

OVER THE TOP

Did you see the SAMSON DEMONSTRATION? If not, you will know the fellows who did when you meet them. They are still rubbing their eyes, wondering if they really did see such a fine piece of work on such a wet day.

We expect to try it again as soon as the ground dries out on the Peter's ranch and also give a road work demonstration. Watch for the date.

We can fix it or make it, or you can find it in some one of our nine departments:

- Blacksmithing, Woodworking, Auto Repairing, Horseshoeing, Samson Tractors, G.M.C. Trucks, Overlands, Accessories, Tires, Amason and Wire Tread

THE SNOW & FORDEN MOTOR COMPANY, Inc. CORNER FOURTH AND CASCADE

SPRAYING MATERIALS

ORTHO ARSENATE OF LEAD, both Paste and Powdered, made under special patented processes. Highest award at Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, 1915.

Expert chemists are in charge of our plant, whose duty it is to analyze each batch of Arsenate of Lead, and see that it is of correct chemical composition.

ORTHO ARSENATE OF LEAD stays up in suspension; mixes easily; covers thoroughly; and sticks to the foliage. Guaranteed to measure up to government specifications.

ORTHO ARSENATE OF LEAD is made on the Coast--no long freight hauls.

CALIFORNIA SPRAY-CHEMICAL CO. WATSONVILLE, CALIFORNIA

Save money by ordering your season's supply from Hood River Fruit Co. Local Agent

ORDER EARLY AND BE SURE

POTATOES

TO FILL GOVERNMENT CONTRACT

Call L. S. AINSWORTH Phone 5474, after 7 p. m.

PLANT WHEAT

Hood River County should plant more wheat. Every farmer for his own good and for the benefit of the Government should raise at least an acre of wheat and as much more as he can.

Flour, Feed, Grain, Seeds KELLY BROS. SEVENTH AND RAILROAD STREETS

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Georgia Lynn) The following notes on the basket ball game at Pendleton were handed in by a player on the home team. When we arrived at Pendleton we were met at the train by autos and taken for a ride about town. Then each girl was taken to a private home where they were treated most cordially.

At a big assembly held in the auditorium Monday afternoon, State Biologist Finley gave his lecture on the birds, animals and fish of the state in the presence of the high school pupils and all the graders of the three city schools.

Former Principal Crites was present at our assembly yesterday morning. After the usual sing developed the real reason for his presence. He presented the following athletic letters: Foot ball letters to Lloyd Wirrick, Floyd Mason, Francis Miller, Frank Vunder Abe, Ray Slayers, Lloyd Blowers and Kenneth Hicks.

ODELL

Born--To Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hamilton, Thursday, March 7, a son, Marion Hunter went to Portland Saturday. Verne Harris went to Portland Saturday. He has a position with the Cutler Fruit Grader Manufacturing Co. of Portland.

Arthur Tompkins, who is employed in the timber out from Underwood, Wash., spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tompkins, of Odell.

Misses Eva Toyed and Mary Shepard spent the week end in The Dalles. O. H. Ehrck, of Portland, spent a few days of the past week visiting relatives and friends in Odell.

Mrs. Gladwyn Davis has returned home from a short visit with Mrs. C. R. Hale at Ostrander, Wash.

W. O. Shepard returned home Sunday after having spent a few days at Corvallis, Oregon.

Mrs. J. H. Eggeert has returned home from Portland where she visited with relatives and friends.

Odell residents will be interested to know that Rev. T. W. Atkinson and family are now at home in Portland.

The games Friday night, Odell 2nd team vs. The Dalles 2nd team and Odell High School vs. Odell A.A. were lively from start to finish.

The next regular meeting of Odell Grange will be held Thursday, this evening.

The dance committee of the grange has issued invitations for a St. Patrick's Day dance in the hall Friday evening, March 15.

A large and appreciative audience attended the illustrated lecture given by Biologist Finley at the high school auditorium Saturday evening.

Miss Lempe Annala went to Portland Monday for a two weeks' stay.

