LOCAL LABOR UNION TO PRESENT SHOW

Through the courtesy of Manager Kolstad, the local of the American Federation of Labor will present here July 21, the noted film production, "The Right to Happiness," which features Dorothy Phillips, one of the best known screen stars. One half of the proceeds from the show will go to the treasury of the local union.
 W. R. Sagar, chairman of the committee presenting the play, states that the funds will be used for charity. He cites a recent instance of the philanthropy of the union. At a meeting of the organization word came of the destitution of a family with little children. In a few hours the unfortunate were housed and had a supply of groceries, purchased by the order. The committee asks that tickets be purchased from its members, as they will not share in box office receipts. The show, next Thursday, will be presented both afternoon and evening.
Free Transportation Proposed
 The city school board is considering furnishing free transportation to 15 students who reside in the East Side orchard district and who are forced to walk daily down the long East Side grade and then climb the Columbia canyonside in town, in order to reach the local schools. The matter will be placed before the patrons of the district for a vote.
Heights Jitney Service Complimented
 W. J. White, who visits Hood River frequently for the Zellerbach Paper Co., declared yesterday that the new Heights jitney service is filling a long felt want of traveling salesmen.
 "It should get the solid patronage of the traveling men, who made the Heights as soon as they learned of it," says Mr. White. "The charge is reasonable. Local folk should find the service a great convenience."
Cannon Presides at Luncheon
 With W. H. Boddy, who had been designated chairman of the first progressive luncheon of the Tuesday Lunch Club, away in Portland, A. M. Cannon presided at the session of the organization Tuesday. Each member responded with a short talk. The luncheon was held at the Hotel Oregon.
 The club adopted an amendment, permitting representatives of different business concerns to alternate in their membership.
Miss Metzger, Youngest Member
 Miss Betsey Lane Metzger, 19 day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Metzger, became a member of the Women's Auxiliary last Saturday. She is the organization's youngest member.
 Reports were made on the Eugene convention at the Saturday meeting by Mrs. V. R. Abraham and Mrs. Geo. R. Wilbur.
 Owing to the hot weather no regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held until September 3.
County Buys Two New Trucks
 The county has purchased from the federal government two four-wheel-drive motor trucks, which were piloted here from Pendleton by Hubert Hasbrouck and Roger Blackman. The new machines were secured through the State Highway Commission. The fleet of motor trucks now being used by the county in highway work numbers five.
Old Lutheran Church Sold
 The Immanuel Lutheran church, the congregation having recently bought the building of the Unitarian church in the city, has sold its old church located on the Tucker road, to J. Gilcher. Mr. Gilcher will remodel the old structure, utilizing it for a residence.

BAND CONCERT TO SOUND FROM SNOW

The first band concert ever given from the snowline of Mount Hood will occur Sunday, July 24, when the Hood River Progressive Business Men's Association will be accompanied on a picnic to Cloud Cap Inn by the Knights of Pythias band.
Sheriff Thanks Possemen
 I wish to express the thanks of all Hood River county authorities, and my own, to the citizens of Hood River who gave of their time at risk of personal safety last week, when the captor of Mrs. Miller and her daughter was being pursued. Citizens made every sacrifice asked of them. Their conduct under stress of this occasion, fraught with so much danger, was such as to hearten those of us whose time is devoted to the public.
 Thomas F. Johnson, Sheriff of Hood River County.
The Dalles Plays Here Sunday
 The Hood River baseball team will meet The Dalles team here Sunday. The local rivalry between the teams of the two neighboring towns, it is expected, will result in an interesting game. The locals have added to their force "Suds" Sutherland, a professional of note, who will pitch Sunday.
 The local team was defeated on the home ground last Sunday by White Salmon, score 7 to 4.
Old Lutheran Church Sold
