

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Forbes does painting, sign work and carpentering. Tel. 3014.

We are now prepared to saw your wood. Sutherland & Shaw, Tel. 3372. 1511

Dr. Murphy, dentist, Brosius Building, Telephone 2833. d41f

Mrs. Jessie M. Bishop has the agency for the No-Bone corset. Tel. 3311. 1511

E. E. Goodrich, No. 3691. 1511

R. J. McLean was here from Parkdale on business Monday.

J. H. Crenshaw, of Des, was in the city last week on business.

H. D. Labounty spent Sunday in Portland visiting friends.

Truman Butler was in Portland Tuesday on business.

D. J. Shank, of Portland, has been here visiting his brother A. R. Shank, and family.

Ross Sherwood and family motored to the Lost Lake country Sunday on an outing.

Attend the Firemen's dance at the open air pavilion Saturday night and have an old-fashioned good time.

If you have an automobile that needs repairing see C. C. Emery at the Cascade Garage, Tel. 3524. apr22f

The family of Timothy Newell, of Parkdale, has been visiting the Lost Lake country.

Miss Doris Pittenger, of Portland, has been here the guest of Miss Anna Chipping.

Mrs. Walter Ford is now in charge of the books at the fruit plant of L. E. Ireland.

Joe R. Richardson, of La Grande, is temporarily with the clerical force of the First National Bank.

Attend the Firemen's dance at the open air pavilion Saturday night and have an old-fashioned good time.

Dr. N. Plyler, Chiropractic and Electric treatments. Rooms 23-24-25 Heilbrunner bldg., tel. 1833, Hood River.

For guaranteed storage battery and other electrical repairs, go to Dakin Electrical Works, 11-13 Third St. 1511

I have taken the agency for the Spina-Corset. Call at Buelow Tailor Shop, Mrs. Karl Buelow, Hood River, Ore. 1511

G. L. Davenport will handle shipments of apples and produce. 147 Front street, Portland, Ore. 1511f

When in town for the evening, store your car at the Highway Auto Co. Garage. 1511f

Forrest and Catherine Carter will leave soon for Seattle, where they will enter the University of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wickham were on a vacation at the Oregon beaches last week.

W. D. Burke, White Salmon lumberman, was here last week seeking equipment.

C. A. Elliott and family have been seeking huckleberries in the Lost Lake country.

W. H. Stone, who has been in charge of orchard places here, has moved to Portland.

E. D. Vadnois and family, of Portland, spent the week end here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brett.

Mrs. M. W. Robinson, of The Dalles, is here the guest of her son, R. P. Robinson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Parrott were down from Parkdale Monday on a shopping tour.

Victor Miller and Arlen McCarty spent Tuesday and yesterday camped at Eagle Creek.

George Snider, of Lyle, spent Sunday here visiting his cousin, Mrs. J. W. Ingalls, and family.

Annmarie Chipping, teacher of piano, 802 Oak St., Phone 2363 for full information. a26

Attend the Firemen's dance at the open air pavilion Saturday night and have an old-fashioned good time.

Don't wait that fly; keep him out by hanging a good screen door. All sizes also hinges and springs. Bridal Veil Lumbering Co. Phone 2181. 1511f

All films left with us to 4 o'clock p.m. are out the following day at 4 p.m. in at four out at four—Slocum & Canfield Co. 1511f

Edmund Cram, after a visit at the beaches and at the Hudson summer home of the J. E. Slade family, has returned home.

E. E. Doane and family, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. M. E. McAllister, and family, of Goldendale, have left for a week's visit at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Castner and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sletten are spending a week at the Pathfinders' Club park on the East Fork.

Don't wait that fly; keep him out by hanging a good screen door. All sizes also hinges and springs. Bridal Veil Lumbering Co. Phone 2181. 1511f

Kodak finishing—Slocum & Canfield Co. One up-to-date dark room, an up-to-date expert finisher, a real 24 hour service—thats us. 1511f

Neal Stacey, of Phoenix, Ariz., arrived the first of the week seeking a location.

