ODELL

J. W. Avery and son, Bert, left Odell Thursday for the winter. After spending a short time in Hood River, Portland and at points in Washington they expect to go to California. Mr. Avery, who is a painter, has been busy while here and he expects to return in the spring to complete work already begun and to take other work in his line.

Miss Eva Boyd and Mrs. H. K. Davenport went to The Dalles Thursday. They made the short trip in company with Mrs. A. B. Cutler, of Portland, who with her sister was passing through Hood River bound for eastern points for a visit with relatives and friends. Miss Boyd and Mrs. Davenport also enjoyed a short visit with the former's sister, Mrs. A. B. Shelley, of The Dalles.

After having been here since September Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Howard returned to their home in Portland Thursday. They were accompanied by their son, Fred J. Howard, who went to Portland for a short visit with relatives and to attend the stock show.

H. S. Galligan motored to Portland and return last week to attend the stock show.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Emery received a message from Spokane Monday of last week which stated that their daughter's husband had passed away. Mr. and Mrs. Emery went to their daughter at the earliest time possible. Mrs. White, whose husband passed away, has many friends in Odell who will be grieved at hearing of her bereavement.

S. P. Davenport will solve the rent problem by building for himself a cozy three-room bungalow on a lot he has purchased from Chas. T. Early. The location is pleasant, just west of the telephone property facing either the road south of it or a street west.

E. M. and W. J. Holman attended the stock show in Portland last week. The show that always follows news of a tragedy such as that in Portland Friday night was given even greater weight in Odell by the fact that one of those who met death in so horrible and unwarranted a manner was a relative of residents of Odell. Jasper Burgess was the son of Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. Ellen Burgess, of The Dalles, who visited at the Morgan home last summer.

No school Thursday and Friday, Monday and Tuesday. Thanksgiving holiday and county teachers' institute.

A course in sewing, which should equal one given in any school, is now available in Hood River high school with Mrs. R. W. Skibbe instructor. Mrs. Skibbe has had rare opportunities for equipping herself in this line of work and Odell school is to be congratulated upon having secured her services in this capacity.

Miss Alice Clark expects to spend Thanksgiving day at Corvallis with Misses Olga and Edna Plog, who are students at O. A. C.

Mrs. W. S. Smith and small sons, Owen and Gordon, came out from their home in Hood River for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davenport one day within the past week.

Carpenters are at work enlarging the house and making other improvements in the J. O. Mark property preparatory to the coming of Mr. Mark and his family, who expect to be at home in Odell on or before February 1.

Rev. Horace Kaye, who arrived recently from England and who preached and sang at the Methodist church service the past two Sundays, was formally licensed to preach in this country by the official board of Odell church last Sunday. Mr. Kaye will terminate his visit here near the end of this week and go to Fossil, where he will be stationed as pastor.

The annual Thanksgiving day exercises at the Methodist church will be held next Sunday night.

Much coming and going of Odell folk marks this Thanksgiving time. Miss Faye Bolen and Miss Leila Johnson will spend several days in Salem. Miss Martha Ferguson will return from Willamette University. Wm. Gilkeson will be back from O. A. C. long enough to eat turkey dinner.

Edgar Harris, who was awarded a scholarship by Willamette University, will enter upon his college career next Monday. He will leave for Salem Saturday. He tendered his resignation as secretary of the League Sunday and Miss Margaret Fletcher was elected to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. G. A. Weber, Mrs. L. C. Weinheimer and Miss Alice Clark were appointed last Sunday to arrange the Christmas program at the Methodist church.

PINE GROVE

S. H. Hall, of Grand View, Wash., made the trip across country last week to visit his nephew, A. F. Bickford. Mr. Hall says they have had little rain in the Yakima valley this fall and he was unprepared for conditions here. He found the road between Lyle and White Salmon especially heavy.

Mrs. Waldo Mills went to Salem last Friday to attend a reunion of the literary society of which she was a member while in Willamette University. Her son, Junior, accompanied her as far as Portland.

Mrs. Gallaher was called to Walla Walla last Saturday on account of the illness of her mother.

Willis Van Horn was stricken with paralysis while in Portland last Saturday. His condition is still quite serious.

The Jarvis family will enjoy a family reunion today at the home of Ralph Jarvis in Oak Grove. W. A. Jarvis, a brother, is expected from Montana.

Robert Waugh went to Portland Saturday to witness the foot ball game between O. A. C. and Pullman.

E. F. Batten spent last week at the stock show. J. G. Jarvis also attended the latter part of the week.

Miss Carrie Evans will spend the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Dallas. Miss Etta Wrenn will be with friends in Portland.

Floyd Mason and Roger Blackman arrived Wednesday evening from O. A. C. for the short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of White Salmon, are happy over the arrival of a son in their home.

Miss Marguerite Ferrin, who is teaching in Grass Valley, will spend her vacation here.

BELMONT

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bishop and daughter, Imogene, left Monday morning over the Highway to visit relatives in Portland. While in the city they will have Imogene's eyes treated by a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hurlburt and children spent the week end visiting relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Aitken spent several days visiting friends in Portland during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Isenberg will pack apples on the Grant ranch this week.

Mrs. G. I. Sargent left Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in Portland. Mrs. Sargent left Wednesday for Portland.

Miss Emma Jones will entertain guests Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Maie Chubb visited Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Isenberg, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Downing are enjoying a new Humobile lately purchased. Misses Irene and Ireta Downing have a new piano.

Misses Pearl and Irene Chubb visited with Miss Virginia and Master Clayton Wentz.

Mrs. Sara Davis and son, W. H. Davis, spent a short time on the ranch Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Allen are entertaining guests who will stay over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. H. D. Steele will spend Thanksgiving with her brother in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith intend leaving soon to spend the winter in Portland.

