

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist. Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's D. H. Drewery, of Portland, was a business visitor here last week. Prof. L. F. Henderson was a recent business visitor in Portland. L. S. Isenberg was in Stevenson last Thursday evening to play for a dance. Sheriff Johnson was in Portland last week on business. If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's. District Attorney Derby was a business visitor in Salem last week. R. R. Bennett visited the Portland automobile show last week. Fresh ground graham, whole wheat flour and corn meal at Kelly Bros' warehouse. B1-11

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE

Five room modern house on 43rd Ave. Mt. Scott Car Line, price $3000.00. Six room modern house Albina District, 34th Street, value $3000.00. Six room modern house Rose City Park, two blocks to car line, price $4500.00. All of these houses rented to good tenants. Wanted to exchange for small place in Hood River Valley. If you want quick action on the sale of your properties list it at once, as there is considerable inquiry. J. ADRIAN EPPING 504 Eiler's Bldg., Portland, Or.

Delicious Asparagus

As a Vegetable or a Salad

Libby's Hillsdale Asparagus

(in 1 pound round tins)

is just what you need for a change.

Same old price 20c per Can

The Star Grocery

"Good Things To Eat" PERIGO & SON

L. R. Hammer was in Portland on business last week. W. G. Hufford, mayor of Stevenson, and son were here last week. Miss Olive Wildin spent the week end visiting friends in Portland. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's. M. R. Tucker and family have returned from a visit in Portland. C. D. Nickelsen was in Seattle the latter part of last week on business. E. E. Scott was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week. G. E. Bowerman, of Odell, has purchased a new model Chevrolet from the Hood River Garage. Miss Dorothy Mann, of Underwood, spent the week end here the guest of Miss Evelyn Tripp. Mrs. S. H. Carnine spent the week end visiting Portland friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Apin and son spent the week end in Portland visiting friends and relatives. Deputy State Game Warden Hadley, of The Dalles, was a business visitor in the city the latter part of last week. A. W. Stone was a business visitor in Portland the latter part of last week. Mrs. V. C. Euwer was down from the Upper Valley last week on a shopping tour. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Taft and Miss Elizabeth Bush spent the week end visiting friends in The Dalles. Mrs. Earl Noble and Mrs. Clarence Carnes were here from Wyeth, Saturday visiting friends and shopping. Eyes scientifically examined by H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist, Heilbrunner Bldg. 18-11

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Taylor and children spent the week end in The Dalles visiting friends and relatives. Frank L. Davidson was a business visitor in Portland the latter part of last week. Frank A. Cram is there with the service. Quick, special orders given prompt attention. E. E. Lage was in Portland last week on business and to see the automobile show. See me immediately for a bargain on West Side 8 acres. Special price if taken in 60 days. W. J. Baker, 21 S. J. Moore and family are spending this week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. Ivan Schere, who is now stationed at Fort Stevens, was up over the week end visiting relatives and friends. Highest cash price paid for your used furniture, stoves and rugs. Call McClain at E. A. Franz Co. 2901 O. H. Hill, called back by the serious illness of his father, left Monday for Waterloo, Ia. L. M. Bentley spent the week end in Portland visiting his son, Leon, who is recovering from an attack of measles. The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. When you think of anything to wear think of Frank A. Cram. He wants to serve you right. Miss Alice Tompkins, of Cascade Locks, spent the week end here the guest of Mrs. L. J. Bronaugh and Miss Kittie Bragg. Hugh Garrabrant, of Seattle, where he is now working in the shipyards, was here over the week end with his family. Mrs. L. A. Kerr, of the Frankton district, who fell last Saturday, sustaining a broken leg, is reported to be resting well. Searches of records and reliable abstracts made by Oregon Abstract Company, A. W. Ontbank, Manager, 395 Oak Street. Phone 1521. W. F. Smith, of Missouri, who recently arrived in Vancouver, Wash., to work in the shipyards, was here last week to visit his son, W. J. Smith, and family. A. W. Peters left last week for Cincinnati, for a visit with relatives. On his return he will be accompanied by Mrs. Peters and children, who have been east since before the holidays. A delegation of Knights of Pythias will visit Cascade Locks tonight, when they will conduct the work of initiating 10 new members for Pythagoras Lodge.

