Look for a town that is push-ing forward, respects itself, keeps clean, wants a place in the sun, and will get it.

The brass band is not alone the bul wark and ornament of progress, pride and culture in the smaller centers, but it is the indispensable agent of goahead-ativeness, the sign and expres-sion of community harmony and social progress in the larger places. A city without a brass band is a dreary waste of stagnation, indifference, inharmony and ignorance. Life is not worth living there. It is not lived. It is en dured.

Let every town in America have its brass band. Let every citizen interest himself in its welfare. Let the band be diligent in its pursuit of knowledge of the right kind of music and the way to play it; and let the town see somehow that it has ample funds to keep glucose, both of which have muny comgoing. Every day then in such a town vill be a gain.
