable Affinities Found

Vegetable affinities were discovered by J. I. Miller, an Oak Grove orchardist, the other day when he was digging carrots. Two roots, very similar to human arms, had branched off from one of the carrots, and were holding it in a tight embrace. Labeled, "Sweethearts," the vegetable freak was placed on display at the Glacier office.

There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.

CASCADE LOCKS HAS BIG MEETING

A rousing patriotic meeting was held Friday night at Cascade Locks under the joint auspices of the local Four Minute Men's organization, of which Attorney Smith, is chairman, and the Hood River County Defense Council, of which William A. Isenberg is chairman. Representing the two organizations, District Attorney Derby, delivered an address, appealing to the artisans of the Locks town to respond to the call of the government for ship-builders.

The largest hall of the town was overflowing, and within five minutes after District Attorney Derby had completed his address, more than 20 men had registered with A. W. Meyer, labor registrar of the community, who presided at the meeting, and all registration cards in his possession had been used up. The list of shipbuilding registrants will be materially increased when Mr. Meyer is provided with additional cards.

Wieden Gets Gold Medal Frank Wieden, Odell orchardist and veteran passenger conductor of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., is displaying with much pride this week a gold medal just received from the Panama-Pacific International Exposition commission. The medal was awarded for the best five box exhibit of commercial pack of Winter Banana apples. Through some error in records the arrival of the gold medal had been delayed for more than a year.

Too Dangerous to Overlook. Hood River People Will Do Well to Heed This Warning. To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys, must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain or distress gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headaches, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, or bladder ills, should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, successful, strongly-recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Hood River people. Head this Hood River resident's endorsement. Mrs. E. Eggleston, 1322 Thirtieth street, says: "Whenever any of my family are in need of a kidney medicine they use Doan's Kidney Pills. I have taken Doan's when I have noticed my kidneys were not acting as they should, causing a dull ache across the small of my back. Doan's have always done me good."

Mrs. Eggleston is only one of many Hood River people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If you back ache, if your kidney's bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Eggleston uses—the remedy backed by long testimony, of course at all stores.
