

STOMACH TROUBLES

AN IRRITABLE, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach troubles by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Try them. They only cost a quarter.

RECKLESS TRUCK DRIVER DISCOVERED

Local and Portland citizens driving over the Mosier hill grade last week lay claim to the discovery of the king fool of automobile drivers.

"En route to the Dalles," says W. J. White, traveling salesman for a Portland paper house, "I was winding around the sharp turns of the grade, when I heard a violent rattling and looking across a ravine beheld a Ford truck fairly hurtling down the decline. It naturally struck me that something was the matter with the driver's breaks. The road was narrow, and with my hair on end I pulled off to the edge of the road, overlooking a deep canyon, my outside wheels at the very jump-off. The truck driver didn't slow up in the least. He scraped the bank, took off one of my hubcaps and proceeded on his downward way. Accompanied by a girl, he was smiling serenely. I realized that the trouble was not with his car but in the driver's head, and I am glad I didn't have a gun, for I would have been tempted to join the brotherhood of fool-killers.

"I had just passed several cars in trouble below me, some of them in very narrow places. I expected to hear of trouble for them. Instead I learned on the arrival of one of them at the Dalles that the truck driver, in order to avoid the car, had jammed his own machine into the bank, barely missing a hasty descent in to the canyon."

The alleged reckless driver came to Hood River for help. He reported at a local garage that he had been forced to hit the bank in order to avoid the machine of a man, out of gasoline, who had blocked the road in order to hold up some fellow motorist.

ESSAY PRIZE WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The result of the essay contest planned by the Woman's club a few weeks ago is as follows:

High school, first prize, $5, Lindsey Spight, Hood River, subject, "The Curriculum of the Future School," second prize, $3, Millicent Goodlander, Parkdale high school, subject, "Do Labor Organizations Solve the Problem of the Living Wage?" Third prize, $2, Helen Ross, Hood River, subject, "Restriction of Immigration."

Grade schools: Prize of $5, Gerald Culliff, Parkdale, subject, "Roosevelt the Ideal American," second prize of $3, Esther Barrett, subject, "Each the World Hero," third prize of $2, Frank Sonnickson, Barrett, subject, "Wild Flowers of Hood River Valley." There were 250 manuscripts submitted and the judges appointed by Mrs. A. G. Lewis, club president, were Mrs. C. D. Hoyt, Rev. E. C. Newham and Mrs. Paul Hughes. The plan received the hearty cooperation of the county teachers and County Superintendent Gibson, and the result was most gratifying to the committee in charge.

Mrs. Kroeger's Mother Passes

The body of Mrs. Eliza Towle, native of Easton, Me., who died Wednesday morning of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Kroeger, was shipped by S. E. Bartness to Orchards, Wash., where interment occurred Friday afternoon following funeral services.

Mrs. Towle, who was 76 years of age, was stricken with paralysis while visiting her daughter. She came from Maine with her family in 1892, having resided at Orchards since then.

In addition to the local daughter, Mrs. Towle is survived by two sons, Amos Towle, of Easton, Me., and Joseph Towle, of Orchards, Me. While the season of fruit blossoms is over, the array of colors of wild flowers, and their fragrance, add to the appeal of motoring over the Hood River highways. Roads remain in good condition, trees of men being kept busy in all districts on maintenance.

England Travel Has Worries

Dwight L. Woodruff, New York district sales manager of the Association, who is now on a tour of European markets, writes the organization that convenience of travel is notable before the war, are lacking in England today. Mr. Woodruff says that English families of means, as the war took away their servants for service and war work, moved into the hotels. As a result, hosteleries are crowded with permanent dwellers. Mr. Woodruff declares that hotel rooms are exorbitant and difficult to obtain at any price. Transportation service by taxicab, formerly the best in the world, is now almost impossible.

Mr. Woodruff says that the government is taking a hand in the situation and is demanding that hotel dwellers return to their own homes.

Suggestions For a Camping Trip

Buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy before leaving home. As a rule it cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamships and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you.

Berries Bring $100

The crate of strawberries presented by C. W. McCullagh to the Portland Ad Club and auctioned off at a luncheon, brought $100, which was turned over to a Portland children's home.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Hood River who suffers backache can afford to ignore this Hood River woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Hood River resident can doubt.

Mrs. J. W. Gatchel, 1109 Seventh St., Hood River, says: "I had considerable trouble from a dull nagging ache across the small of my back. I tried several well known kidney medicines, but didn't get any relief. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon found, much to my surprise, how quickly they acted. I got better at once. The backache disappeared and my kidneys were strengthened."

Over six years later Mrs. Gatchel said: "I am glad to confirm what I said in my former statement regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I take them when in need of a kidney medicine and they always give me great satisfaction."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gatchel had. Forster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HOERLEIN BROTHERS OPEN RESORT PLACE

Since the opening of the Columbia Highway there has been a subsequent increase of tourists and vacationists in the Hood River valley and a growing appreciation of the valley's scenic assets and vacation possibilities. In response to the demand that has arisen for an increase in the resort accommodations of the valley, Hoerlein Brothers have opened for patronage their commodious new home, recently completed and built with this end in view.