L. A. Bennett has left for Seattle, where he will spend several days buying stock for the J. C. Penney store.

Mrs. Norman W. Mays is recovering from an illness believed to have been caused by the unusually warm weather of last week.

Miss Mae Davidson was in Lebanon last week looking after business interests. The Davidson Fruit Co. is interested in orchards of that section.

Herman Edstrom and family returned last week from a motor trip to Seattle, where they visited Mrs. Edstrom's parents.

Mrs. Walter Walters and children, Elizabeth, Thomas and Byron, after a visit in Indiana and New York, have returned home.

L. A. Krumler, of DeGraff, O., arrived the first of the week for a visit with the family of his old friend, S. E. Bartness.

Chas. A. Higdon, of Bellevue, Ida., en route to Portland, stopped over night here last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Higdon.

Louis A. Henderson, of Oregon City, formerly of the Hood River Abstract Co., was up last week on business and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dean have left on a vacation at Tillamook beaches. Mr. Dean is dispenser at Hicks' Sweets 'n' Eats.

Miss Bertha Cannon is here from Portland, spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Cannon, of Brookside Drive.

Mrs. O. K. Fruge was here from The Dalles last week accompanied by her son, August, spending a vacation visiting friends.

We are hauling wood from Upper Valley. If you have any Box Shooks or other hauling can save you money. Enquire Oregon Hotel. Tel. 8911. a26

Phone 1361 if it is too far to walk, we will be glad to call for your work and quote prices to you. (Thank you) Heights Jewelry Store. Dreske & Son, Jewelers. 1511f

William Hart left Tuesday with his wife for a vacation at Pacific City, where the couple will visit their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Dunn, and family. They will also visit at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gould, who have been on a motor tour of Puget Sound and British Columbia points with Mr. Gould's parents, have returned here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dethman, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Jessie, son, Fred, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Donnerberg, spent the week end at Albany.

Mrs. A. H. St. Clair and children arrived last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. White. Mr. St. Clair was here over the week end from Portland.

Mrs. C. A. Marchand and two daughters, Charlotte and Kathleen, of Anacortes, Wash., are here visiting Mrs. Marchand's mother, Mrs. Jennie Whitcomb.

Park Grange will give an ice cream social and dance at Rockford Hall, Friday evening, Aug. 20. Good music by three-piece orchestra. Everybody welcome. a19

Lost—Sunday, August 15, small hand bag containing lady's articles, between Mount Hood Lodge and Hood River. Address J. Ketchum, 268 Ivy St., Portland, Ore. for reward. aug 19

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Barnes, former Oak Grove residents, returned here last week from Portland, where they have resided for two years. They may again make Hood River their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Apple and son, Parr, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Ball left Saturday for Pigeon Springs on the Lewis river, Skamania county, Washington, on a camping trip.

A. W. Othman left last week for a vacation at Portland, Eugene and other Willamette valley points. He will visit his son, Karl Othman, and family in Eugene.

Dealers and jobbers can secure the Easy Vacuum Washing Machine, (the last word in washers) electric driven, lost week guaranteed from the Portland Gas & Coke Co. State whether A.C. or D.C. motor. 1511f

Mrs. C. C. Cuddeford suffered a painful accident while on a beach party last Friday with a company of neighbors. Romping with the children of the party she collided with a little boy, whose body struck her hand. Her wrist was broken and the thumb dislocated.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Settemiller, of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler, of Aurora, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Castner. The visitors were taken for a camping party at the cottage of the Pathfinders' Club on the East Fork.

The Highway Motor Transport Co. now operates a daily fast truck service between Portland and Hood River, arriving here daily at 10 a.m., local office, Highway Auto Co., tel. 4311. Portland office, Union Truck Depot, Front and Flanigan Sts., tel. Broadway 1503. a19f Molden, Huelat, Sather Co. has received the initial fall shipment of lady's ready-to-wear garments. The consignment plan of showing the latest styles was inaugurated by the concern last year.

