Mr. Childs will tell of observations he has made of sprays for insect and fungus control. The conference will result in a spray program for the coming year.
 I have taken the local agency for Ish-Ka Bibble, which will clean your carpets, rugs, draperies, clothing, lace, ribbons, silks, satins, automobile covers, woodwork, fancy colored shoes and hats, greasy coat collars, ink spots, gas plates and a hundred other household articles. A 75 cent can will make enough to clean a carpet 20 by 20 feet. I will also put in a carpet cleaning factory soon. H. S. Brank-Upton, The Weaver, 601 13th St., Hood River, Oregon. Phone 2604. j27

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Blagg and daughter, Mrs. J. B. Demmon, of Parkdale, were at Wasco last week to attend the funeral of a young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peugh. Mrs. Blagg remained a time to aid the family, other members of which were ill with measles. The latter disease and pneumonia caused the death of the little boy.
 Dr. C. H. Jenkins discovered Monday that a second attempt had been made to steal his automobile. Thwarted by a wheel lock, the thief took his best lighted motor and other accessories. Several weeks ago Dr. Jenkins' garage was forced and thieves cut electric wiring and mutilated accessories when they were unable to take the car.

The New Year Surely Brought Us Lower Prices

And they certainly were appreciated. Our first weeks business was the greatest we have ever experienced, and we feel that this year of 1921 will be one of prosperity and progress. Our individual share of the good things will depend on our individual efforts.

So Let's All Get Busy and Keep Busy. We'll have no time for trouble.

One thing sure, we won't have the high prices to worry about—that helps a lot. It is such a relief to be able to buy what you need at reasonable prices.

Our Low Prices on Sheetings, Ginghams, Percales, Outings,

Muslins, etc., will continue indefinitely or as long as we can get them at present low prices. Most of them we feel will not go up. Some lines however we will not be able to replace.

We were the first to bring low prices to Hood River. We will do our best to keep them down.

Saturday, January 15th, is the last day you can buy Those Beautiful Silks for $1.69

After Saturday, January 15th, these wonderful silks will be withdrawn, and sent back to the manufacturer. We were fortunate in getting these on consignment, because he was overstocked. Anyone who buys these $3.00 to $6.00 Silks for $1.69, is certainly fortunate in the saving and in having such a big variety to choose from. If you haven't done so, you should select your silks from this lot this week, as it is very unlikely that you will have such a variety to choose from or such a low price again.

Come in before Saturday if possible. Don't put it off any later than Saturday.

BIG WATER CASE NOW BEFORE COURT

Although characterized by lack of sensation, the semi-finals in litigation involving water rights of the entire watershed of Hood River were launched here Monday before Judge Wilson, of the United States District Court. The Dalles, who listened to an array of attorneys for the Oregon Lumber Co. and the East Fork Irrigation in argument over objections by the lumber company to findings of the State Water Board, the adjudication of the water rights, initiated five years ago when the lumber company sought to join the irrigation concern from increasing appropriation of the water of the East Fork of Hood River, it is expected will be finally closed when the supreme court passes on contentions now before the local circuit court.

That portion of the case before Judge Wilson Monday has already been before the supreme court. Because of indications of an endless list of similar cases, the supreme court, when it remanded the litigation to the circuit court, instructed that the State Water Board should make a thorough investigation and turn in full findings and recommendations when hearings were again instituted. The Water Board pursued its observations and actual surveys of irrigable lands over a period of three years. For a time activities of its officers were delayed by lack of appropriation. The big case, involving as it does practically the entire assessed valuation of the district and the contentions based on interpretations of irrigation laws and their application, will set a new mark for such litigation and irrigationists and attorneys are watching its course with great interest.

Monday's session was taken up conclusively by statements of B. S. Huntington, Portland attorney for the lumber company, and Geo. R. Wilbur, secretary for the irrigation district. The objections of the Pacific Power & Light Co. to the Water Board's findings, which give irrigation districts and companies all the rights claimed, will also come up this week. Other minor objections, it is expected, will consume the full time of the court next week.

