

Is Your Car An Orphan?

Bumps, Scratches, Bangs and Scars is the probable treatment your orphan car is receiving in a public garage. Your car cannot have parents, but it can have a home of its own where it will be absolutely protected and where it will be at your immediate convenience at all times. The increased used car value will more than equal the initial cost of protection.

A new garage offers more than care and protection. It is an investment and an asset.

BURGLAR OF YASUI STORE IS TAKEN

W. G. Scheone, who was arrested by Spokane, Wash. authorities Wednesday last week while trying to dispose of loot taken from the store of Yasui Bros., confessed the burglary and waived extradition. Sheriff Johnson returned with his prisoner Thursday night.

In the capture of Scheone Spokane authorities also seized a portion of the loot which Scheone was trying to dispose of to pawnbrokers. Watches and jewelry, valued at approximately $300, however, is still missing. A man who gave the name of Al P. Pe, who aided Scheone in the burglary and who grew familiar with the Japanese store while picking strawberries for Yasui Bros., made away with the more valuable articles. The value of the merchandise recovered will reach about $1,000.

ALABAMA MERCHANT PRAISES LOCAL APPLES

After a visit to Alaka, H. E. Shropshire, Birmingham, Ala. fruit merchant, came here last week to see Hood River orchards before returning home. Mr. Shropshire, who came to Portland recently as a delegate to the T. P. A. convention, states that his first impression of the quality of the Hood River apples is that they are the best he has ever seen. He is particularly complimentary of the Hearts and Club brand of Hood River apples shipped by Dan Wulle & Co. last season. "We expect to double this coming year," says Mr. Shropshire, who was shown over the orchard district Thursday by Walter Woolpert. "The Hood River apples are the best that Birmingham gets. We consider them a staple article, so standardized is the grade and pack."

Divorce Case Reaches Court

First court proceedings in the divorce case of C. I. Yeoman against Mrs. Ruth J. Yeoman occurred here last week, when J. H. Stapleton, Portland attorney, who has been retained by the defendant, came here for a hearing on his application for $500 attorney's fees, $500 court money and $200 a month for Mrs. Yeoman until the case is disposed of. The hearing was postponed, however, at the request of Mr. Stapleton for more time. Mr. Yeoman charges his wife with cruelty and improper conduct with several other men.

Mr. Childs had been an orange grower at Redlands for 30 years. In addition to the local soil, he is survived by his widow and a daughter, Mrs. Harold M. Sherman, of Redlands.