Bennett Brothers announce the following deliveries of Dodge cars the past week: Bruno, Franz and L. U. Cafferty, commercial cars; G. R. Dickie, touring car, and Jennings Garage, White Salmon, touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Macqueen, of Portland, are spending a vacation with Prof. and Mrs. Arens on Wal-Eg-Win ranch. Mr. Macqueen, whose pen name is Joseph Quentin, is musical and exchange editor of the Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Small and son were here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bartness. Mrs. Small's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartness and daughter, Miss Marie, spent the week end in Portland.

Misses Alice and Thelma McQuaid, of Honolulu, who have been guests of Miss Beryl Clarke, have left for a visit at Portland and coast points before resuming work at the University of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dehart recently motored to Los Angeles, where Mrs. Dehart will remain for a time, seeking an improvement in health. C. B. Armstrong, of Underwood, contemplates an early visit in the south with Mrs. Dehart, his mother-in-law.

P. M. Morse, formerly city engineer here but who is now county engineer in Lane county, motored up from Eugene last week with his family. Mr. Morse returned Sunday but his family remained for a more extended visit with the family of W. H. McClain.

While his family is on the West Side ranch for the summer, E. L. Hall, of Portland comes up every week end. "This is the way," he says "I get my vacation. I like the plan very much better than if I quit work altogether for awhile."

Headed by their Scoutmaster, Frank Davenport, Troop 2 of Hood River Boy Scouts left Friday for Lost Lake on an outing. The boys were carried to a point within a mile and a half of the lake by automobile. Supplies and camp equipment were packed in from there.

C. C. Ross, who recently left here for The Dalles to assume management of The Dalles-King Co.'s plant there, states that delving of Bartlett pears will begin this week. This will be followed with prunes. The company will end its run in March, finishing up 3,000 tons of apples.

John Halvorsen, of Chicago, arrived last week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. William Halvorsen, and family. He has already begun to express praise for Oregon scenery. Although Hood River was experiencing the hottest weather of the year, Mr. Halvorsen thought it very comfortable.

Mrs. O. M. Shonkwiler, of northern Iowa, and daughter, Mrs. Mabel Erb, of Minneapolis, are here visiting their old friends, W. F. Laraway, and family. Mrs. Erb, who was a Red Cross nurse in France during the war, will take the stump soon in behalf of Senator Harding's presidential campaign.

R. P. Loomis, New York apple merchant, who is one of the chief owners of the Lava Bed Orchard, a large Upper Valley tract, has arrived with his family for a vacation. While in the Northwest Mr. Loomis will study crop and market conditions of Yakima, Wenatchee and Rogue River, as well as in Hood River.

Bishop R. L. Paddock, who is here spending a vacation in the Frankton orchard district, announces that his sister, Mrs. J. M. Miller, who resided here for a year, will arrive next week from Wellesley College, where she has been a member of the faculty for the past six years, to spend her sabbatical leave in Hood River.

Howard Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cooper, of the East Side, has received a call to report for naval duty at Bremerton Navy Yard. Mr. Cooper, who made a rapid advance following his enlistment during the great war, having finished an engine, entered the navy from the Oregon Agricultural College.

Howard H. Greene's automobile turned turtle on a grade near Parkdale recently, according to reports of Upper Valley citizens here on business. Mr. Greene drove so close to the edge of the bank, in order to allow a truck driven by Herbert Hanna to pass, that the soft earth gave way. He jumped from the car and was uninjured.

Mrs. H. F. Davidson recently entertained in honor her daughter, Mrs. John H. Cooper, on a visit from Eagle, Ida., and niece, Miss Mari Whitman Whitehead. The latter and Miss Florence Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clark, have left for Berkeley, Calif., to enter the University of California.

The following party of New York people are visiting the families of E. A. and Bruno Franz: Ernest L. Franz, father of the local men; their brother, Walter F., and wife and two children, Ruth and Edna, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. William Zintmeister and daughter, Helen. The elder Mr. Franz is a resident of Dolgeville, N. Y., while the visiting brother is a resident of Utica. Mr. Zintmeister and family will make their future home in Portland, where Mr. Zintmeister, an expert vintner, will be with the Doernbacher Furniture Co.

