

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

H. L. Hasbrouck, Optometrist, For Sale—Allalafahay, Tel. 4121. Electrical repairing at Dakin Electric Works. Forbes does painting, sign work and calcimining. Tel. 3014. Xmas Sale on Hats at Monners. All Hats reduced one-half. For electrical troubles and storage batteries, see Dakin, 111-15 3d St. F. A. Massee left last week for Portland on a business visit. W. W. Hardinger was up from Portland last week on business. Henry Steinhauser was here from Parkdale last week on business. Miss Alyona Candee was down Monday from the Upper Valley shopping. Eugene C. Eawer was here from the Upper Valley Monday. H. M. Sidney has left for Portland on business. Leslie Butler was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week. Geo. I. Slocum was in Portland Monday on business. R. W. Kelly will spend Christmas at Oregon City with his mother. Berkeley H. Snow will spend Christmas in Portland with his parents. Highest cash price paid for your used furniture, stoves and rugs. Call McCallan at E. A. Franz Co. I have taken the agency for the Spirilla Corset. Call at Buelow Tailor Shop. Mrs. Karl Buelow, Hood River, Or. Insist on genuine Ford parts when having your car repaired. Dickson-Marsh Motor Co. Insist on genuine Ford parts when having your car repaired. Dickson-Marsh Motor Co. G. L. Davenport will handle shipments of apples and produce. 147 Front street, Portland, Ore. Thurston Laraway, of the Oregon Medical School, Portland, has arrived home for the holidays. Isaac Beal, Upper Valley potato grower, was in the city Saturday on business. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown were down Monday from their Upper Valley ranch home on a shopping tour. Col. W. S. Dowd and family were here Monday from the Upper Valley on a shopping tour. E. E. Newell, who says he expects to return here in the spring, is now engaged at Yakima in irrigation work. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hartwig celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary on Sunday, December 12. J. H. Hazlett and E. C. Smith were recently at Goldendale on professional business. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hunter have left for Bend, where they will spend the winter. If you have an automobile that needs repairing see C. C. Emery at the Cascade Garage, Tel. 3524. For Butter Labels printed in accordance with Dairy and Food Laws, call at this office. Dr. N. Plyler, Chiropractic and Electric treatments, Rooms 22-24 25 1/2 Hubbard bldg., tele. 1833, Hood River. Insist on genuine Ford parts when having your car repaired. Dickson-Marsh Motor Co. Mr. and Mrs. S. Cople have left for Portland to spend the holidays with families of their daughters. Dr. Underhill has left for Redmond, where she will spend the holidays with friends. J. H. Thompkins left Monday for Canton, Ill., where he will spend the holidays with relatives and friends. T. C. Queen, Dufur publisher and aspirant to the position as register of the Dalles land office, was here last week. Dr. J. H. McVay was the recipient of many messages of good wishes Monday in celebration of his birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plog, of Portland, will spend Christmas here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holman, of Ilwaco, have been here the past week visiting friends and relatives. A. S. Koldstad and Walter Wells motored to Portland yesterday on business. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Filz were down the first of the week from their Mt. Hood ranch on a shopping tour. H. D. Emery has arrived to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Emery. Erroll Holland, of Portland, is here to spend the holidays with his sister, Mrs. A. S. Koldstad, and family.