After a visit at Paradise farm, Mrs. J. L. Henderson returned last Thursday to Tillamook, where she is now residing. Mrs. Ben Johnson and children, accompanied by her father, W. E. Shay, left last week for Los Angeles, where the family now resides. Judge C. U. Gantenbein has again resigned his circuit judgeship of Multnomah county to accept a commission of major in the national army. Mrs. A. R. Youngquist, of Goldendale, Wash., was here last week visiting her brother, F. W. Chindlund, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Blythe were up over the week end visiting Mr. Blythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe, at Twin Oaks Farm. Culver K. Osgood, who is now located in Portland where he is with a lumber concern, was here the latter part of last week on business. When in Portland stop at the modern Palace Hotel, at Washington and 12th streets, in center of shopping and theatre districts. 11-11

Lieut. Chester Huggins, accompanied by his fellow officer, Lieut. Russell, was up over the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins. Edwin Eberly was up from Vancouver Barracks over the week end. Mr. Eberly says he is now busy in Uncle Sam's mill. Wanted—Yellow and White shelled Corn suitable for milling. Must be well matured, clean and dry. Phone Kelly Bros. 1401, for prices. 14-14 Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dabney left Tuesday for Newport, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. A. H. Thomas, and family. Perigo & Son have just received a barrel of fresh Genuine Tennessee Sorghum, which is for sale in bulk at the Star Grocery. Miss A. Ray, who has been in Portland and Seattle the past month purchasing millinery supplies, has returned home. Mrs. J. R. Edgar and daughter, Louise, who has recovered from illness with which she had been confined at the Cottage hospital, returned to their home at Dee Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Lethbridge, who had been in Portland to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lethbridge's mother, Mrs. A. Nebendahl, have returned home. "The snow has been piled so high on our streets as to look like mountains," writes Mrs. F. M. Cox, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Cox own an Odell orchard place, where they visit each summer. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tibbitts, formerly local residents, who now reside at Grays Harbor, Wash., have been here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Whitehead. The Ladies Aid of the Asbury Methodist church will give a Washington Birthday social Friday evening at the church parlors. A good program has been provided, and refreshments will be served. All are invited. The next regular communication of Hood River Lodge, No. 105, A. F. & A. M., will be held Saturday evening, when work in the E. A. and M. M. degree will be conducted. By order of the W. M. D. McDonald, Sec. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stevens, of Condon, were here last week visiting Mr. Stevens' brother, A. C. Stevens, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were returning home from a six weeks' visit in Portland. E. R. Brown, formerly publisher of the Oregon City Courier, who is now engaged in the advertising business in Portland, was here last week in the interest of the gubernatorial candidacy of Harvey G. Starkweather. A number of friends of Mrs. J. C. Johnson met at the home of Mrs. C. Dethman last week and gave her a surprise birthday party. Mrs. Johnson was presented with a bunch of carnations. The guests played cards, after which refreshments were served. Joseph Dabney, of Camp Lewis, was here over the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dabney. Mr. Dabney has been given an honorable discharge from army service, in order that he may be with his wife, who is seriously ill in California. Mrs. C. R. Bone, a victim of an automobile accident in Portland, last week, when the car of M. M. Hill, in which Mrs. Bone was a passenger, was struck by a fast and careless driver, sustained two broken ribs. Mrs. Bone has also been suffering from a severe cold. Heber Patton, after a residence of several months in Cosmopolis, Wash., has returned here with his family and is again employed as one of the O. W. R. & N. dispatchers. C. E. Worch, of Portland, has come here to succeed O. C. Smith as the third trick man at the local O. W. station. Mrs. W. E. Flack, of Tacoma, is slowly recovering from a serious operation performed at St. Joseph's hospital of that place. Her mother and sister, Mrs. Wm. Reavis and Mrs. John Raney, having been with her for the past several weeks, returned home on Friday. An evidence of approaching spring is the purchase of numerous automobiles by local men. The Gilbert Motor Co. has just sold a Dodge touring car to Dr. C. H. Jenkins. The DeWitt Co. reports the sales of Fords to the following: Jos. Frazier, A. R. Cruikshank, C. H. Clymer, L. W. Preege, R. J. Melsack and Rory Collins. M. M. Burtner, of Dufur, who served with Mr. Slade recently on the federal grand jury in Portland, was here last week the guest of A. P. Slade and family. Mr. Burtner, who owns a 100 acre orchard tract in the Dufur district, declared that he was impressed with the manner in which Hood River growers keep their orchards.