Miss Helen Forbes entertained a party of young people of the city and valley at a lawn party at the Hoerlein ranch Monday night in honor of her guest, Miss Dorothy Green, of Portland. Misses Green and Forbes are fellow students of the University of California. Both will leave soon for the south to their studies.

The fame of the Columbia Highway has reached Hammond, Ind., a suburb of Chicago, and Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prevost motored into Hood River in a big sedan. The couple is on the way to southern California for a visit. They came the northwestern route on purpose, says Mrs. Prevost, to see the Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kelsay, who early in the summer arrived by automobile from Holtville, Calif., for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Geo. I. Slocom, and family, returned Sunday. After a dip in the Columbia, however, Mr. Kelsay here they will start on the return journey to southern California.

Carl Wodecki, of The Dalles, former heavy fruit operator there, stated while here last Friday that he was confining his efforts exclusively to the potato business. Mr. Wodecki, here to size up the Hood River valley crop, declared that the reports of all growers indicated the district's heaviest yield, and that the tubers would be of exceptional quality.

Five Arlington Boy Scouts, accompanied by Dow De Long, their Scoutmaster, arrived here by train Monday. They left Tuesday on a 10-day hiking trip on the Highway. The boys will make tours up canyons of different streams and camp along the way between here and Portland. The Scout hikers are: James Conley, Robert Warner, Harold Blackburn, John Douglas and Glen Burton.

Rev. W. L. Van Noy, former pastor of the Upper Valley Union church who is now in charge of a Portland Presbyterian church, accompanied by his brother, Rev. E. A. Van Noy, of Chicago, has been visiting friends and participating in a recreation in the Upper Valley. The Chicago minister is national secretary of Men's Work for the Presbyterian church.

W. J. Havenner, orchardist of Lyle, here Monday on business, states that the apple crop of that district will exceed the harvest of last year, when 55 carloads were shipped, by about 10 per cent. He expects 5,000 boxes, a yield 20 per cent greater than last year, from his own orchard. "Our fruit, from present indications," says Mr. Havenner, "will be of first-class quality."

R. A. Collins, Dee Flat orchardist, who has a herd of registered Jersey cows, will equip his farm with an electric light and power system. Both his home and barns will be fully lighted, and all dairy and apple grading machinery will be operated with electric motors. Accompanied by his wife and son, Mr. Collins was in Portland last week securing equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Fallon and two children, of Savannah, Ga., where Mr. Fallon is with the Seaboard Airline R. Co., have arrived for a vacation

Operating in conjunction with the Dynamo, of the J. C. Penney Co., a nation wide institution, a joint meeting of The Dalles and Hood River live wires was held at the Hood River store Monday night. Messrs. Andrews and Needham, of The Dalles assembly, staged an educational program, pertaining to the dry goods department, which was enjoyed by all and from which much benefit was derived.

Light refreshments were served at the Pheasant. Those present were Messrs. Tedford, Andrews, Pearson, Torg, Needham, Stevens, Hennis and Ott, of The Dalles, and Messrs. Bennett, Robinson and Wright, of Hood River.

George Normile

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George, whose wedding occurred here August 5, Rev. D. M. Heimick, pastor of Astbury church officiating, are spending their honeymoon at a camp at the confluence of the West Fork and Lake Branch of Hood river. Mr. George is a son of S. S. George and his bride was Miss Nellie Normile, of Taft, Calif.

Mr. George for a number of years has been in charge of field plants of a pumping concern engaged in gathering oil produced in the Taft section.

Mr. and Mrs. George expect to remain at their camp until snow flies. Mr. George is convalescing from a severe attack of influenza and pneumonia.

Cool Weather Brings Out Coats

The sky overcast with heavy clouds driven by wind from the coast, by a cooling west wind and the thermometer down to 50, local folk, after a week of unusually warm weather, emerged from their homes Tuesday morning wearing coats. One man, A. S. Kolstad, having doffed his coat at the office of his moving picture show as the weather warmed, had to wear an overcoat to town.

Buy Your Blankets Early

Goods purchased a year ago can be sold for less than the wholesale price today. We have a large stock including Cotton Blanket Sheets, Wool Mixed, as well as Wool Blankets—they cannot be bought today for our retail prices—Plain Greys, Tans, Whites, Fancy Plaids, Artistic Colorings.