En route home from Portland, Chas. Struck, of Lyle, was here Monday calling on friends. Miss Olga Plog has arrived home from the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth for the Christmas holidays. The Electric Kitchen is all decked out for the holidays. The popular place is replete with Christmas bells and vari-colored streamers. A. W. Stone, after an absence of several weeks in the East in the interest of the Apple Growers Association, has returned. Thomas Scott and Ross Collie, students of the University of Washington, are expected home the latter part of the week to spend the holidays. The drugstores will be open tonight, as well as tomorrow night until a later hour than usual for the convenience of Christmas shoppers. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rathbone have left for Tacoma and British Columbia points to spend the holidays with relatives and friends. Accompanied by his mother and sister, Vernon Horne will spend the holidays visiting Corvallis relatives and friends. Clifford Pines, of Vancouver, B. C., will arrive the latter part of the week to spend the holidays with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Pines. Miss S. Baker, student of St. Helen's Hall, Portland, was here last week the guest of her friend, Miss Elizabeth Kelly, a slumma of the school. Mrs. Warren Miller, who is recovering from a recent operation, was able to leave the Cottage hospital and return home Monday. Mr. G. G. Wickson, of Berkeley, Cal., is expected here to spend the holidays with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Woolpert. Miss Dorothy Wissinger will leave tomorrow for Milwaukie to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wissinger. Geo. R. Castner left Monday for Penitentiary, B. C., where he will spend the holidays with his son, John B. Castner, and family. Miss Harriett Vinton, student at the University of Washington, will arrive tomorrow to spend the holidays with her uncle, John Baker, and family. Searches of records and reliable abstracts made by Oregon Abstract Company, A. W. Onthank, Manager, 305 Oak Street, Phone 1521. If you are planning on building, get my prices on doors and windows—all sizes, before they are all gone. Phone O. L. Craton, 3756. All films left with us up to 4 o'clock p. m. are out the following day at 4 p. m. In at four out at four—Slocum & Canfield Co. Miss Helen Knight, senior at the University of California, has arrived here to spend the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Knight. Franz Store will deliver Christmas packages Friday afternoon or evening. Tell us at what hour you want delivery and we will try to be there on the dot. E. A. Franz Co. The following Upper Valley residents were here Monday engaged in Christmas shopping: Geo. M. Wishart, Joe and Floyd Hess, John Cosgriff and Jesse Davidson. Dr. and Mrs. H. D. W. Pines have returned from Portland. While Dr. Pines was engaged in a clinic there Mrs. Pines visited Mrs. Earl J. Brown. A convenient way to hurry freight through Portland to points beyond is to make delivery to the proper freight depot or dock via The Warren Truck Line, Phone Gladden 4242. Mrs. M. P. Isenberg will hold a Christmas celebration at her home Saturday. Annually all of the children and grandchildren meet with her for a Christmas dinner. Dr. V. R. Abraham has tendered his resignation as county health officer to the county court, effective January 1. Dr. Abraham states that he hasn't time to devote to the office. H. S. Braakman has leased the room of the Smith building occupied by the city water office and Recorder Howe for the past several years. Mr. Braakman will move to the new quarters on January 28. Mrs. W. E. Hart is recovering at the Cottage Hospital from an operation for acute appendicitis. Physicians think she will be sufficiently recovered to participate in the family Christmas celebration at her home Saturday. Leecia Allen has received word that the children of his brother, Courtney, of Bend, are ill with scarlet fever. Mrs. W. D. Allen, their grandmother, is with Mrs. Allen helping care for the youngsters.

The dining room of the Mount Hood Hotel has been handsomely decorated for the holidays with Christmas greens and vari-colored streamers. Chef Chas. Gumm will serve a special Christmas dinner Saturday. Let beautiful flowers carry your Christmas greetings. The Heights Greenhouse, George Haslinger, prop., can furnish you with cut flowers or blossoming potted plants. A stock of flowers will be on sale at the Franz Hardware store. Mrs. M. Strausse and daughter, Miss Florence, and Mrs. Sarah Langille and sons, H. D. and W. A. Langille, will spend Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Young and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rand. Mrs. Gabriel Sykes has returned from Lacombe, Alta., where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Brennessholtz, and family. A little daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Brennessholtz. Almon Lauterbach, of Yakima, Wn., and Miss Edmonds, of the Portland office of the O. W. R. & N. Co., are expected here to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Mays. Mr. Lauterbach is a brother of Mrs. Mays. Kelly Bros. expect to begin the new year with their hardware store greatly improved. Painters and carpenters have been busy recently going over the exterior and interior of the building. Commodious new show windows have been arranged. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Henry county, Indiana, have arrived to spend the holidays with Mr. Anderson's brother, C. C. Anderson, and family. They plan on making Hood River their home. Let beautiful flowers carry your Christmas greetings. The Heights Greenhouse, Geo. Haslinger, prop., can furnish you with cut flowers or blossoming potted plants. A stock of flowers will be on sale at the Franz Hardware store. John Baker, district attorney-elect, has received a letter from Attorney General Brown, who has called a meeting of the state's prosecuting attorneys in Portland January 14 to consider methods of solving the increased criminal tendencies that seem to be sweeping the country. The rich man saw Lazarus afar off and cried for a drop of water to cool his parching tongue. "If that were to-day he would say, 'Take me to the Electric Kitchen and give me some of that good cool root beer, Hood River soda pop or R. Porter.'" Accompanied by his wife and son, E. E. Brett motored to Portland Saturday. He attended a meeting of state automobile dealers. Mrs. Brett and son will remain in Portland until after the holidays. Mr. Brett joining them for the family Christmas celebration. V. D. Lill, who left here to take charge of a branch of the commission firm at Bend, but who has been in Portland for the past several months, has returned here to resume association with the Hood River Produce Exchange. Dr. C. H. Jenkins Saturday found his garage broken open and his car stripped of attachments. Electric wiring had been cut. It was apparent that the thieves had intended stealing the car, but were prevented by a patented wheel lock. I will move January 28 to the old city recorder's office, Smith building, and I am now conducting a removal sale and will give a 10 per cent discount on all wall-paper, oils, paints, turpentine, brushes and other stock. H. S. Braakman, Fourth, between Cascade and Oak, Phone 1294. I will move by January 28 to the former City Hall and Water Office, in the Smith building, consequently I am now conducting a removal sale and will give a 10 per cent discount on all wall-paper, oils, paints, turpentine, brushes and other stock. H. S. Braakman, 4th, between Cascade and Oak. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Paddock have left for Indianapolis, Ind., where they will spend Christmas with relatives and friends. Later they will go to St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend the remainder of the winter. The return journey will be made by way of California. Mr. Paddock is a veteran contractor of the Pennsylvania lines. He was in charge of the first passenger train that crossed the noted Eads bridge at St. Louis, Mo. On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock a Christmas cantata, "The Prophet of Nazareth," by H. Gabriel, will be rendered by Ashby M. E. church, assisted by Mrs. Reavis Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cooper and others. Mr. Sykes will tell the story by Henry Van Dyke, "The Other Wise Man." The cantata will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Osborn.

