TRIBUTE IS PAID TO MR. SMITH

Last Thursday, when he delivered the annual address to Oregon pioneers in session at Portland, Judge Fred W. Wilson, of The Dalles, paid a tribute to Hood River's grand old man, E. L. Smith. Judge Wilson's eulogy of Mr. Smith follows: One of my greatest pleasures comes when court convenes at Hood River and opportunity is given to pay respect and honor to a gracious personality, the most revered man in the beautiful valley of Hood River, E. L. Smith.

FEUD OF NEIGHBORS MAY HOLD TRAFFIC

A neighborhood feud may delay the lifting of the Highway blockade between here and Cascade Locks. It is proposed to connect the new Ruthton hill section of the Highway with the old state road by a grade that will permit egress from the ranch of J. W. Morton. The Morton road will cross corners of the ranch of P. A. Reed. Several years ago Mr. Reed, seeking a road from his ranch to the county highway had difficulty with Mr. Morton. Now Mr. Reed has posted signs, demanding that satisfactory arrangements be made with him before his property is trespassed upon.

ROBINSON SUCCEEDS McLAUGHLIN

The city school board last week elected E. T. Robinson, for the past eight years superintendent of Toppenish, Wash., school, local city superintendent, succeeding J. O. McLaughlin, who goes to Corvallis to take a similar position. Mr. Robinson is a graduate of Indiana State Normal and the University of Washington. Before going to Toppenish he was principal of a Seattle ward school for a number of years.

Bell Arranges Park Crews of men have been wrecking an old building on a quarter block, the corner of Second street and Cascade avenue preparatory to turning the plot into a flower garden and parking place for automobiles. One of the old structures on the plot expired several weeks ago, and A. Bell, owner of the property and Mt. Hood hotel adjoining, decided to make a park of the quarter block.

Fire Threatens Clifton

Despite the fact that he had spent the night before guarding his home against fire running in the dry grass and underbrush of the Columbia gorge, M. E. Nolte was among the most active of Hood River county War Savings Stamp workers Saturday. A member of a soliciting team, Mr. Nolte was receiving pledges amounting to many dollars from his neighbors.

Cherry Harvest is On

Following on the heels of the strawberry harvest, the Hood River cherry crop is maturing. The cherry crop here is limited, most growers having only a few trees for home use. J. R. Nunamaker, who grows the fruit on a commercial basis, however, is seeking harvest hands. He expects to secure sufficient pickers from the strawberry fields.

Cholera Morbus

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

HAVE YOU BEEN SICK? Then you realize the utter weakness that robs ambition, destroys appetite and makes work a burden. To regain your strength nothing has ever equaled or compared with Scott's Emulsion; its blood-enriching properties give energy to the body while its tonic value sharpens the appetite in a natural, permanent way.

NEWTON CLARK, PIONEER, IS DEAD

A telephone message conveying news of the death in Portland Friday of Newton Clark, prominent Hood River pioneer, brought a shock to the general public and grief to his grand Army comrades. Fond of the out of doors, Mr. Clark spent much time in early days in exploring the mid-Columbia. Newton Clark glacier on Mount Hood was named for him. He is a past commander of the Department of Oregon, Grand Army.

Mr. Clark and his family came here in 1877, locating on a Wild Side place, a part of which the pioneer owned at the time of his death. He established many of the section lines of the mid-Columbia country. The pioneer was a charter member of the local Ancient Order of United Workmen, the first fraternal organization established in Hood River. He had been grand recorder of the organization for many years, and for the past several months had been in Portland engaged in fraternal work. He was also a member of the Masonic lodge and Canby Post, G. A. R., of this city. Members of the Masonic lodge and Canby Post participated in the funeral services held Sunday at 1 p. m., at Riverside Congregational church.

Mr. Clark is survived by his widow, a son, W. L. Clark, and a daughter, Mrs. W. B. Brazleton, of Portland. Members of pioneer families, G. A. R. men and fraternal brothers of Mr. Clark crowded the Riverside church Sunday to pay their last respects to Newton Clark, 80 year old pioneer. Rev. J. L. Hershner preached the funeral sermon, assisted in the services by Rev. M. L. Hutton. With the exception of E. L. Smith, Mr. Clark was the last of the charter members of Riverside Lodge, A. O. U. W., the first Hood River fraternal organization, granted a charter in 1882. He was a charter member of Minnehaha Lodge, F. & A. M., of Sioux Falls, N. D. A party of the grand lodge officers of the Oregon organization of A. O. U. W. were here for the funeral services.

MISS TOLLMAN DIES SUDDENLY

One of the saddest of recent deaths in Hood River was that Wednesday of Miss Elizabeth Tollman, aged 25 years, Miss Tollman's wedding to Stanley J. Shere, former agent for the Mt. Hood Railroad Co., was to have been an event of Saturday. Mr. Shere, who is at the army at Vancouver, arrived here just in time to see Miss Tollman, whose death was sudden, due to complications following an attack of tonsillitis, alive.

The young woman, for several years in the office of the Oregon-Washington Telephone Co., is survived by her mother, Mrs. P. A. Tollman, a brother, William Tollman, who is in the navy, and a sister Miss Nellie Tollman. Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at the Ashbury Methodist church, Rev. J. D. Lewellen officiating. Interment followed at Idlewild cemetery.

PARIS FAIR, KEIR HELP CAMPAIGN

The Paris Fair and A. S. Keir are assisting with the War Savings Stamp campaign. These merchants last week subscribed to the half page space in the Glacier for making a War Stamp announcement. Through an error their names, however, were left off the advertisement.

Snow Buys Out Forden

W. G. Snow has purchased the entire stock of J. R. Forden in the Snow-Forden Motor Co. S. M. Dick remains treasurer of the corporation and Mrs. Snow becomes secretary, succeeding Mr. Forden. Mr. Snow, known for the excellency of his work for many years, will continue to operate the Cascade avenue garage and the woodworking, blacksmithing, repair and horseshoeing departments which he operated along the customary high standards. Mr. Snow has become known in apple producing sections the world over for the perfected Hood River Apple Box Nailing Press.

Mrs. Laraway's Cousin Writes

Miss Mabel Erb, cousin of Mrs. W. F. Laraway, is now in charge of one of the large Red Cross hospitals in France. On a postal just received by Mrs. Laraway, the Red Cross nurse says: "I have seen 600 wounded Americans today, and a troop train, carrying 2,000 others to the front. They are the best ever."

Correction

In a report of the record made last week by a Heights soliciting team for the Armenian fund, it was erroneously stated that the larger part of the fund was given by members of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. This was an error. The church people were liberal in their contributions, but the fund was raised from gifts made by all Heights families.

Sour Stomach

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

COOPER TO PROVE FAMOUS THEORIES

His Remarkable Medicine Accomplishing Wonderful Results in Leading Cities Referring to the visit to Portland and other western cities of Mr. L. T. Cooper, the millionaire philanthropist and lecturer, who has commanded such widespread interest in the east with his health theories and celebrated medicine, Tanlac, E. C. Harris, his representative, recently said in Portland: "Thousands of the most prominent people in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Salt Lake city, Detroit, Louisville, Dallas, Atlanta, Memphis and other cities where his celebrated medicine has been accomplishing such remarkable results are being more enthusiastic over Tanlac than Mr. Cooper himself."
