BEND

Over in central Oregon is Bend, one of the most metropolitan-like small cities in the Northwest.

Hans Olsen, aged about 40, was brought to the Cottage hospital yesterday from Mosier suffering from terrible burns sustained in a brush fire.

COMEDY AND POTENTIAL TRAGEDY

The proposed penetration of the Invisible Empire, into the Northwest, on first glance presents comic aspects.

The romance of the old, original Klu Klux Klan, which served a useful purpose in its time in keeping in subjection the hordes of newly freed slaves of the South by working on their superstitions, appeals to many, and the resurrected order has probably added to its membership through this appeal.

The flight of time is emphasized when we contemplate the thinning ranks of men who served their country in the maintenance of the Union in 1861-65.

THE THINNING RANKS

The flight of time is emphasized when we contemplate the thinning ranks of men who served their country in the maintenance of the Union in 1861-65.

Here in Hood River during the past week two of the beloved comrades of Conky Post have gone on the trail, Dr. J. Williams and John A. Wilson.

The approval of the trunk road bond issue by the prominent Portland attorneys was decidedly complimentary to District Attorney Baker and County Clerk Shoemaker who had charge of preparing the formalities of the election.

Caruso is dead. His beloved voice, however, is not stilled. Scientific ingenuity will preserve the golden cadence of his songs in perpetuity.

We regret the loss of the fair this year. The decision of the board, however, in postponing the event, until it could be lifted from a makeshift basis, is correct.

Dead Man Found at Mosier

While hunting a cow near Mosier, the young son of Dr. W. S. Nichol found the dead body of a man about 60 years old.

GROCERS WIN HONORS AT BONNEVILLE

Hood River grocers and meat shop men who joined the 5,000 attending the grocers' picnic at Bonneville Wednesday of last week returned home $50 richer.

Man Burned in Brush Fire