! For Your Convenience ! THIS STORE WILL BE OPEN THURSDAY and FRIDAY EVENINGS Permit us at this time to thank the people of Hood River for their liberal patronage during the year just closing and to wish you one and all A Merry Christmas and A Happy Prosperous New Year Very sincerely, FRANK A. CRAM

X-mas Suggestions GREETING CARDS OUR BOOK DEPARTMENT STATIONERY PHONOGRAPHS and MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS KODAK FINISHING DEPARTMENT SLOCUM & CANFIELD CO.

The Glacier makes a fine Christmas present. Fifty-two times a year it carries news of Hood River valley to those who may be away. M. R. Noble called Monday and instructed that the Glacier be sent as a Christmas present to his daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Stokoe, of Bend. Skidding on a turn, the automobile of G. Sturr, of Portland, went over a sharp turn on the Highway near West recently. While the car was badly wrecked Mr. Sturr's injuries were limited to broken ribs. He was taken to a Portland hospital, where, it is reported, he is resting well. Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Kennedy have left for Portland to spend the holiday season with their son, Dr. W. S. Kennedy, East Grand Exalted Ruler of Oregon Elks, and family. Later Rev. and Mrs. Kennedy will leave for Salem for a visit. They expect to remain there for a portion of the legislative session. Wednesday afternoon of last week about 30 friends of Miss Clara Barton gathered at her home on June street and surprised her with a bridal shower. She received many beautiful presents including a silver set. Refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon spent. A family reunion will be held Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carson. Except for Joe Carson, who is with the Oregon Lumber Co. at Baker, all the children will participate in the event. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nichol, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carson and Miss Florence Carson, all of Portland, will be here for the yuletide reunion. William Wilkinson returned Sunday from a visit with his brother, James Wilkinson, of Oregon City. While away Mr. Wilkinson attended a birthday celebration staged for his brother by women of the Congregational church. Mr. Wilkinson has long been a deacon of the church. He was presented with a silver pencil. The following large list of O. A. C. students has arrived to spend the holidays with home folks: Misses Edna Plog, Frances Moe, Frances Castner, Dorothy Cram, Florence Cooper, Dorothy Rand and Herbert Blende, Mark E. Roe, Charles Johnson, Floyd Mason, Roger Blackman, Curtis Gould and Teddy Hackett. "Wife, Gladys and I are on the wing," wrote L. E. Clark from Portland last week while en route to California. He was asking that the Glacier be forwarded to the south. "We are going down," he continued, "to drink at the fountain of delight. It will take about three months to fill up." The home of Rev. and Mrs. Gabriel Sykes will be the scene of a family Christmas reunion. They are expecting their son, Dr. Morris Sykes, of Seattle, and wife, and Herbert Sykes, of Walla Walla, here for the holidays. Miss Alice Sykes, a daughter, who is a student at the Willamette University, has already arrived home for the holidays.

The following U. of W. students are expected home this week for the Christmas vacation: Misses Catherine Carter and Betty Slade and Yale McCarty, George Bragg, Malcolm Patton and Forest Carter. Misses Thana and Alice McQuaid, of Honolulu, will arrive to spend the holidays with Miss Betty Clarke. T. A. Culbertson, Upper Valley orchardist, returned home last week following his 25th successful surgical operation. The latest submission to the wife was for removal of his varicose appendix. Mr. Culbertson has announced to friends that it was his silver celebration on the operating table. In messages of congratulations, however, friends are omitting reference to happy returns of the day. Leland, small son of Mrs. Lela Eastman, sustained a painful bruise last week when struck by an automobile driven by Steve Eby, rural mail carrier. Playing with other children the youngster started across State street immediately after a truck had passed and ran directly in the path of Mr. Eby's car. The latter applied his brakes, but was unable to prevent striking the youngster. The following University of Oregon students are home for the holidays: Misses Ila Nichols, Lenore Cram, Helen and Alberta Carson, Katherine M. Baker, Vera Hughes, Esther L. Baker and Carl Vonder Abe, Wilbur Hoyt, Carl Epping, Carl Houston and Virgil Cameron. Frank Vonder Abe, convalescing from an attack of diphtheria, arrived home recently from U. of O. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Folts will also be here from Eugene to spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. Folts is now a member of the school of commerce faculty.

