

Filipinos Park Too Long
Monday afternoon, when seven Filipinos, en route to Portland from an East Side orchard, where they had been working in the harvest, parked too long in a restricted district, they were arrested by Marshal Olinier. Taken before City Recorder Howe the driver was assessed a fine of $5. While the Filipinos had numerous checks they possessed only $3 in cash. Mr. Howe declined to cash a check, accepting the cash and agreeing to await payment of the balance by mail.

Mrs. Yeoman Takes Poison
Mrs. Ruth J. Yeoman, who was reported to have taken a dose of poison tablets at the St. Paul Hotel in Portland Sunday, is the wife of C. I. Yeoman, owner of a ranch near the top of the Rathoun grade of the Highway. An estrangement between Mr. and Mrs. Yeoman has existed for more than a year. The husband had filed a suit in the local circuit court asking a decree of divorce. The case, however, was recently cancelled, following the death of Mr. Yeoman's mother.

New Market Opens Saturday
The new market of Brown & Young, who have leased a portion of the Huggins building on the Heights, will be opened Saturday. Both the new market men are experienced in the meat business. Mr. Young has spent a lifetime in marketing. They declare that it will be their policy to distribute the best products obtainable at a reasonable price. For the present the meat market will use the Huggins delivery system.

SCHOOL NEWS

By Roberta Lane
Last Friday afternoon the high school foot ball team played the second game of the season at The Dalles. About 125 students accompanied the team to give them loyal support on the field. Although The Dalles team was more experienced and outweighed the local team, those who saw the game were convinced that, even though Hood River lost by a score of 14-7, The Dalles team was outplayed. Both teams played a hard game. The local team was strong on the offensive, but lacked the punch to put across a touchdown at the critical moment, although they were within The Dalles ten yard line twice. Hood River's score was made during the first few minutes of the game, when a man scooped the ball on a Dalles fumble and raced for 40 yards with it. The Dalles scored first in the second quarter. Their touchdown was made on an intercepted forward pass. Miss Baker chaperoned the girls who attended the game at The Dalles. Mr. Cannon accompanied the students and was official time keeper at the game. The foot ball team left today for Pendleton, where they will meet the Pendleton high school foot ball team. Coach Fleischman accompanies the boys on this trip. J. W. Crites, chairman of the school board, visited the high school last week and spoke before the assembly of students.

SPECIAL OCTOBER TERMS

For this brief period, $5.00 will place a THOR in your home. Thrifty housewives will rejoice at this easy payment plan—the monthly investment is actually less than it would cost to hire a laundress or to send the wash away.

A National Reputation

The THOR has, for 14 years been a conspicuous leader in the washing machine field. This is partly due to its simplicity of operation. The elimination of belts, chains and pulleys removes the most frequent cause of complaint and reduces the service charge to a minimum.

See It Demonstrated

Everyone is invited to see this wonderful washer in operation. See how every gear and shaft is enclosed in metal housings. Note its simplicity. If it is not convenient to call at our office, phone for a trial demonstration at home. Do it today!

WARREN G. HARDING
Your Kind of Man and—

The Next President of the United States

The Next President.
As certain as anything can be, in this world, is the election of Senator Harding.

To readers of this newspaper, the many family groups to which it comes a regular welcome visitor, Senator Harding's face shines as that of a friend.

Senator Harding, your next President, is your kind of man. You see him, hear a few words, and you know it.

He was born in a small town, has lived there all his life, lives there now, and will live there again when he leaves the White House with his work for the country done.

How He Lives.

He lives as you live, simply, in the old fashioned American way.

The main residence street in any little American town, boasts half a dozen homes more elaborate than Senator Harding's, and many as good.

Millions of men, believing in this country, devoted to its government, SATISFIED with the UNITED STATES, believe that the United States is able to deal with its own problems, and settle its own questions free from outside assistance or interference.

Those millions of men are men of the same sort as Senator Harding.

What Kind of Man.

Harding is a big American in physical size, thanks to vigorous farming ancestors. He is a big American also in heart, in understanding, in sympathy and in simplicity.

You read his speeches and know that he does not imagine himself created to tell all the world what to do. He believes in, and he understands the American people, his friends, the citizens of his own little town, Marion, Ohio, and the dwellers in thousands of other towns like it.

Your Servant, No Autocrat.

After you have elected him, you will find in Senator Harding an earnest, conscientious, straight thinking servant of the people, not an autocrat, but a man respecting the traditions of American government, and the Constitution of the United States.

Senator Harding understands that the people will elect him to be President of the United States, not President of the whole world. He will know that he is employed by the PEOPLE of this country to look after the interests of THIS country.