Miss Martha H. Bechen, emergency home demonstration agent, was here Wednesday evening. Her subject was "Gardening and Poultry" at the high school auditorium.

As large a congregation as ever gathered in the Methodist church was present Sunday evening when the community service flag was dedicated.

The flag, the ground of which is white, the border red, and the stars blue, was designed by J. E. Ferguson. To Mrs. L. D. Boyd, Mrs. Mont Hawthorne and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson must credit go for making the flag.

The program was impressive and beautiful throughout. At the time of dedication the flag bore 47 stars, one of gold for Walter Plog who was the first boy from Odell who gave the supreme sacrifice.

Miss Lucille Craven, intermediate teacher at Frankton, was a week end visitor in Portland.

The Frankton boys' basket ball team went to Hood River last Friday to play a bunch of the boys there. It has been able to get the score, but think our boys got the worst of it.

The people below the Ruthton hill are laying in a good supply of grub ferrest the day when those big blasts are fired. Getting out of there after that will be well, indeed.

Marion Phillips left one day last week for Seattle to join the navy. If he succeeds in passing this week which will be dedicated at the next Parent-Teacher meeting, making 20 from this school district.

Mrs. J. W. Hinrichs, from Hood River, visited over Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Larson, and family.

Adam Schmecker and family have moved down to Sonny. Mr. Schmecker is foreman of the log camp there for the Mitchell Point Lumber Co.

George Galloway, captain, and his band of Neutenants met at the school house at Frankton Saturday night to arrange the preliminaries for the big Liberty Loan drive which will start soon.

John Phillips is assembling men and material, getting ready to start the Post Canyon mill in a short time.

MOUNT HOOD.

Mrs. Frank Hanel is on the sick list. Asa and Richard Duggett were out of school last week on account of sickness.

Miss Bernice Everson has been ill the past week, but is slowly recovering.

Bob Duncan, of Mount Hood, is a business visitor at Portland last Monday.

W. T. Wyatt made several trips with his truck to Hood River last week.

Mrs. Florence Everson, and Miss Dorcas DeWitt were dinner guests at the J. H. Sheidrake home at Parkdale, Wednesday evening.

There was no Red Cross meeting last week, as the work did not come.

Pete Klabis had the well known wart removed from his face one day last week.

Col. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker have returned from Portland. They were accompanied by George Frey, who spent the winter in Portland.

J. B. Doggett attended church at Middle Valley Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Boddy will preach at Mount Hood Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

ODELL HIGH SCHOOL

Last Friday night The Dalles second team came and played our second team with a score of 19 to 8 in favor of Odell. There was a good crowd and everyone was satisfied with the game.

Preparations were made to keep The Dalles boys over night, but they went home the same night. The lineup was: Center, Fred Walter; guards, Maurice Graff and Johnny Wickham; forwards, Elmer Annala and Herbert Odeh.

There was also a scrub game between the first team and the Odell A. A., with a score of 23 to 28 in favor of the A. A. The game would have been different if we had not given them Wallace May.

Saturday night, March 16, the literary society will represent "Civil Service," an American drama in three acts. The cast follows:

Old R. F. D., a mystery, Orey Cameron.

The inspector, E. J. Goshran, Maurice Graff.

The postmaster, J. L. Reynolds, Edgar Harris.

The young money order clerk, Steve Anderson, William Gilkerson.

The mailing clerk, Simpson Peavy, Curtis Gould.

The country boy, Gollie Wex, Harold Hagen.

The postmaster's daughter, Octavia, Esther Lingren.

A lady of importance, Mrs. T. R. Jeffs, Ruth Young.

A hired girl, Birdie Evans, Esther Hagen.

A collector, Miss Goldstein, Anna Vanada.

The plucky little stamp clerk, Kate Kenyon, Martha Ferguson.

An admission fee of 25 and 15 cents will be charged, the proceeds of the play being applied to the deficit in the Athletic Association fund.

Mitts and balls are coming into evidence.

The moving picture lecture given by State Biologist Finley Saturday evening was exceedingly interesting and brought to mind the beauty and attractiveness of wild life as well as the economic importance of its conservation.

except in the case of a few animals, such as the weasel, who is a blood thirsty little wretch. The hall was crowded, many of the people having to stand during the entire program.

