BOY SCOUTS THANKED FOR FIRE PREVENTION

Col. W. B. Greeley, forester of the U.S. Forest Service, has written an open letter to the Boy Scouts of the United States in appreciation of their splendid cooperation in Forest Protection Week May 22-28. The Scouts of Oregon and Washington, local forest officers say, have given fine cooperation in the Northwest in the campaign against forest fires. The forester's letter is as follows: Executives, Scoutmasters, and Boy Scouts of America, and reads:

"I am compelled to take this means of making acknowledgement to the thousands of you whose fine cooperation in the furtherance of Forest Protection Week played so important a part in the nation wide observance of this movement. Although it is not physically possible to answer with a personal letter all the communications regarding this matter which the Forest Service has received, my appreciation of what you have done as individuals is none the less keen.

"This is not the first time that the Boy Scouts of America have been called upon to render service for the Government, and your efforts in this public spirited movement to preserve our forests from needless destruction have been in keeping with other noteworthy achievements of your admirable organization. It is a pleasure to feel that the Boy Scouts stand as a unit for fire prevention and reforestation. But it is also more than a pleasure it is an assurance of an invaluable aid in a work of the utmost public importance.

"Forest fires are a terrible menace to the prosperity of our Nation, and of our very homes. Your whole hearted help in stamping out this evil is, therefore, needed not only during the brief period of Forest Protection Week but throughout the year. When you are in the forests on a hike or picnic this summer, remember that a Good Woodsman is always careful to put out his fire and to see that his match is 'dead' before throwing it away.

"You are taught to be careful with fire, but many of our citizens have not yet learned this lesson. Eighty per cent of the forest fires in the United States are caused by human agencies, and are, therefore, preventable. Carry the word to all you can influence, 'Save the Forests!'"

FISH IS VIRILE AMERICAN SPEAKER

(From the Woodland Democrat, Woodland, Calif., May 11, 1921.)

If there were more E. B. Fish's in America—no, that is not just right—if there were more Americans who had the ability and the desire to go out on the platform of the country, preaching good, old fashioned Americanism, then it is certain our country would not be menaced as it is by the cloud of discord and discontent which seems looming on the governmental horizon.

This man who comes to us through the Chautauqua, said things last night which made so deep an impression that the recollection will last long after the time or place may be erased from memory.

He made it clear that the present situation of the social fabric is the effect of causes which have been in existence for a quarter of a century, causes which had their origin in un-Americanism of a board of unassimilable immigration, which has been teaching a doctrine foreign to the constitution of the country which has given them refuge.

The foundation stones of the nation, according to the speaker, are the constitution, the national flag, the church, yet men of the ilk of Haywood and his clan have preached the false doctrine of destroying the constitution, have invaded the school faculties of the land and even have usurped places in the pulpits. The doctrine of red socialism that it was the duty to destroy these foundation stones has gone unchallenged for years and now is the time of the harvest.

America must be saved and will be saved, said the speaker, by the application of the golden rule and of recognition of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, of getting back to the theory of government of our fathers.

Mr. Fish is the editor of a labor paper. He claims that American labor is being exploited by the labor leaders who are continually stirring up strife to make their own position the more secure, and at the expense of not only the country but of the worker as well. As a speaker he is forceful, logical and interesting, and made a fine impression on a large audience.

Party Climbs Hood

A party back last week from an ascent of Mount Hood by way of Elliot Glacier and Cooper Spur reports the unusual experience of seeing a huge crevasse open on the glacier. When first seen the crack was only about three inches across, the gap gradually widened until the width was nearly 75 feet. The crevasse reached a length of 150 feet and the depth was several hundred feet. The recreationists motored to the forest line by way of a new road being cut by J. O. Hannam. Those making the climb were: J. E. Mason, E. S. Smithers, C. Doran, Riner Aune, Al. Trowbridge and Geo. Laird.

The climbers found the snow still deep on the base of the peak. They experienced a 90-mile gale on the summit. While they were observing crevasses a huge boulder toppled from a crag several hundred yards above them. The noise of the small avalanche it started warned the party in time for them to scamper to safety.

Badger Lake Brush Being Burned

A crew of 15 men, in charge of the Forestry Service, passed through here last week en route to Badger Lake on the east side of Mount Hood. The crew will be engaged for the next several weeks slashing and burning brush around the lake. The underbrush had reached such proportions in the district that the department decided on the clean-up as a fire protection.

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.