SCHOOL NEWS

By Roberta C. Lane

The basketball season opened with a whoop when the Junior High boys defeated The Dalles Juniors on the local gym floor last Friday night, with a score of 15 to 12. The same night the Senior High team met defeat at Goldendale in a score of 22 to 10. This coming Friday night the High School quintette will go to Duror but will return Saturday and play their first local game Saturday night with the fast Columbus Club team of Portland. At four o'clock Friday afternoon, the Juniors will play Mosier in the High School Auditorium here. The girls are arranging to play some local games soon with Mosier, Cascade Locks and Valley teams. They are also planning a girls' gym exhibition in the near future. E. E. Fleischman is coach of the High School team, Principal C. C. Newhouse of the Juniors, and Miss Frances E. Baker of the Girls.

At the regular meeting of the school board last Tuesday night, it was decided to raise the old Park street building as soon as weather permits. Already the electric fixtures, the plumbing and the heating system have been dismantled. These materials, the outbuildings, and the old building materials are for sale.

To add to the pleasure of teachers and pupils at the new park street school, Mrs. Watt, wife of Dr. J. F. Watt, has donated three beautiful framed pictures to the school: Sir Galahad by Watts, and Wakefield, the Birthplace of Washington, and the Birthplace of U. S. Grant, both by Ernest C. Post.

In order that the people of School District No. 3, Hood River, may all see the new Park street school, its equipment and furnishings, the building will be open for inspection Friday night, January 28, from 7:30 to 9:00. This will take the place of the January Parent Teacher meeting. You voted the bonds and taxes for this building, come out and see how the money was spent.

The first half of the school year ends Friday, January 24, when the seasonal annual promotions will thru the system are made. The High School pupils will have their regular semester tests on Thursday and Friday. On Monday, January 17, the incoming Freshman class will arrive from their homes. Junior High and during the next semester will be under the particular instruction of Miss Ethel Bickford. This will increase the present Freshman class to 30.

As the entire High School attendance was a few years ago. For the most part the other classes of the High School will continue but new classes will be formed in Algebra, Geometry, English, Physiology and Botany.

Mrs. Harriet Blashfield, principal of Junior High last year, and a teacher of several years' experience here, was granted leave of absence for next semester to complete her Normal training at Monmouth. Miss Gertrude Foley, of Park street, will succeed Mrs. Blashfield in Junior High, and Miss Velma Wilkinson, who has returned from the Bellingham Normal, will receive the incoming class of 3B's at the Park street school. Mrs. Pearl Gladden has been employed to take the beginning class of first graders at the Coe Primary January 17.

All beginning first grade pupils who have dropped out of school during the past term or year, and other children who are now six years of age, may start Monday morning, January 17, in the Coe school. This is the regular mid-year beginning class. An experienced Primary teacher has been secured to take charge of them.

At the Monday morning Assembly Mrs. Henney led the singing. Mr. Fleischmann gave a report on the Goldendale game. Principal Cannon announced the week's program of examinations, etc. and Superintendent Cannon gave a report on balancing the year's accounts.

Business Manager Paul Sletton of the 1921 Mascot is very busy these days getting pictures and other material ready. This week he has had the faculty and seniors "looking pleasant" in an impromptu studio in the mechanical drawing room.

CRAM FINDS FINE FUTURE AT KLAMATH

Frank A. Cram, after a tour of Puget Sound cities and southern Oregon as far south as Klamath Falls, has returned home high in his praises for the Klamath county capital.

"The future of Klamath Falls," says Mr. Cram, "with her livestock industry, timber, sugar beets and the fact that they are really striking oil, is great, it seems to me. It is already a city and is going to grow more and more into the city class when transportation facilities become more and more available. They have wonderful stores, and the White Pelican hotel is a marvel for an interior town. The weather there, although they are at an elevation of 4,338 feet, was similar to our own."