Trees Will Be Saved The city council will take steps to save a number of grand oak trees that line State street. Some of the trees have begun to die, apparently, and the matter of having the causes of the decay investigated was taken up by the city fathers Monday night. The trees will be scientifically pruned. It is thought that the hard surface placed on the streets has prevented the oaks from securing their usual moisture. Measures will be taken for artificially watering the oaks.

Young Men Go to Wyeth During the past several weeks an exodus of young men from Hood River has gone to Wyeth, where they are now employed in the tie treating plant and the coal bunkers of the O. W. R. & N. Co. A number of the young men have left clerical positions, the work at Wyeth affording better wages. Among those who have gone from here are Clarence Carnes, Glen Hunt, Paul Blowers, Chas. Heyward and Earl Koberg. Earl Noble is assistant superintendent of the tie plant, while Fred Vogel is in charge of the bunkers. The Glacier office carries Butter paper

Pythians Plan Patriotic Meeting At an open meeting at their Castle hall next Tuesday evening Waucoma Lodge Knights of Pythias and Wauna Temple of Pythian Sisters will simultaneously celebrate the 54th anniversary of the founding of the Pythian order and the 28th birthday of the local Pythian lodge. A feature of the meeting will be formal unveiling by the officers of the lodge of the roll of honor of 11 members of the organization who are now in the service of their country. The patriotic celebration will be attended by delegations of Knights from Cascade Locks and The Dalles. Judge Fred W. Wilson, of The Dalles and H. C. Calkins, formerly Grand Chancellor for the state of California, will deliver addresses. Little Interest in Election But little activity has been displayed by prospective candidates for county offices at the Pythian and Wauna Heppner is the only man who has made even any tentative statements of candidacy. Mr. Heppner says he contemplates the race for county assessor. Jasper Wickham is mentioned as a candidate to succeed himself for the assessorship. Mrs. Kent Shoemaker, wife of the present incumbent, who is now sergeant of 12th Co., is mentioned as a candidate for county clerk. Harry Francis, deputy clerk, is also mentioned. No announcements have been made by prospective candidates for the office of sheriff. Road Work to be Rushed S. W. Curran, former road supervisor of the Viento district, here Saturday, stated that grading on the Columbia River Highway between Viento and Cascade Locks was practically complete. "I understand," said Mr. Curran, "that contractors will soon be operating three more steam shovels on this end of the work, and that the grading between Hood River and Viento will be rushed rapidly. Crews of men are now blasting out the solid rock grade around Ruthon Hill. The county will close the old road, a stretch of which is very dangerous, while the rock work is in progress. Woodmen Get Flag The Neighbors of Woodcraft have made and presented to the Camp of Woodmen of the World a handsome silk service flag, on which stars appear of the following nine members of the fraternal order: Kent Shoemaker, Walter Shay, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Gus Forstberg, A. L. Kerr, L. A. Henderson, Jack Manly, Elliott Staten and Earl Eby. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. H. Blagg, and speeches of acceptance were made by S. M. Dick, C. C. of the Camp, and Prof. L. B. Gibson. Following the presentation of the banner, refreshments were served. Civil Service Examination The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

