

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist. John Deere farm machines, Gilbert Motor Car Company. Bringing your grinding and rolling to the Highland Milling Co. this fall.

Mrs. G. L. Schetky arrived Monday from New York City to be with her father, who is seriously ill at his home. Chase, Burt, O. W. R. & N. auditor from Portland, was here the first of the week on official business.

Industrial Editor Butman, of the Portland Telegram, was here the latter part of last week securing data for an article on industrial development in the valley. Mrs. Will David, after a visit here with her brother, A. E. Woolpert, and family, has left by way of Victoria and Vancouver, for her home in Superior, Wis.

If You Need Corsets, Don't Wait. This is just a quiet suggestion based on known market conditions. We have a Large Stock of Bon Ton and Royal Worcester CORSETS which we will sell as long as they last at old prices.

WEDDINGS Kimball-Gillman The wedding of Fordham B. Kimball, just back from service in France, where he was advanced to a lieutenant in the heavy artillery, and Miss Alice Gillman, daughter of L. C. Gillman, former president of the S. P. & S. R. Co., but now director general of the Puget Sound Division of the Federal Railway Administration, was held in Seattle, where the Gillmans now reside, yesterday.

White Salmon Reports Activity Considerable activity in fruit circles has been noted in the White Salmon, Wash. district the past week. Growers have organized a packing association, and machinery is being installed in the old warehouse of the White Salmon Valley Fruitgrowers' Association.

FOR SALE-HOUSES 4 room Cottage in good condition, Lot 50 x 100 on Heights, electric lights, city water, rented now for $8 per month. Price $500.00

McCabe-Shull Cecil Clarence McCabe, of San Francisco, and Miss Gladys Shull were married at three o'clock Thursday, August 14, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shull, of the Oak Grove district.

Rahn Recalls Ludendorf's Flight General Ludendorf, of the German high command, whose personal history of the Prussian trial at arms will soon appear in the Oregonian, wrote a good portion of his memoirs while in Sweden.

Mr. Independent Grower BEFORE SELLING YOUR APPLES AND PEARS SEE L. E. IRELAND Phone 3682 Columbia Warehouse

First Church of Christ, Scientist Services will be held in Church Building, 9th and Eugene, Sunday, 11:00 a. m.; Subject, "Christian Science." Sunday School at 11 a. m. Wednesday services, 8 p. m. The reading room is open daily from 10 to 8 p. m., in the Church.

Congregational Church The church will not be open during the month of August. Sunday School will reopen on September 7th. Regular Church Services will begin on Sept. 21.

Oregon State Fair Salem, September 22-27. Splendid agricultural, livestock, and industrial exhibits, high class amusements, a superb racing card, bigger and better than ever. A. H. Lea, Secretary, Salem, Oregon.

Christian Church Bible School, 9:45 a. m.; Preaching Service, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m. Cordial welcome to all.

News of Government Supplies Late Because of the short time in which to disseminate the news, Hood River will order but a limited supply of government surplus rations. Postmaster Reavis Monday received blanks and instructions for ordering various foodstuffs, but he was notified that all orders must be made by August 29.

Cherries Net $26,640 Returns from the Hood River Valley cherry crop season handled by the Apple Growers Association this season will show a total of $26,640. The organization made a record on eight cars of black fruit shipped to eastern markets in refrigerators. The cherries, packed in 16 pound boxes, brought the following average prices: Lamberts, $2.8; Bings, $2.65; and Black Republicans, $2.65. Some of the Lamberts sold on the New York auction market for 40 cents per pound.

L. E. CLARK OFFERS HIS HOME PLACE I will sell sixty acres or less of my ranch mostly in bearing apple and pear trees. Good income property and easy terms. If interested look this up. One mile south of Pine Grove school. L. E. Clark.

Smith Loses Case A sow Berkshire hog, according to the papers of the case, formed the contention between W. E. Smith, Oak Grove orchardist and Portland ship-builder, and his neighbor, J. Goudier. Mr. Smith was suing Mr. Goudier for $50, the alleged value of the sow pig, which he declared had been wrongfully converted. Mr. Goudier and his wife, however, testified that the pig had been bought from Mr. Smith. A jury last week found for the defendant and the cost to the plaintiff will probably exceed the value of the hog.

Runaway Car Wrecks Lamp Post Tom Cameron, mechanic at the Hood River Garage, drove to the Second Street entrance of the machine shop Saturday and left the machine headed down the grade. The brake worked loose and he was attracted by his machine rushing over an embankment down to the O. W. R. & N. tracks at the west end of the passenger station. On its downward plunge the car wrecked a garden fence belonging to John Gerdes and snapped off the steel post of an electric lamp lighting the way to the station.

Up Goes The Curtain on America's Greatest Custom-Tailors' Style Show. Maybe you've had the idea that the whole country is going thread-bare this fall. One would think so by the dark reports everywhere concerning the scarcity of good woollens and the heart-breaking prices of fall clothes. But cheer up! There's a treat in store for you. We have lifted the curtain on Royal Tailor's Fashion and Fabric show for Fall, 1919—the World's Fair of Men's Styles.

Hotel Man Looks for Help Automobile tourists are stopping with such frequency at the Fisher Hotel, at Madras, that the proprietor, Fred Fisher, has been making a personal tour looking for girls to wait table in his dining room and do other work at the hotel. Mr. Fisher had hoped to secure the needed help at The Dalles, but his search of that city was unsuccessful and he came here Monday. His quest here was just as vain, and Mr. Fisher left for Portland to tell prospective maids and waitresses of the climatic appeals of Madras.

THE HOOD CONFECTIONERY will be known after May 1st, 1919, as THE PHEASANT No change in ownership. Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Tea in Canisters are the Best Teas for Iced Tea.

Molden-Huelat-Sather Co. Authorized Resident Dealers. New Hats and Caps in Late Shapes and Attractive Colorings THIS WEEK. New Dress Shirts Now Ready for You $1.50 $2.50 $3.00

The Star Grocery PERIGO & SON. As I find it almost impossible to do the work on my ranch owing to my age I have decided to sell the place. No better farm in the valley. Will sell a part or all. Will give terms on a part; plenty of water. For further particulars address Geo. T. Prather, Hood River, Ore.