Four reels were shown which included ways and means for bird conservation in the shape of bird houses built by children. Bird life in its natural habitats was shown. Methods of fish conservation and hatching should arouse an interest and desire to enter into this occupation with as much enthusiasm as one does that of poultry raising.

The last reel pictured animal life freed from all fear of man, due to the national reserves set aside by the government for the protection of the species.

The bird songs by the grade children were appropriate and well given. Opportunity was given to all at the end of the lecture to the men to join the Game & Fish Protective Association, which was represented by the president.

The bird songs by the grade children were appropriate and well given. Opportunity was given to all at the end of the lecture to the men to join the Game & Fish Protective Association, which was represented by the president.

Winnifred Allen, the bewitching young Triangle star will be seen in "For Valour," a tale of a young Canadian soldier's redemption from the brand of cowardice. We will show a one reel Triangle comedy "A Tough Turkey Trot," and the second of our Mack Sennet Paramount comedies with Charlie Murray, the monkey-faced Mick, Wayland Trask and Mary Thurman, assisted by the greatest array of feminine paludinade ever assembled before the camera in "That night," A big eight reel show, well balanced, and properly shown. Two days only. Usual prices.

Friday and Saturday Those two popular portrayals of juvenile roles, Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, will be seen in their latest Paramount success, "The Ghost House," one of the best of their many screen offerings. Also a one reel Animated Weekly, which will be a feature of the Friday and Saturday shows, will be shown.

Sunday One day only, William Desmond will be seen in his latest Triangle offering, "The Sudden Gentleman." A play especially suited to Mr. Desmond. Also a one reel comedy, "An Officer's Mess."

Monday and Tuesday We will present the Metro special production of luxe, "Draft 258," starring Mabel Taliaferro. The big patriotic production in seven acts that is sweeping the country like a prairie fire. The successor to "The Slacker," Metro's sensational patriotic spectacle without a battle scene. See what happens to the son, the brother and the sweetheart drawn by the national army. One of the greatest spectacles of the year. Seven smashing dramatic acts. It is a pictorial review of our nation's history with a great cast of film notables. One of the big ones that are booked for you at the Liberty. Wind the cat and put the clock out, then come down to the Liberty to see "Draft 258" Monday and Tuesday, March 18 and 19, two days only. 15 and 25 cents.

Wednesday and Thursday Claire McDowell will be seen in a great sea story, "The Ship of Doom." One of Triangle's big vibrate stories of the great outdoors. Also a one reel comedy, "Sauce for the Goose." Hazel Holland at the organ.

BELMONT

Mrs. F. G. Church was visiting a few of her old friends and neighbors in Belmont Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Davis, Mrs. W. H. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Wright and little daughter, of Hood River, drove out Sunday to the Davis ranch.

Mrs. Harry Steele is the proud owner of a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. W. Bishop and daughter attended the opening of the Liberty theatre Thursday evening.

W. G. Somerville was at work several days the past week at the Huff ranch.

Elmer Isenberg is busy pruning the orchard on the Robert Jones place now the property of John W. Anderson.

Mrs. Douglas, of Hood River, is spending the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Downing, and family. Last Tuesday she spent the day with her granddaughter, Mrs. Roy Crapper, and family.

The Current Events club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. G. Somerville, a large number in attendance. Discussion of current events was indulged in by those present.

The young money order clerk, Steve Anderson, William Gilkerson.

The mailing clerk, Simpson Peavy, Curtis Gould.

The country boy, Gollie Wex, Harold Hagen.

The postmaster's daughter, Octavia, Esther Lingren.

A lady of importance, Mrs. T. R. Jeffs, Ruth Young.

A hired girl, Birdie Evans, Esther Hagen.

A collector, Miss Goldstein, Anna Vanada.

The plucky little stamp clerk, Kate Kenyon, Martha Ferguson.

An admission fee of 25 and 15 cents will be charged, the proceeds of the play being applied to the deficit in the Athletic Association fund.