PYTHIANS PLAN PATRIOTIC MEETING

At an open meeting at their Castle hall next Tuesday evening Waucoma Lodge Knights of Pythias and Wauna Temple of Pythian Sisters will simultaneously celebrate the 54th anniversary of the founding of the Pythian order and the 28th birthday of the local Pythian lodge. A feature of the meeting will be formal unveiling by the officers of the lodge of the roll of honor of 11 members of the organization who are now in the service of their country. The patriotic celebration will be attended by delegations of Knights from Cascade Locks and The Dalles. Judge Fred W. Wilson, of The Dalles and H. C. Calkins, formerly Grand Chancellor for the state of California, will deliver addresses. Little Interest in Election But little activity has been displayed by prospective candidates for county offices at the Pythian and Wauna Heppner is the only man who has made even any tentative statements of candidacy. Mr. Heppner says he contemplates the race for county assessor. Jasper Wickham is mentioned as a candidate to succeed himself for the assessorship. Mrs. Kent Shoemaker, wife of the present incumbent, who is now sergeant of 12th Co., is mentioned as a candidate for county clerk. Harry Francis, deputy clerk, is also mentioned. No announcements have been made by prospective candidates for the office of sheriff. Road Work to be Rushed S. W. Curran, former road supervisor of the Viento district, here Saturday, stated that grading on the Columbia River Highway between Viento and Cascade Locks was practically complete. "I understand," said Mr. Curran, "that contractors will soon be operating three more steam shovels on this end of the work, and that the grading between Hood River and Viento will be rushed rapidly. Crews of men are now blasting out the solid rock grade around Ruthon Hill. The county will close the old road, a stretch of which is very dangerous, while the rock work is in progress. Woodmen Get Flag The Neighbors of Woodcraft have made and presented to the Camp of Woodmen of the World a handsome silk service flag, on which stars appear of the following nine members of the fraternal order: Kent Shoemaker, Walter Shay, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Gus Forstberg, A. L. Kerr, L. A. Henderson, Jack Manly, Elliott Staten and Earl Eby. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. H. Blagg, and speeches of acceptance were made by S. M. Dick, C. C. of the Camp, and Prof. L. B. Gibson. Following the presentation of the banner, refreshments were served. Civil Service Examination The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Little Interest in Election

But little activity has been displayed by prospective candidates for county offices at the Pythian and Wauna Heppner is the only man who has made even any tentative statements of candidacy. Mr. Heppner says he contemplates the race for county assessor. Jasper Wickham is mentioned as a candidate to succeed himself for the assessorship. Mrs. Kent Shoemaker, wife of the present incumbent, who is now sergeant of 12th Co., is mentioned as a candidate for county clerk. Harry Francis, deputy clerk, is also mentioned. No announcements have been made by prospective candidates for the office of sheriff. Road Work to be Rushed S. W. Curran, former road supervisor of the Viento district, here Saturday, stated that grading on the Columbia River Highway between Viento and Cascade Locks was practically complete. "I understand," said Mr. Curran, "that contractors will soon be operating three more steam shovels on this end of the work, and that the grading between Hood River and Viento will be rushed rapidly. Crews of men are now blasting out the solid rock grade around Ruthon Hill. The county will close the old road, a stretch of which is very dangerous, while the rock work is in progress. Woodmen Get Flag The Neighbors of Woodcraft have made and presented to the Camp of Woodmen of the World a handsome silk service flag, on which stars appear of the following nine members of the fraternal order: Kent Shoemaker, Walter Shay, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Gus Forstberg, A. L. Kerr, L. A. Henderson, Jack Manly, Elliott Staten and Earl Eby. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. H. Blagg, and speeches of acceptance were made by S. M. Dick, C. C. of the Camp, and Prof. L. B. Gibson. Following the presentation of the banner, refreshments were served. Civil Service Examination The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Road Work to be Rushed

