"The finest appearing Restaurant and Grill between Portland and Salt Lake City."
This description of Hicks' New Grill was made by a party who claims to have been in every city of any size between the two cities.
And that is taking a lot of territory, we'll admit.
But we believe appearances bear out this statement.
And we are going to try and make it fine in more than appearance only.
Service, Quality and Super-Cleanliness will be our motto.
And of course we will have an "Opening Night," with lots of eats, music, 'n everything that goes with them.
And as we only have fifty tables, seating four at a table, and eight booths seating the same number, it might pay you to reserve a table if you desire accommodations.
The date of opening will be announced soon.

Hicks'
Klickitat county roads, are in fine shape, according to Dr. C. H. Jenkins, who with his wife, daughter, Miss Louise, and Miss Marian Butler, returned last week from a trip to Rusk's Soda Springs, on the Big Klickitat River. "We had no fishing, however," said Dr. Jenkins. "They are not biting on the upper reaches of the river yet. I heard that they were getting fair catches down about Lyle."
