BEAN SUPER GIANT

MAKES APPEARANCE

The Hood River Garage is now showing the improved Bean Super Giant spraying machine. The new rig is attracting a widespread attention of growers. It is carried by a truck that is of standard width. While the Super Giant put in the field by the Bean people last year had all the motor and spray machinery features desired by growers, the truck was unwieldy. The new truck has been shortened four feet. It is underlong, and the entire weight of the big spray tank will rest altogether on the rear wheels. The weight of the machine has been lessened 400 pounds, and the model of this year weighs only 2,700 pounds.

B. J. Doran, who has been coming here for several years, is here demonstrating the new spray rig. He cites that the LeRoy motor will drive the pump at a 15-gallon per-minute capacity. A pressure of 250 pounds may be maintained with two or three guns being used. The tops of high trees may thus be reached with finely separated spray particles. Mr. Doran tells of an instance here last year when one of the Super Giants was put into a contest on a 40 acre orchard by H. F. Davidson. The Super Giant, with four men working, finished its half of the tract and handled 30 more trees before two ordinary spray rigs were able to complete the other half. The two small rigs used three men each. The large type machine, which did more efficient work used 10 per cent less material. The superior of the new rig saves the labor of from five to six extra fillings per day.

The new spray rig is retailing, f. o. b. Hood River, for $1,110.

ARLINGTON HAS NEW PYTHIAN TEMPLE

Mrs. Julia A. Bilyeu, of Seio, grand chief, assisted by Mrs. Florence Rand, of this city, grand protector, instituted a new Pythian Sisters' Temple at Arlington on Monday evening, January 17. The charter list of the new temple numbers 58. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. A. Longnecker, past chief; Mrs. Vera Lang, most excellent chief; Mrs. Tatone, eminent senior; Mrs. Eby, eminent junior; Miss Donnelly, manager; Mrs. Mabel Marvel, mistress of finance; Mrs. West, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Sweeten, protector; and Mrs. Irwin, guard.

The members chose the word, "Sorela," the Greek for sisters, as the name for their temple. The number 51 was supplied.

Following the ceremony of institution, Confidence Lodge No. 25, Knights of Pythias, held an open installation. A banquet in honor of guests and newly adopted sisters was given at the temple concluded the ceremonial. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered and a number of talks were given.

"We were certainly struck by the hospitality of the Arlington people," said Mrs. Rand.

Nickelsen Twins See Eugene

(From the Eugene Guard)

Among the distinguished visitors in the legislative party were "Ted" and "Ned" Nickelsen, twin sons of Senator John R. Nickelsen, of Hood River. The boys, who are only five years of age, were, perhaps, slightly bored with the whole proceeding, but behaved very well indeed. Ned, however, refusing to be photographed with the rest of the legislative party, broke away from his father and ran. Ted set him a good example by standing quietly in the front row, but Ned kicked and fought valiantly when overtaken. What can a boy of five do against 75 august law-makers and at least two executives?

Poor Ned was held firmly in his place by Ted and by the time the senators and representatives' hats were off, their hair smoothed and the correct senatorial posture struck, Ned's tears were gone.

Mrs. Nickelsen said in speaking of the boys, "Two boys are such a problem to leave with anyone else that we always take them with us. They make things very interesting sometimes."

Time to Build?

Will this Spring be a good time to build? For the past few years lumber and labor have been prohibitively high; we have got along with the buildings we had. But we are getting crowded. Shall we remedy the situation this Spring? asks Mr. McMahon, in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Then he goes into the question from every point of view. He tells why prices of building materials have been high; he prophesies this Spring's market conditions; he answers your urgent question: Build now or wait?

This series is typical of the way in which THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN anticipates the needs of the American farmer. For every farm interest it offers just such "ahead-of-the-minute" service. Because the vision of this great weekly is as broad as all agriculture, it can do more than tell what has been done or is being done in your business: it can prophesy progress. It can warn of the causes of price changes before they occur. A single dollar buys THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for a whole year—52 big, snappy issues of it. It's a great bargain—I know because I read it every week. If you want your copies to begin coming next week, be sure to rush me your dollar today.
