The Oregon Fire Relief Association has more net assets than many old line stock companies. It has over $400,000 ready to use in paying claims. Its history as a claim paying company is as good as any. It costs you 40 per cent less than stock companies. See J. B. Lister about your insurance, save 40 per cent on your premium and be safely insured. Newton Clark has just arrived home for the Christmas vacation from Stanford University, where he is a sophomore in the department of mechanical engineering. Mr. Clark was delayed by a wreck on the S. P. line near Redding, Cal., said to have been the worst without serious consequences in the history of the rail line. Seven cars went down, an embankment. The sleeper on which Mr. Clark was a passenger was drawn only partly off the track.

The Season's Greetings
Among our assets we like to count the only one that money cannot buy—
Your Good Will
—and so at this Holiday Season we extend to you—not as a customer alone, but as a friend—the best of wishes for the coming year.

U. OF O. STUDENTS ACTIVE FOR FUND
A number of activities are being arranged here by University of Oregon students to raise the county's quota toward completing the Woman's building. Wilbur Hoyt, Selman Gassoway and Miss Jessie Lewis are in charge of local affairs. Mr. Hoyt and Mr. Gassoway are arranging for a basketball game on Tuesday evening, January 2 at the Hood River High School between a team of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity members of the University and the American Legion here. A preliminary game between classes of the high school will be played. With Miss Lenore Cram assisting Miss Lewis, a card party is being arranged for next Tuesday afternoon. It will be held at Library hall. Plans are being made by "Chuck" Huggins to receive a detailed report of the Pasadena game between the U. of O. football and Harvard teams on New Year's afternoon.

H. S. GEORGE BUYS OUT PAT LINDSEY
H. S. George, according to announcement just made by Mr. Lindsey, has purchased the entire business in the Monroe building known as Pat's Place. Mr. George, who for several years has operated the Electric Kitchen, one of the city's most popular eating places, will take over the tobacco and confectionery store, billiard hall and bowling alleys. Mr. George is one of Hood River's most popular business men. His courtesy has won him a host of friends, and while regrets are expressed at loss of Mr. Lindsey, citizens are glad to see him succeeded by Mr. George.

Knights Templar Meet
Hood River Commandery of Knights Templar will celebrate Christmas morning with the customary observance this morning. Members will be gathered at Tieman Hall, the Masonic building, for breakfast. Despite the cold weather, many rural members are expected to be present. Fuel Situation Better
A fuel famine has been averted in Hood River, and wood and coal are both fairly plentiful here at the present time. Three carloads of coal have been received during the past week, two by dealers and one by the O. W. R. & N. Co. Much cordwood has been moved into town on bobtaileds.

Catholic Church Services
While the usual custom of a midnight mass was discontinued because of the snow-covered roads and sidewalks, St. Mary's Catholic church today will celebrate the anniversary of Christ's birth with three masses. The high mass will be said by Rev. Father Maximilian at 8 o'clock, when the choir will render special music. Other masses will be at 9 and 10.30 o'clock. Mrs. Jones' Funeral Yesterday
Funeral services for Mrs. Agnes Jones were held yesterday at the Bartness chapel, Rev. W. H. Boddy officiating. It was at first announced that the service would be held in Portland. Interment followed at Idlewild cemetery. Christian & Missionary Alliance
Sunday School every Sunday morning at 9.45. Preaching at 11. Young Peoples Society at 7 p. m. Expository sermon at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

May the Yuletide be Merry and
The New Year a Happy One
The proprietor and clerical force of this store wish to express thanks for patronage of the past year.
While Xmas time is a season for universal giving, the thoughts of individuals are turned at other intervals throughout the year to thoughts of a gift, a token of friendship.
We will be at your service every day of 1920
