TIMES ARE GOOD

The deposits of the two Hood River banks for the last statement call total $2,071,519, a record mark. With returns coming in daily on the community's big apple crop, the value of which the bank deposits here will continue to grow for the next several months.

The deposits of the banks are in ex cess of those for the same period last the precision of their figures of speech, church stands equipped and eager to year by $609,629. All in all it is a very gratifying state of affairs. But let us prove to ourselves that we can stand prosperity. As far as Hood River, herself, is concerned, the future seems secure. However, let us not allow our prosperity to lead us into dangerous speculative investments or an orgy of extravagance, such as is sweeping the country. Some national crisis or depression of other sections of the country might bring a pinch on us here.

When the recent frost threatened apples of the Okanogan district growers there sent out hurry orders for shipments of baled hay. With the provender furnishing walls a huge temporary storage warehouse was erected to save the apple crop. It makes us think of the time C. R. Bone saved a portion of his apple crop from freezing by placing a herd of cattle around the boxes stacked in his barn. The warm bodies of the animals prevented the invasion of frost.

We would like to have a new court house-indeed, we would like many things. But we will have to be patient. Expenses are heavy all along the line. With the six per cent limitation in effect those who administer the county affairs must necessarily apply the pruning shears and spread the LIKE NOSTRUMS OF PACIFISTS Frank H. Nelson, of Southern Ohio; funds that can be raised thinly over a great area.

Oregon criminal judiciary is beginning to move with a speed that may put the brakes on the wave of crime. In less than a week the three con fessed Claremont tavern murderers began serving life sentences. The brakes would be all the more deterrent if we had capital punishment as a part of our criminal procedure again.

The Glacier this week received an interesting communication from one signed, "Subscriber." While we will withhold the real name of the writer, if it is so desired, we do not publish annonymous contributions. If "Subscriber will furnish us his or her name we will gladly publish the letter.

PISCOPALIANS NAME LEADERS FOR BIG DRIVE to Be Waged Next Month.

On December 7 the Protestant Episcopal Church throughout America will complete a "drive" that must stand as unique among the many that have been made since the exigencies of war first brought that term to its present definition.

It has been a drive for souls and not for dollars-a "drive" from the shoulder, at the heart, not the pocketbook. It was found that only too often many of the most active and effective workers within the church were subjected to hardship and even to humiliation by present insufficient emolument. That he may hereafter do his work "as a leader of the church with efficiency and self respect" this fault is to be remedied. Careful revision of the statement of church needs indicates that a sum approximating $42,000,000 will be required to cover in detail the pro gram of the next three years. The sum originally fixed was $62,000,000, but the joint commission last week revised this estimate to make the program as efficient and as reasonably economical as needs will permit.

How It is Apportioned. Of this total, $28,000,000 will be renired for general work and $14,000,-000 for diocesan needs. Ten millions of the sum specified for general work will be devoted to home missionary work in the dioceses and missionary districts of America; the remainder to missionary work in foreign fields, for service, religious education, mericanization and other work in

The joint commission makes it clear that all sums for general work of the hurch will be distributed and apropriated by the duly constituted auhority of the church after careful and thorough investigation, having in mind a proper and reasonable distributlon of funds throughout the whole church and to the work of the several hoards and agencies.

In connection with the nation-wide ampaign there is being carried a mblicity campaign which is calculated not only to awaken Episcopalians themselves to the possibilities and needs of their church, but also to moress upon the general public the purposes and hopes of the church.