BARRETT

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bishop were down to Portland for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinrichs are in Hood River for awhile. They are living at Carbonado, Wash., but may make their home in Hood River in May.

Dorothy Doane was a week end guest at the home of Elizabeth Walters.

J. T. Downing has purchased a new Humobile. They are enjoying it very much.

H. W. Whately, of Dee, was in Hood River over the week end at the home of E. E. Doane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nunemaker left for California a short time ago. They intend to spend the winter there.

Fred Roberts, of Barrett, has gone east with a car of apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, are spending a few days in Hood River.

MOUNT HOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Pifer were up from Hood River Sunday to spend the day at J. D. Smullin's.

Mrs. Geo. Ringer and Mrs. J. B. Dimnick spent several days in Portland last week.

Mary Leasure is staying at the Sherman Gates home at Parkdale and attending school.

Miss Sylvia Clark spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clark.

Miss Cloy Smith spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. Keene, at Parkdale.

The Parent-Teacher Association held their regular evening meeting and social at the school house Friday evening. There was a good attendance and the program was very well rendered and enjoyed by all. Much credit is due the program committee for the success of the social.

MOSIER

Miss Flo Bauer and Miss Davis walked from The Dalles over the Highway Thursday, enjoying the outing very much, as they have until recently been employed in the hospital at Walla, Walla, Wash. The young ladies will spend a few days with Miss Bauer's sister, Mrs. Gordon, and brother, Henry Bauer. They will be located in The Dalles hospital.

Hans Kollanderud formerly of Mosier but now of North Bend, came Friday morning for a few days' stay. His many friends were certainly pleased to see him again, and to learn that he has almost entirely recovered from the serious injury received while foreman of the East Hood River Fruit farm three years or more ago. Mr. Kollanderud is at present interested in farming in the Coos Bay country but is not pleased with the climate preferring the Portland or north Oregon country and climatic conditions.

Miss A. Shogren accompanied by her sister, Mrs. McLynn, Dr. and Mrs. Macrum and F. A. Shogren were visitors in The Dalles Thursday.

Chas. T. Bennett was a business visitor in The Dalles Friday.

Miss Esther Husbands, accompanied by her uncle, W. A. Husbands, spent a few hours Sunday afternoon on the Mosier Island, instructing the members of the physiology class in the art of assembling the bones of the human body. The pupils gaining knowledge from this pilgrimage were Misses Ross Carroll, Ruth Higley, Florence Evans and Mildred Nichol and Ernest Nichol, Francis Nielson and George Wilson.

A. E. Gronwald, county superintendent, visited the Mosier schools last week.

A couple of bootleggers came to grief in Mosier Thursday evening when they drove into Mr. Tryon's garage for oil. Mr. Tryon had suspicions which proved correct, so with the assistance of a fellow citizen he escorted the two men and their cargo of booze to the sheriff in The Dalles.

Phillip Goss, who is traveling in the interest of the Wiley B. Allen music house in Portland, was in Mosier Friday shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Goss was at one time a resident in our little community, moving several years ago with his parents to Portland, where they are now living. Mr. Goss, Sr., is conducting a barber shop and doing very nicely.

Mrs. G. L. Carroll and daughter, Miss Jennie, were shopping in Hood River Friday.

To date the sales of War Savings Stamps through the Mosier postoffice from January 1, 1919, amount to $3,750 as compared to over $12,000 last year. It would be gratifying to at least make the total sales for the year equal $5,000.

A high class entertainment by P. Waldo Davis, assisted by home talent numbers, will be given at the Immanuel church Thursday evening, November 27, commencing at 7:30 sharp. One half the receipts will go to the high school fund.

C. A. Morden, of Portland, spent the week end on the farm with his brother, G. P. Morden, and family.

Deputy State Superintendent E. E. Carlton, of Salem, paid a visit to the Mosier school Friday and standardized the high school. He stated that this district would receive the sum of $2,000 under the new law effective this year, but that this would hold good only for this year unless a new building is erected for use by next school year. This condition had been explained by State Superintendent Churchill at a meeting held some time ago.

Leslie Root returned Saturday from The Dalles, where he has been the past week driving the county gravel truck.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Piercey and children of The Dalles, spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higley.

J. W. Scope, of Mosier, has just returned from Hood River, where he has secured the contract for drawing the plans for the new postoffice building; also a fine hotel to be erected in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Davenport had a most pleasant surprise last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunham, of Coeur d'Alene, Ida., stopped at the Davenport home a few hours while en route to California to spend the winter. Mr. Davenport and Mr. Dunham were schoolmates in The Dalles 38 years ago and had not seen each other in that time. The travelers had visited with Mrs. Davenport's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krauss, in The Dalles Saturday and thus found where the laughter was living. Upon request they were not told whom Mrs. Davenport had married therefore another surprise was in store for them when they reached Mosier and found an old schoolmate of youthful days. All parties concerned were pleased beyond explanation and trust it will not be so long a period between meetings in the future.

As in the past Mosier people responded nobly to the call of the Red Cross in the recent request for renewal of memberships. Refusals were very few. The total to date remitted is nearly $240.

Geo. Burlingame and family of Tygh Valley, stopped to visit at the home of W. H. Cook while en route to Portland to attend the stock show last week.

James Cook is visiting his brother, W. H. Cook, and family. Mr. Cook has been in Portland attending the stock show and is on his way to his home near Tygh Valley.

The Strauss children and Thelma and Bert Johnson went to Hood River Monday afternoon to see Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

The people of Mosier are requested to bear in mind the business meeting called for next Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall for the purpose of passing upon the school affairs for the coming term. The budget as arranged by the board of directors will be presented and the question of securing a site for the new school building will also be considered.
