E. L. SMITH SUPPORTS GEN. WOOD

"I cast my first vote for Abraham Lincoln in 1860," says E. L. Smith, for many years a leader in Republican circles of the state and one of the few surviving men of the country who was present at the memorable Chicago convention at which the great Emancipator was nominated, "and I hope to be able to cast the ballot of a Lincoln Republican for Gen. Leonard Wood in 1920.

"It warms the cockles of my heart to see the American people taking an absorbing interest in the suggestion of Gen. Wood for the next leader of the great party. Gen. Wood has demonstrated an ability as a leader of men and of constructive statesmanship. He has shown his eligibility for chief executive of his country. He has been tried, both in wartime and peacetime. It will be remembered that Gen. Wood and the late Theodore Roosevelt were in command of the Rough Riders at San Juan. In the reconstruction of the Cuban government Gen. Wood was a dominant factor in giving to Cuba a constitution that has endured.

"And out of a spirit of fairness I want to see Gen. Wood get the nomination of his party and win at the polls, for thus he will win retribution for the rebuffs he has received at the hands of the present administration and the war department.

"I say with Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, that never in one in high command of a nation's military department received such degradation as fell to the lot of Gen. Wood, without an explanation to the people."

The sentiments of Mr. Smith are voiced generally by local Republican leaders and members of the county Republican organization.

NO REPRIEVE FOR BOOZE SAYS SUNDAY

Digressing from a sermon, mainly an arraignment of the hypocritical "tightwad" type of churchgoer, Billy Sunday found time Sunday to voice strenuous protest against President Wilson's request for lifting the ban on the war prohibition measure.

"I have been with Wilson foursquare and from the heart out," declared Mr. Sunday, "until his announcement on the prohibition measure. Ever since I cannot parley or grant any reprieves. I'm ready to fight the lifting of the ban."

With numerous out of town motor parties here for the sermon, the Congregational church was overflowing. Solos were rendered by Miss Florence Brosius and Miss Gladys Reavis.

Notice the large size rooms, averaging (taking from a number of Northwest mail order house plan books): Bed Rooms 9x10, Bath rooms 5x6, Kitchens 10x9, etc. Notice the fact that the rear porch generally constitutes an uncovered platform with a few steps—really a "stoop" mis-called a porch. Notice the lack of the modern conveniences in most designs—no kitchen cupboards shown in plan, no medicine cabinet in bath room, no handy built-in features, such as ironing boards, book cases, linen closets, or clothes closets. Or did you imagine the price quoted included the freight, and more afterwards surprised to learn you have to dig down in your pocket and pungle up some more good shekels for Uncle Sam's railroad; or have you thought that all the material necessary would be furnished, and like nine out of ten, extra material amounting approximately to $100.00 had to be purchased to complete the job.

Our Architectural Department, comprising a number of skilled architects, supply us with pictures of houses and all farm buildings.

HILL RECORD MADE ON RED CROWN

When Charles Basle a few years ago drove his Peerless Eight over the famous Rim o' the World hill climbing course in record time he was using Red Crown gasoline. C. S. Stone, in his Essex who was second, also had Red Crown in his tank.

Unquestionably this course, which covers eight miles of grade ranging from five to 18 per cent through the Waterman Canyon near San Bernardino, is one of the severest tests motor fuel can have anywhere in the country. There is hardly a straight stretch of road in the whole distance and the innumerable sharp curves and twists, combined with the grade, present difficulties which can only be overcome by a car using the best quality of gasoline.

This Rim o' the World hill climbing contest is one of the few stock car events regularly held in California. That the two winning cars should both have used Red Crown is a tribute to the quality and steady power that it possesses in every day use.

The high quality of Red Crown was again demonstrated under the heavy strain of this hill climbing event. As a straight distilled, all refinery gasoline it has the full and complete chain of boiling points necessary for consistent performance. Low boiling points give easy starting, medium boiling points quick and smooth acceleration, and high boiling points give steady, dependable power and long mileage.

HAYNES CARS ARE VERY POPULAR

The Haynes cars are winning popularity in Hood River. E. A. Franz Co. last week delivered big touring cars of the Haynes make to J. C. Porter, of the East Side, and Eugene C. Ewer, of Parkdale. The concern has just received a carload of Haynes machines. The Franz company is now making deliveries in a three quarter ton Oldsmobile truck. Although no good looks have been lost, apparently, the big truck wears an air of strength and durability.