Mitts and balls are coming into evidence.

The moving picture lecture given by State Biologist Finley Saturday evening was exceedingly interesting and brought to mind the beauty and attractiveness of wild life as well as the economic importance of its conservation.

except in the case of a few animals, such as the weasel, who is a blood thirsty little wretch. The hall was crowded, many of the people having to stand during the entire program.

Four reels were shown which included ways and means for bird conservation in the shape of bird houses built by children. Bird life in its natural habitats was shown. Methods of fish conservation and hatching should arouse an interest and desire to enter into this occupation with as much enthusiasm as one does that of poultry raising.

The last reel pictured animal life freed from all fear of man, due to the national reserves set aside by the government for the protection of the species.

The bird songs by the grade children were appropriate and well given. Opportunity was given to all at the end of the lecture to the men to join the Game & Fish Protective Association, which was represented by the president.

The bird songs by the grade children were appropriate and well given. Opportunity was given to all at the end of the lecture to the men to join the Game & Fish Protective Association, which was represented by the president.

PARKDALE

Mrs. Elmer Lyle was here from Portland the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle expect to make their home in Parkdale during the summer.

Allen Way left Friday for Portland, where he expects to enlist with a company that goes to Fort Meyers, Va.

Miss Martha Bechen, of O. A. C., talked on "Gardening and Poultry Raising" in Melsaac's hall Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McConn were in Hood River visitors last week.

W. M. Cooper is building a new house on his lot next to the blacksmith shop.

Friday night Rev. Boddy gave an illustrated lecture at Melsaac's hall.

The horse sheds will be torn down and rebuilt on the west side of Melsaac's store. J. M. Demmon is planning to build a new garage where the old sheds now stand.

Rev. Boddy preached at Middle Valley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Kunyon conducted a personal service work at the church Sunday afternoon. There was a good attendance.

The different branches of the church are planning community service work to get everybody interested in the church.

Miss Edith Leasure returned home the latter part of last week after visiting at Hood River for several days.

Mr. Hough, principal of the high school is at Portland this week to be under the doctor's care. During his absence Miss Nelson will be in charge of the work. A number of classes are being omitted, much to the pleasure of the pupils.

R. J. Melsaac and family are moving back to their ranch this week.

Harley Perkins has moved into the Rolla Meyers' house.

MIDDLE VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ireland are home from Portland.

The Red Cross will meet at Mrs. M. Rice's for sewing on Saturday.

Terry Barnes' horse ran away with him Saturday. Terry is a good rider, but the saddle girth broke, landing both saddle and rider on a boulder in Neal creek canyon, causing a general shaking up for Terry.

If we could get more of Portland's over supply of small fishes.

Word has been received that Glenn Lenz is in an Atlantic seaport in Virginia.

Capt. Winnifred Arens, of Camp Lewis, telephoned his mother Saturday that he was on his way to Fort Sill, Okla., to enter a machine gun school.

After a two months' course he will return to Camp Lewis as a machine gun inspector. While on his way to Fort Sill Capt. Arens will stop at El Paso, Tex., to visit with his wife, who is visiting her mother there.

Frank Clemmons brought a new horse at Underwood this week.

Waldo Arens has been to Corvallis to attend the initiation of the local fraternity Kappa Sigma Nu, of which he is a member, into the national fraternity of Phi Delta Theta. Capt. W. Arens stopped at Corvallis while on his way to Fort Sill, and was taken into the national fraternity at a special initiation. The boys report a great time.

Despondency Due to Constipation Women often become nervous and despondent. When this is due to constipation it is easily corrected by taking an occasional dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

PINE GROVE

Elmer House went to Portland Tuesday of last week, returning Friday.

After a visit of two weeks in Portland with friends Mrs. H. M. Vanner returned Friday afternoon.

Miss Lulu Hunt left for Portland Monday morning to be absent for several weeks.

Mrs. Edward Van Horn and Miss Bernice McDonald returned from Fort Canby last week Wednesday morning. Mrs. Van Horn will stay for some time at the McDonald home, then she