Beautiful New Baby Blankets, $1.20 to $2.95

IF YOU NEED THEM, BUY NOW

FRANK A. CRAM

COLDER DAYS ARE COMING

DEVELOPING and PRINTING

A Real 24 Hour Service

All Films left up to 4 o'clock P. M. are out the following day at 4 P. M.

Our dark room is in charge of Mr. Donnerberg, an expert finisher.

If you are having Kodak troubles—ask DON.

His experience is at your service—with a smile.

Have you seen his enlargements?

Give him a trial.

Cameras—Films—Supplies

SLOCOM & CANFIELD CO.

with Mrs. M. L. Osgood, Mrs. Fallon's cousin, and husband. Mrs. Fallon and children were here last summer. While Mr. Fallon had planned to take them to Nova Scotia this summer, they were so delighted with the district last year that they persuaded him to return here with them.

"It was cooler in Honolulu when we left there than it is here now," declared Alan Macdonald, of Kailua, Maui, who with his parents has been spending several months in the Hawaiian Islands and who arrived here from Portland for a week end visit with the family of his friend, G. A. McMullin.

After a dip in the Columbia, however, Mr. Macdonald declares that the water at Waikiki is much warmer than that of the Northwest.

Isaac Ford, while aiding a repair gang in the railroad yards, Saturday sustained a punctured artery when a piece of steel penetrated his wrist. The flow of blood was checked here and Sunday Mr. Ford was sent to the O.W. hospital in Portland, where a small effort was made to remove the small piece of steel. He returned home Wednesday evening, still carrying a small particle "somewhere" in his right arm.

A record day's harvest of huckleberries was made Sunday by A. B. Cooper and his two sons. The men left for the berry tracts at Lost Lake at sunrise. Shortly after dark they were home with 15 gallons of the fruit. While no huckleberries have appeared on the market this season, the accessibility of the berry tracts in the Lost Lake district, as a result of the new road built there, will enable almost all families to can a supply of the luscious fruit.

Geo. R. Wilbur and family left Saturday night to spend the week end at Trout Lake. Russell Wilbur, elder son of the local man, who is attorney for Washington growers in their plans for establishing a bonded irrigation district, was left behind by his family. He will proceed with a party of engineers who will spend several weeks on the headwaters of Lewis river engaged in surveying headworks and canals for the proposed irrigation district.

Pep Club Meets

Operating in conjunction with the Dynamo, of the J. C. Penney Co., a nation wide institution, a joint meeting of The Dalles and Hood River live wires was held at the Hood River store Monday night. Messrs. Andrews and Needham, of The Dalles assembly, staged an educational program, pertaining to the dry goods department, which was enjoyed by all and from which much benefit was derived.

Light refreshments were served at the Pheasant. Those present were Messrs. Tedford, Andrews, Pearson, Torg, Needham, Stevens, Hennis and Ott, of The Dalles, and Messrs. Bennett, Robinson and Wright, of Hood River.

George Normile

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George, whose wedding occurred here August 5, Rev. D. M. Heimick, pastor of Astbury church officiating, are spending their honeymoon at a camp at the confluence of the West Fork and Lake Branch of Hood river. Mr. George is a son of S. S. George and his bride was Miss Nellie Normile, of Taft, Calif.

Mr. George for a number of years has been in charge of field plants of a pumping concern engaged in gathering oil produced in the Taft section.

Mr. and Mrs. George expect to remain at their camp until snow flies. Mr. George is convalescing from a severe attack of influenza and pneumonia.

Cool Weather Brings Out Coats

The sky overcast with heavy clouds driven by wind from the coast, by a cooling west wind and the thermometer down to 50, local folk, after a week of unusually warm weather, emerged from their homes Tuesday morning wearing coats. One man, A. S. Kolstad, having doffed his coat at the office of his moving picture show as the weather warmed, had to wear an overcoat to town.

