MOTORISTS PICK UP INTERESTING HIKER

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell, who returned last week from an automobile trip to Seattle, Bellingham and other Puget Sound points, tell of an interesting experience of the road. As they were bowling along the Pacific Highway, Mrs. Bell driving, they overhauled a lone pedestrian, a large pack on his back. They took the wayfarer, an old man who gave his age as 78, aboard and proceeded.

Mrs. Bell was growing weary at the wheel, and progress of the car soon evidenced it. The aged passenger, who, however, appeared stalwart and hale, finally asked that he be permitted to disembark.

"Why, aren't you going on to the next town?" asked Mr. Bell.

"Yes," the old man replied, "but to be frank with you, I'd rather walk. I was riding in an automobile once, when a woman was driving, and we had a wreck."

The old man was persuaded to keep his seat, provided Mr. Bell took the wheel. He was a French-Canadian and a logging camp blacksmith.

"When we reached Kalama," says Mr. Bell, "he invited us to dine with him. He proved an excellent host and a good conversationalist when once the ice was broken. He declared that he continued his occupation because he loved to be busy. That he did not need funds was evidenced when he drew forth a huge roll of bills to pay for the elaborate dinner. The old man was a Civil War veteran. He was born at St. John, New Brunswick, near my own birthplace."

While in Bellingham Mr. and Mrs. Bell visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Larkin. Mr. Larkin, who is now in charge of a large cannery at Bellingham, one of the few on the coast that has continued uninterrupted operation during the period of deflation, was formerly connected with the Hood River Cannery Co.

THIELE POINTS OUT BENEFITS OF HOTEL

Henri Thiele, manager of the Columbia Gorge Hotel, responding last week at a luncheon of the Tuesday Lunch Club, declared that the hostelry would be of great financial benefit to Hood River. He cited direct benefits that would result from ranchers in selling cream and garden product to the hotel. As an indirect benefit Mr. Thiele stated that the hostelry would bring hundreds of additional tourists here, all of which would result in much good advertising for the fruit community.

C. W. McCullagh declared that the people of Hood River owed to Mr. Thiele their fullest cooperation. Other portions of the program, arranged and presided over by Rev. Boddy, were: Vocal solo, Mrs. P. S. Davidson; violin solo, C. King Benton; short address by Judge Mason, formerly of the Kansas Supreme Bench, who was the guest of Leslie Butler, Miss Sara Howes was accompanist for the solos.

Newspaper Men Call

Two Oregon ex-newspaper men, M. W. Pettigrew, former publisher of the Redmond Spokesman, and W. D. Nelson, until recently owner of the Haines Record, passed through Hood River Saturday while on automobile tours. Mr. Pettigrew, who recently sold his publication to Douglas Mullaney, was returning home with his family from a vacation at coast resorts. He still owns agricultural interests in the central Oregon country. While here Mr. Pettigrew called on his old boyhood friend, W. F. Laraway, whom he knew in early days in Glenwood, Ia.

Mr. Nelson was returning home from a prospecting tour in western Washington. He will leave Haines soon, he says, for Ridgetop, Wash., where he will take charge of a newspaper. Mr. Nelson in 1907 worked on the Glacier.

PUBLIC THANKED BY LOCAL UNION

The local labor union, the members of which are now engaged in preparations for a Labor Day celebration, supplied a neat sum to its treasury through the presentation last week of the motion picture show, "The Right to Happiness." The fund will be used in local philanthropy.

"We were much gratified over the way the general public, Hood River business men and merchants supported us in giving the show," says W. R. Sagar, who had charge of the committee. "Local 17516 will not soon forget this evidence of community support. A. S. Kolstad showed us every courtesy and aided us in every way possible. A number of members of the union gave local talent selections."

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet for its monthly dinner this evening at the Apple Blossom cafe. Mrs. R. J. Haxby, who Monday officially assumed her duties as county librarian, will be a guest at the dinner, as will the following members of The Dales club: Miss Dora Sexton, Miss Celia Gavin and Miss Inez Griffith. A program will follow the dinner. The last Saturday of August the club will hold a joint meeting with the Business and Professional Women's Club, of Portland, at the Columbia Gorge Hotel.

KU KLUX KLAN MAKES APPEARANCE

The Ku Klux Klan, according to authentic reports has invaded Hood River, and an organization of the unique secret order, it is declared, is under way here. Eligibility for the Klan, according to those who have been approached, requires 100 per cent Americanism. Only native born Americans are accepted. White supremacy is given as one of the basic principles of the organization headed by Colonel W. J. Simmons, of Atlanta, Ga.

2. The CUTLER GRADER has been tested by eight years use in the hands of growers all over the world.
3. There are more CUTLER GRADERS in use than all other makes put together.
4. The Sorting Table on any grader is the most important part. The 1921 "Two-Method" Sorting Table is the most efficient device for sorting fruit yet devised. It will enable you to grade your fruit to the best advantage, no matter how your grades run.
5. The CUTLER MANUFACTURING CO. are in the business to stay and will give you repairs and service whenever you need them.