S. W. Curran, former road supervisor of the Viento district, here Saturday, stated that grading on the Columbia River Highway between Viento and Cascade Locks was practically complete. "I understand," said Mr. Curran, "that contractors will soon be operating three more steam shovels on this end of the work, and that the grading between Hood River and Viento will be rushed rapidly. Crews of men are now blasting out the solid rock grade around Ruthon Hill. The county will close the old road, a stretch of which is very dangerous, while the rock work is in progress. Woodmen Get Flag The Neighbors of Woodcraft have made and presented to the Camp of Woodmen of the World a handsome silk service flag, on which stars appear of the following nine members of the fraternal order: Kent Shoemaker, Walter Shay, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Gus Forstberg, A. L. Kerr, L. A. Henderson, Jack Manly, Elliott Staten and Earl Eby. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. H. Blagg, and speeches of acceptance were made by S. M. Dick, C. C. of the Camp, and Prof. L. B. Gibson. Following the presentation of the banner, refreshments were served. Civil Service Examination The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Woodmen Get Flag

The Neighbors of Woodcraft have made and presented to the Camp of Woodmen of the World a handsome silk service flag, on which stars appear of the following nine members of the fraternal order: Kent Shoemaker, Walter Shay, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Gus Forstberg, A. L. Kerr, L. A. Henderson, Jack Manly, Elliott Staten and Earl Eby. The presentation was made by Mrs. F. H. Blagg, and speeches of acceptance were made by S. M. Dick, C. C. of the Camp, and Prof. L. B. Gibson. Following the presentation of the banner, refreshments were served. Civil Service Examination The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Civil Service Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission, announcing an examination will be held in 54 cities in the states of Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Reclamation Service and other branches requiring special qualifications in the position of bookkeeper. Both men and women will be admitted. Appointing salaries range from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Date of examination is March 9, 1918. Information and application blanks may be secured by addressing the Secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil Service District, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington. Valentine Boy News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Valentine Boy

News has just reached here of the birth to Mrs. Harold Sexton, of The Dalles, of a son on the evening of St. Valentine's day last Thursday. The father of the little boy is one of the non-commissioned officers of 12th Company, now stationed at Fort Canby. The Sextons, until the husband was called to the colors last July, resided on their Pine Grove orchard place. C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

C. C. Carpenter's Mother Dead

News has been received here of the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter, of Cincinnati, O., mother of C. C. Carpenter, owner of an East Side orchard tract, where he and his family formerly resided. Mrs. Carpenter was 82 years of age, and survived her husband, who survives her. Mrs. Carpenter visited the family of her son several years ago, and while here made a host of friends. Indian Attacks Carson Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Indian Attacks Carson

Peter Jackson, Wasco county Indian, when arrested Monday evening by Marshal Carson, attacked the officer, who found it necessary to use his club in repelling the infuriated man. The Indian, known as The Dalles for his frequent carousals, it is said, was here seeking his wife, who had been forced to leave home because of alleged brutal treatment. Phones Again Working West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject: "Mind." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday service, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 5 to 5 p. m., in the Hall building.

Phones Again Working

West Side telephone lines, put out of order Saturday when a snow laden electric power cable was weighted down on them are for the most part again in working order. The snow, wet and clinging, accumulated in great bulk around the power cables and telephone wires. Methodist Church The Sunday school is at 10 o'clock. We are studying the life of Christ as given by St. Mark. If not in another Sunday school you will find a welcome here. "The Boy and His Home Life" will be the subject for the 11 o'clock hour. A special invitation is given both to parents and children to be present. Junior and senior Leagues meet at 6:30. "The Quest for Power," subject at 7:30. The prayer service will be Thursday night this week. Congregational Church Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. Sermon at 11 a. m. Music in charge of Miss Ann Vannet. Miss Brock at the organ. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Odell Union Church—Sunday school at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Sermon at 7:45 p. m. M. L. Hutton, Pastor. First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.;