Carlson-Diffin Rev. Gabriel Sykes officiating, John Albert Carlson, young Marion county rancher, and Miss Evaline Olive Diffin were married Saturday. They left immediately for Marion county where they will reside. Silver Wedding to Be Celebrated Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Scobee will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at their home Christmas day with a party for friends. They will keep open house from 8 to 11 p. m. Saturday evening. They were married at Mountainburg, Ark. Mrs. Scobee's maiden name was Iva Rosette. Following the wedding they left for Chicago, where Dr. Scobee took a dental course at Northwestern University. Later he practiced for three years at Duluth, Wis. Coming to Oregon Dr. Scobee was located for a year in Portland. He came here with his family in 1909. For six years he was a member of the city council. He was recently elected to a second term as mayor. Dr. and Mrs. Scobee have four children: Howard, Russell, Herbert and Mildred. Underwood Dance Saturday Residents of the Underwood sector will participate in a "masquerade" dance at the Tyler-Larson hall Christmas night. A number of local folk are planning to attend the event. Earl Keys, local violinist, who is one of the promoters of the masquerade, Eous Johnson and Geo. Tyrill will call the figures. Mr. Keys states that an endeavor will be made to stimulate educational features by having participants come to the hall in historical costumes.

We Wish You A Merry Christmas Have you forgotten any of these Seasonable "GOOD THINGS TO EAT"? We have them all! Let us serve you CRANBERRIES HEAD LETTUCE SWEET POTATOES CLUSTER RAISINS NUTS DATES FIGS MINCEMEAT FRESH VIRGINIA OYSTERS VIRGINIA DARE WINE CLIQUOT CLUB GINGER ALE CHRISTMAS CANDIES FANCY BOX CANDIES BANANAS GRAPEFRUIT and JUICY NAVEL ORANGES At Attractive Low Prices The Star Grocery "Good Things to Eat" PERIGO & SON Freight Moves Over Highway Mid winter transportation of freight over the Highway continues heavy. Daily motor trucks of Portland bakers are supplying bread and pastries to local grocers. Several lines of motor truck transportation companies are operating. Tuesday a full trailer load of nursery stock was brought here over the Highway. The nursery stock, consisting of pear trees chiefly, was shipped by the Villa nurseries. Card of Thanks We wish to extend sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the aid and expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement at the time of the death of our husband, father and brother. Especially do we wish to thank those who sent floral tributes. Mrs. J. H. Day and Family, L. L. Day.

Store Open Thursday and Friday Evenings, December 23 and 24 Last Hour Suggestions As You Have But Two More Shopping Days Until Christmas and as there are always some on our list that we have overlooked in our earlier shopping, we want to help you to make the last hours' shopping easy, so we are getting the most desirable and practical Gift Goods together, so they can be easily and quickly picked out And They Will ALL Be MARKED LOWER for the LAST TWO DAYS' SELLING LADIES' $3 to $5 SILK HOSE, Tax 5c, $2.48 NO EXTRA CHARGE for CHRISTMAS FOLDERS LADIES' FELT SLIPPERS, $1.78 LADIES' $2.50 SILK HOSE, $1.98 LADIES' $3.50 to $4.00 KID GLOVES, $2.48 MISSES' FELT SLIPPERS, $1.50 LADIES' FIBER SILK BOOT HOSE, 49¢ LADIES' $2.50 SILK DRESS GLOVES, $1.98 CHILD'S FELT SLIPPERS, $1.35 MEN'S FOUR-IN-HAND TIES, 45¢ to $3.95 LADIES' $1.25 CHAMOISETTE GLOVES, 83¢ MEN'S SILK-AND-LISLE HALF HOSE, 43¢ to $1.49 MEN'S FINE DRESS SHIRTS, 95¢ to $4.95 MEN'S REAL DRESS GLOVES, $1.95 to $4.95 MEN'S COMFORT SLIPPERS, $2.65 MEN'S & BOYS' PAJAMAS, 1.38 to 3.54 Handkerchiefs by the box or singly, are always acceptable and practical. Men's Pure Linen Initial Handkerchiefs, Box of 3, $1.49 : Ladies' Fine Handkerchiefs, Box of 3, 98c to $1.98 Crepe de Chine Camisoles, $1.68 Molden-Huelat-Sather Co. Silk Umbrellas, $4.98 to $10.45 The House of Personal Service