Mr. Cram made the vacation trip with his brother, W. S. Cram, Raymond, Wash., lumberman. Mr. Cram says that he finds business conditions generally at a standstill. Buyers are waiting. Conditions at Hood River, he says, will compare favorably with those of any point. While at Klamath Falls, Mr. Cram met J. O. Goldthwaite, former Hood River man, who with Chas. Hall now owns controlling interest in the First National Bank of that city. The bank plans the early construction of a six-story building.

H. W. KRUSSOW, OF EAST SIDE, PASSES

H. W. Krussow, East Side orchardist, who was stricken ill suddenly Sunday morning, died on an operating table here Monday night. Mr. Krussow, who was 63 years old, was born at Oak Creek, Wis. He came here in 1906 with his family, buying the East Side orchard place. In addition to his widow, Mr. Krussow is survived by the following six children: Albert Oscar, Herbert Anna, Edgar and Esther. The following brothers survive: Rudolph Krussow, of Litchfield, Minn.; Walter Krussow, of Minneapolis; and Fred Krussow, of Grass Valley. Mr. Krussow's death came as a severe shock to his family and his neighbors.

Mr. Krussow was a member of the Lutheran church. Funeral arrangements will not be made until word is received from eastern relatives.

"Yours for Service."

TO THE PUBLIC

I wish to state that I have cut my prices 10c and 5c per yard all round on my weaving. They are now 60c 70c and 80c. The rugs will be finished at these prices. I wish to thank all my friends for past favors, and wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year, I remain, your well wishing friend, David Upton, The Weaver, 601 13th St., Hood River, Oregon. Phone 2604. j27

POST WILL ELECT

The annual election of officers of Hood River Post, American Legion, will be held at the regular meeting of February. Nominations were made at the January meeting.

In five years we may look back on last Thursday as the first mile post in a great small fruits industry.

WEDDINGS

Davis-Wendel
 The wedding of Miss Thelma Wendel, of Wyeth, daughter of Mrs. Edna Bowen, and Herbert L. Davis, of Portland, occurred Tuesday morning at the home of Rev. D. M. Carpenter, who officiated. Only Mrs. P. A. Reed, accompanied by her son and daughter, were present for the ceremony.
 Mr. and Mrs. Davis have left for Portland, where they will make their home at the Penrose apartments, 149 Grand avenue.

Dobson-Bathe
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dobson have just received a letter announcing the wedding, at Juneau, Alaska, on Christmas eve, of their son, Herby, and Miss Mabel Bathé. Mr. Dobson, an ex-service man, having served with the 63rd Infantry Regiment, is with an electric company at Juneau.

Men Will Play Checkers

A checker club is in process of formation here, and a winter tournament will be inaugurated tomorrow evening at room 15 of the Knights of Pythias building. Dave LeBonte, who is promoting the new club, says he finds a keen interest in checkers. The following men have signified an intention to participate in the tournament: A. S. Keir, Harry Barker, Geo. Mellon, Walter Forry, J. H. Hazlett, Anton Flint, A. C. Loftis, Leslie Butler, H. S. Dunholton, Floyd C. Arnold, E. C. Smith, William Stewart, W. F. Laraway, C. A. Bell and Tommy Thompson.

Mr. LeBonte asks that all men of the city and valley interested in checkers attend the meeting tomorrow evening with their checker boards.

Slides on Highway Cease

With the heavy precipitation ceased, Angus McDonald does not think any further slides will prevail on the Hood River-Mosier stretch of the Highway. Mr. McDonald says the six miles of new grade is now in fine shape. Some of the debris, however, will not be cleaned away until spring.

The Highway from Mosier east, however, according to Mr. McDonald, is in very poor condition. He had four big army trucks to be transferred to eastern Oregon road work. Instead of driving them through they were shipped.

Motorists report the Highway between here and Portland free from slides, but a warning is issued against ice formation on the road. Drivers who have traversed the Highway the past few mornings declare the icy surface necessitates careful driving.