Born on a farm living all his life close to farmers, he knows and sympathizes with the problems of the farm. Living in the average American way, in the average American small town, he knows the problems of the average American. He understands the printers he employs, and he knows their trade and sets type as they do.

His Ambition.

Senator Harding has no ambition to be called a political superman, or RULER of America. It is his ambition to be known as a good American, a faithful servant of those that trust him.

National politics are discussed this year less than at any election since the republic was founded. Why? Because men do not discuss to any great extent, that which is DEFINITELY SETTLED.

And this national election is definitely settled as you read this. YOU know it.

But it is important that demonstration of the popular will should be of the most overwhelming kind. Therefore the good citizen will do what he can to increase the vote for Harding, should there be any doubtful votes within reach of his voice.

It is almost ludicrously difficult to find a man or woman that intends to vote the Democratic ticket this year.

But if you do find one, show him or her this picture of the next President. And express in your own way the reasons that inspire you to approve and vote for him.

What is Senator Harding's outlook upon life? It is YOUR OWN.

Read these extracts from one of his recent speeches:

"This government is your government, not that of somebody who is placed in office."

"You clothe us with authority. We are pleased to execute your will. And one reason I want the Republican party in power once more is because we are responsive to the will of the people of the United States and do not try to tell you that what one man thinks is necessary."

No hallucination there, no idea that Harding was made to rule, and YOU, who read this newspaper, made to be ruled, or preached at from above by your own elected servant.

The duty of the American, whether he be President or simple citizen, is not complicated in Mr. Harding's mind. He says:

"As I said at the outset, government is a very simple thing, government is only the regulation of our relationships to one another. The government's first task is the protection of the minority against autocracy, or the domination of the majority that sometimes forgets the rights of the minority."

"I am preaching the gospel of popular representative government in the United States, a government that does not know any class anywhere in all this Republic."

In his speeches and in his daily life, running for the Presidency or running his country newspaper, Senator Harding is just an everyday American neighbor. This is what he says, as he bids farewell to a crowd of friends:

"I am very happy to see you all this morning. As I have said, I want you to know me, and I am delighted to know you. We are going to work together for the good of the United States, and we are going to hold America first in all our thoughts and in all our actions."

Women Voting.

Women especially have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that Senator Harding will be the next President.

Their sons are taken in war. Their husbands and fathers are taxed to pay for war. They spend the lonely hours of dreadful anxiety, while the son is away.

They, above all, are interested in having for President such a man as Senator Harding. He does not believe that foreign powers should be allowed to conscript American boys for war beyond the seas.

He does not believe that a Foreign Council should send to America for men and money to settle wars not of our making.

Senator Harding does not believe that this country should be taxed to finance the ambitions or the land greed of foreign nations, and as he believes, so the earnest men and women of this country believe.

When you cast your vote for Senator Harding, you will vote for YOUR KIND OF MAN, the intelligent, straightforward, unpretentious American citizen. President Harding will be an American President, not an international President.

You will have in the White House a man of constructive mind, a plain American with no dreams of world dominion, but with a settled determination to restore normal conditions and normal prosperity to this country.

After the War.

After a war that has destroyed old conditions, cost many lives, squandered many billions in reckless extravagance and dishonesty, and weakened respect for the Constitution, you need for President a straightforward, constructive American.

And you will have such a man in the White House after the 4th of next March, for after that the President of the United States will be Warren G. Harding, your kind of man, one that you would gladly trust with your own affairs, and the affairs of your country.

Writing a New Page in Furniture History

An Epoch-Making Event Carefully Thought Out, and Based on the Public's Belief That

PRICES ARE GOING DOWN

Our own opinion is not material (no indications have appeared of lower factory costs in Furniture and Rugs), but you are expecting it and everybody's talking it. This store is going to "come thru" and "deliver the goods." Not because we can afford to sell for less, but just for the simple reason that we've always tried to even surpass the expectations of our friends.

WE WERE LAST TO RAISE PRICES WE ARE FIRST TO REDUCE THEM

You will naturally wonder just how much the reduction will be. Our answer is this: Prices will be lower than any Mail Order House, any Portland Store, or any other legitimate store that offers you a fit place to trade and the service you rightfully expect. We are prepared to prove this statement and we invite the opportunity to do so.

PRESENT STOCKS ONLY IN THIS SALE

More than half of this $30,000 stock of House Furnishings was bought before recent advances in price. The factory cost in many instances is more than the new price we are making. But if it's true that all merchandise is going to cost less, we want to take our loss now and have it over.
