APPLE ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN PLANNED

(From the Oregon Grower)

A new movement has now been launched, and that is to advertise Northwest apples, regardless of brand. Leaders in the horticultural field have been in favor of this for a number of years, but the time did not seem opportune to launch the campaign. With a light crop in the east it would seem that the apple growers of the Pacific Northwest have an unusual opportunity to place their apples in new markets, to get many people who heretofore have never eaten Northwest boxed apples to become customers.

A committee consisting of J. W. Warman, general manager of the Skookum Packers, Dwight L. Woodruff, manager of the Wenatchee District Cooperative Association, C. H. Swigert, manager of the Yakima Valley Fruit Growers, A. W. Stone, manager of the Hood River Apple Growers Association, and C. L. Lewis, assistant general manager of the Oregon Growers Association, has been appointed to work up this proposition.

It is hoped that enough organizations and sales agencies in the Northwest will get together and appropriate in a box this year for advertising so a substantial fund can be raised. The apples will be advertised as Northwest boxed apples, emphasizing their superior qualities.

Not only should we advertise the Northwest boxed apple, but we should get out publicity, educate the American public to the fact that fruit is not a mere luxury, that fruit is a food. That there are very few foods that can be bought as cheaply as fruit. That in addition to its real food value, it has a health value, is rich in acids, vitamins, and certain extracts essential to the upbuilding of healthy bodies. We have an opportunity which we have long neglected.

Concrete Paving Complete

Crews last week began uncovering the 3,900 feet of concrete paving laid in the Van Horn section by the United Contract Co. under the market road law. The company has also just completed laying 2,600 feet of paving in the Odell district, where a half-mile of concrete road was constructed last year. The total cost of the two pieces of concrete surfacing laid this year reach approximately $40,000.

Both stretches of pavement will be available for use during the season of apple harvest which will begin next month.

HARVEST MOON FESTIVAL APPROACHES

A Harvest Moon festival will be held on the grounds of the Pine Grove school and church Thursday, August 18. The festivity will begin at one o'clock and last until midnight. Athletic events will be featured, among them swimming contests in the pool of E. E. Lage.

A baseball game is scheduled, with Rev. W. A. Sunday as umpire. Booths for the sale of homemade candies, ice cream, fresh fruits and vegetables will be provided. A cafeteria dinner will be served.

Chas. Hall Still Plays Tennis

Chas. Hall, who is now a leading banker of Klamath Falls, continues to wield a winning tennis racket. Mr. Hall in bygone days was accustomed to win a season's championship or push somebody else in reaching championship place. He recently won an Elk's team tournament at Klamath. Ernest C. Smith, an old tillerum of Mr. Hall, has just received a Klamath Falls paper which tells of the latter's victory. He was awarded a $15 racket for his prowess.

C. H. SPROAT BUYS RALPH ROOT PLACE

C. N. Ravlin has sold to C. H. Sproat the 100-acre orchard place of Ralph Root at a consideration of $18,000. The big tract is just coming into bearing. It is well located in the Middle Valley near the survey of the Mount Hood Loop Highway. Mr. Sproat, former manager of the old Hood River Apple Co. and later manager of the National Apple Co., states that he will develop the property on an investment basis. When it reaches bearing, the place is expected to produce as heavy a tonnage as any individual unit of the valley.

Mr. Ravlin has also sold to J. H. Wheeler, of Chicago, a 20-acre tract at Summit formerly owned by A. W. Moller, a New York man.

Local Folk Camped Near Hold-Up

The following party has just returned from an automobile tour down through the Willamette valley and returning by way of Crater Lake and Bend. Sheriff and Mrs. T. F. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Huggins, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wickham and Mr. and Mrs. Irl Blagg. The motorists were camped between Crescent and La Pine, only a few miles from the scene of the hold-up the night that two men, one of whom was suspected to have been Dr. Brumfield, robbed a motor party of Mazamas.

The entire party anticipated attending the Pythian convention on Coos Bay. Because of trouble to Mr. Wickham's car, however, only Mr. and Mrs. Huggins journeyed on to Marshfield. They made the trip by train.

Party Off for Year's Tour

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Perry and Joe Hengst, just back from a two-day fishing excursion in central Oregon, left Monday for Trout Lake, where they will camp for several weeks. Mr. Perry, who recently retired from orcharding, has equipped a truck as a bed room. He states that he will spend the next year touring.

On the return from Trout Lake the party will leave for the coast. They will participate in deer hunting in southern Oregon this fall and then proceed to southern California. They will travel as far east as Oklahoma next spring, returning by way of Yellowstone National Park.

Market Road Open

Carroll M. Hurlbut, engineer in charge of the work for the county, states that a stretch of concrete pavement just laid on a country road in the Pine Grove district from the crossing on the Mount Hood P. R. line to the Rickford, store will be open for traffic Monday.