The Hoerlein ranch is situated in one of the most charming and attractive spots in the valley, but six miles from town and only a short distance from a trunk highway, yet by virtue of its location, is admirably secluded on the bench land and wooded hills of Hood River gorge, commanding a superb view of its rugged, forested depths, and of the valley orchards and surrounding mountain ranges. The panorama of mountains, forests and orchards, interspersed with clumps of woodland, is unsurpassed. The ranch embraces a tract of 75 acres, bordering the river and extending to the crest of the gorge by a series of benches and wooded hillsides. As about 40 acres consist of hillside, the visitor finds the refreshing contrast with material woodland close at hand and can also enjoy the seclusion in the cool depths of the gorge where the river rushes roaring and tumbling on its way. For those who have the inclination, there is fishing or shoveling is the opportunity for pleasant walks to the river or about the place, made possible by roads and trails.

The interesting feature of the ranch is the rustic, commodious home located on a prominent in a natural court of pines that stand tall and silently symbolic of what Hood River forests once were like, graciously lending beauty and charm as thanks for their survival. The home is of rustic structure of massive proportions, yet fitting gracefully into its setting, beneath the lofty pines. A fireplace chimney of rough field stones adds to the idea of rugged massiveness. Great beams and posts were utilized in the construction of the porch. The long, steep pitch of roof and wide eaves are suggestive of Swiss architecture, which fits aptly to the countryside surrounding.

The ground floor dimensions are 45x39 feet. The first floor is given entirely to the living room, kitchen and porches. The large living room includes a sun room and a library and music room. The sun room separates two roomy, cozy porches and French doors open to either porch. From the many casement windows, the view of the valley is practically the entire valley. A feature of the sun room is the large set of casement windows, hinged and operated on a track as to allow of a complete opening affording a magnificent view.

The rough stone fireplace claims a great part of one end of the big living room. Into the stone work are set panels of concrete into which are imbedded Indian axes, arrow heads and spear points, quite a few of these having been found on the place. The beamed ceiling and paneled walls, finished in a pleasing contrast of brown stain and natural finish convey again the rustic ideas carried out. On the second and third floors there are nine bed rooms, four of which have individual sleeping porches.

In addition to room accommodations there will be walled and floored tents. Parties will have the privilege of making reservations for Sunday dinners. Parties in vacation in the country, where there is seclusion and natural surroundings close at hand, will surely appreciate a sojourn here.

TAUB PRAISES LOCAL ORCHARDISTS

Louis Taub, of New York city, who has won the reputation of being the largest exclusive boxed apple dealer in the world, was the guest of Hood River shippers and growers last week. On his first tour of the Northwest, he declares that he has never seen healthier orchards than those of Oregon.

"The care that our growers give their trees," said Mr. Taub, "is an incentive to the marketer to push the product."

Mr. Taub, who accompanied C. W. McCullagh for a tour to Portland over the Highway, says the Idaho apple crop, although prunes have been killed, has not been as seriously affected by frosts as was recently reported.

Wild Flowers are Appealing

The large areas of rhododendrons now in bloom on the upper West Fork are declared especially attractive by motorists who have traveled through the Deet district recently. While the trunk line road from Odell to Deet is rough in spots, the highways of the Deet district are excellent. By next season the rhododendron country will likely be the goal of numerous motorists. With funds provided by the county court, a public subscription and the forestry service a road is now being opened to Lead Lake, one of the most appealing of Cascade retreats.

Attracted by the variety of scenery in Skamania and Klickitat counties, Washington, numerous local motorists spend the week ends motoring to Glenwood, Ilwaco and Lost Lake. The Washington highways are said to be in excellent condition. By making an early start from Portland motorists may take the Columbia Highway and, crossing by local ferry, easily visit the scenic points of Klickitat counties in a day, it is said. In the near future one of the trips between the mid-Columbia and Portland may be made by the North Bank Highway, incomplete links of which will be finished this summer.

The Latest Drytime Activity

"For the moderate sum of $2, we will furnish you with a recipe for the home manufacture of excellent whiskey." Thus reads the offering of a circular letter received through the mails the past week by many Hood River citizens from a Portland concern. Whether any of the local prospects have made the investment has not been learned. Some of the receipts of the letters, however, have turned over their letters to authorities, claiming that the use of such solicitation through the mails is illegal.

Do Your Best

Everyone should do all he can to provide for his family and in order to do this he must keep his physical system in the best condition possible. No one can reasonably hope to do much when he is half sick a good share of the time. If you are constipated, bilious or troubled with indigestion get a package of Chamberlain's Tablets and follow the plain printed directions, and you will soon be feeling bright and able to do a day's work.

AUTOMOBILE PARK IS NOW ASSURED

Having received the endorsement of the county court, the Commercial club and the Hood River County Game Protective Association, a committee appointed by the city council will proceed to improve a tract of land just across Hood river from town for the free use of motor tourists visiting here this summer. The use of the land was donated as an automobile park by Chas. T. Early. Funds for the improvement of the property will be furnished jointly by the city and county.

The park committee is composed of E. O. Blanchard, Leslie Butler and W. T. Price.

The Glacier office carries Butter paper.
