High School Notes
The Skookum Literary society presented their program to one of the largest houses ever entertained by a literary society last Thursday evening.
The net proceeds of the evening were $88.50. Of this amount $25 will be applied to the service flag and the remainder will go to the Junior Red Cross.

Preparations for Big Red Cross Fund
The National headquarters of the American Red Cross has sent out a call to every Chapter to begin making preliminary preparations for the coming War Fund Red Cross drive May 20, for another $100,000,000.
The executive committee of the Hood River Chapter in answer to this call, is now busily engaged in arranging the personnel of the various teams to raise the Hood River quota, which quota is to be announced from division headquarters in a few days.

Time Here for Pink Lime-Sulphur
The extreme warm weather of the past week has caused much development in the apple orchards. Usually a period of 12 to 15 days at least occurs between the delayed dormant and pink spray. This year all indications seem to point that the time will be somewhat shorter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Statten have received a carl stating that their son, Elliott J. Statten, has arrived safely over seas.
Dr. J. E. Anderson, of The Dalles, was here and at Cascade Locks last week in the interest of his candidacy for the governorship.

Odell High School
The high school grounds are to be the scene of an out of door patriotic celebration, to be held on the afternoon, besides a flag raising and other patriotic numbers, there will be a base ball game, races and Maypole festivities.
Everyone is urged to turn out.

Consolidated Co. Has Best Window
Acting in cooperation with the Hood River Woman's Club, local merchants showed some attractive displays of Oregon-made goods last week. These displays were judged by J. W. Crites and Mrs. R. D. Gould. That of the Consolidated Mercantile Company was judged to be the best, because of its variety and attractiveness.

Here is An Unbelievable Opportunity
To acquire as an attractive a home as there is in Hood River Valley. Located on our best highway, a short distance from the city, under our best irrigation system and at a price that is positively giving it away.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shoemaker, of White Salmon, were here over the week end visiting Mr. Shoemaker's mother, Mrs. Alida Shoemaker.