Pep Club Meets

Operating in conjunction with the Dynamo, of the J. C. Penney Co., a nation wide institution, a joint meeting of The Dalles and Hood River live wires was held at the Hood River store Monday night. Messrs. Andrews and Needham, of The Dalles assembly, staged an educational program, pertaining to the dry goods department, which was enjoyed by all and from which much benefit was derived.

Light refreshments were served at the Pheasant. Those present were Messrs. Tedford, Andrews, Pearson, Torg, Needham, Stevens, Hennis and Ott, of The Dalles, and Messrs. Bennett, Robinson and Wright, of Hood River.

George Normile

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George, whose wedding occurred here August 5, Rev. D. M. Heimick, pastor of Astbury church officiating, are spending their honeymoon at a camp at the confluence of the West Fork and Lake Branch of Hood river. Mr. George is a son of S. S. George and his bride was Miss Nellie Normile, of Taft, Calif.

Mr. George for a number of years has been in charge of field plants of a pumping concern engaged in gathering oil produced in the Taft section.

Mr. and Mrs. George expect to remain at their camp until snow flies. Mr. George is convalescing from a severe attack of influenza and pneumonia.

Cool Weather Brings Out Coats

The sky overcast with heavy clouds driven by wind from the coast, by a cooling west wind and the thermometer down to 50, local folk, after a week of unusually warm weather, emerged from their homes Tuesday morning wearing coats. One man, A. S. Kolstad, having doffed his coat at the office of his moving picture show as the weather warmed, had to wear an overcoat to town.

Pep Club Meets

Operating in conjunction with the Dynamo, of the J. C. Penney Co., a nation wide institution, a joint meeting of The Dalles and Hood River live wires was held at the Hood River store Monday night. Messrs. Andrews and Needham, of The Dalles assembly, staged an educational program, pertaining to the dry goods department, which was enjoyed by all and from which much benefit was derived.

Light refreshments were served at the Pheasant. Those present were Messrs. Tedford, Andrews, Pearson, Torg, Needham, Stevens, Hennis and Ott, of The Dalles, and Messrs. Bennett, Robinson and Wright, of Hood River.

George Normile

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George, whose wedding occurred here August 5, Rev. D. M. Heimick, pastor of Astbury church officiating, are spending their honeymoon at a camp at the confluence of the West Fork and Lake Branch of Hood river. Mr. George is a son of S. S. George and his bride was Miss Nellie Normile, of Taft, Calif.

Mr. George for a number of years has been in charge of field plants of a pumping concern engaged in gathering oil produced in the Taft section.

Mr. and Mrs. George expect to remain at their camp until snow flies. Mr. George is convalescing from a severe attack of influenza and pneumonia.

Cool Weather Brings Out Coats

The sky overcast with heavy clouds driven by wind from the coast, by a cooling west wind and the thermometer down to 50, local folk, after a week of unusually warm weather, emerged from their homes Tuesday morning wearing coats. One man, A. S. Kolstad, having doffed his coat at the office of his moving picture show as the weather warmed, had to wear an overcoat to town.

Pep Club Meets

Operating in conjunction with the Dynamo, of the J. C. Penney Co., a nation wide institution, a joint meeting of The Dalles and Hood River live wires was held at the Hood River store Monday night. Messrs. Andrews and Needham, of The Dalles assembly, staged an educational program, pertaining to the dry goods department, which was enjoyed by all and from which much benefit was derived.

Light refreshments were served at the Pheasant. Those present were Messrs. Tedford, Andrews, Pearson, Torg, Needham, Stevens, Hennis and Ott, of The Dalles, and Messrs. Bennett, Robinson and Wright, of Hood River.

George Normile

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph George, whose wedding occurred here August 5, Rev. D. M. Heimick, pastor of Astbury church officiating, are spending their honeymoon at a camp at the confluence of the West Fork and Lake Branch of Hood river. Mr. George is a son of S. S. George and his bride was Miss Nellie Normile, of Taft, Calif.

Mr. George for a number of years has been in charge of field plants of a pumping concern engaged in gathering oil produced in the Taft section.

Mr. and Mrs. George expect to remain at their camp until snow flies. Mr. George is convalescing from a severe attack of influenza and pneumonia.