THE SCOUTS' TRIP TO WAHTUM LAKE

(By C. C. Newhouse)
Detachments from the three Troops of the city left the Riverside church at 6 a. m., July 16 for Wahtum Lake. They were conveyed in the cars of C. H. Castner, S. E. Bartmess, L. E. Taft and E. A. Franz furnished his truck in which the supplies were carried to Herman Creek rangers' camp, from where the boys made the ascent. The boys were on the trail by 7:30 and such fine spirit was never carried with any detachment as was carried in this one. Every Scout ever ready to do his Scout's duty turned in to get the pack train started, and when the command, "Fall in," was given there was a shout from one Scout, "Is every one happy?" and the answer was, "Yea, Be."
The boys had intended taking one and a half days on the trail, but the rangers said it was a nice one day hike, so the Scoutmaster consented to the suggestion. About 3:30 found the Scouts mounting the clouds at the summit where much snow was in evidence and the boys had to fall out to have a snowball fight. Upon descending we found the air getting much warmer and after leaving the snow line we were again feeling the heat. Five p. m. found the Scouts at Wahtum Lake tired and hungry but happy. The Troop was given an hour's rest while the Scoutmaster scouted around for a desirable camp site. This was located and after the boys had a little porridge they were ready to turn in for a good snooze.
Next morning found every Scout ready to do his bit in making camp. Details were set to getting tent and flag poles, getting fire wood and in due time a first class Scout camp was in evidence.
The Hood River Scouts were given a fine reception by the Portland Scouts. This proves that a Scout is loyal. They were invited to take part in the Portland Scout camp program. Jesse Hathorn, Glenn Mendelhall, Wilbur Walters and Ulmer Dakin helped to show the Portland Scouts that we were Scouts proper, and the spirit of good sportsmanship was in evidence among both camps.
The Portland Scouts supplied their own rafts and so our boys set to work to construct rafts for the Hood River camp. Before any Scout could construct and manipulate a raft he had to pass a swimming test in which he must be able to swim 25 yards. Many boys qualified for rafts, in fact all but two. Swimming guards appointed by Mr. Newhouse were Jesse Hathorn, Leonard Thomson, Arlin McCarty and Victor Miller. Hood River Scouts were very fortunate in having access to the Portland Scout canteen. Many boys were seen standing in line every evening looking longingly for that usual chocolate bar.
Fishing was much enjoyed by the Scouts and Scoutmasters Newhouse and Carmine. Scout Taft caught some fine trout and sent some to home folks by Mr. Carmine.
We were fortunate in having only two minor accidents while in camp. These were Phillip von Lubken, who fell on a sharp rock, cutting his knee just above the cap, and Wilbur Walters who fell on a piece of glass, cutting himself in a similar way.
The Scouts returned home by way of Eagle Creek trail where they were met by J. F. Volstorff, C. H. Castner and L. E. Taft.
We wish to thank those citizens who so kindly volunteered to help us make our annual Scout trip a success and we assure you that it was so.

AGREEMENT SET FOR MT. HOOD CLIMB
E. P. Rankin, 77-years old, of Monrovia, Calif., is the oldest man ever to reach the summit of Mount Hood. Mr. Rankin, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lois Rankin, and several other younger people, ascended the peak from Cloud Cap Inn Wednesday of last week. Guide George Miller reported that Mr. Rankin reached the top of the high altitude apparently less fatigued by the strenuous exercise than any of his companions. Mr. Rankin was a noted athlete during his youth. In 1904-05 he was captain of the Princeton University baseball team.
Same Old Story But a Good One
Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles."

Strong Wind Fells Few Pears
Weather conditions here lately have been characterized by unusually strong west winds, which, according to orchardists, have taken toll of some pears. No falling of apples to any extent has been reported. The wind at this season, especially on days of strong sunshine, is considered beneficial, as it prevents sunburning.
The wind was so strong several days that the Rowena-Lyle ferry east of here was forced to tie up. The sales had no effect on the big ferry of the Hood River White Salmon Ferry Co.

Ancient Land Grant Received
S. E. Bartmess recently received an interesting document in the grant of land to his grandfather, Benjamin Bartmess, who settled in Indiana when that state was on the frontier. The grant was signed by President Andrew Jackson December 2, 1830.
Mr. Bartmess received the old land patent from a first cousin, Ed Bartmess, veteran manager for the Standard Oil Co. at Yonkers, N. Y., who is now traveling in southern California for his health.

The Dalles Cants Are Ripe
Wasco county cantaloupes, regarded as the finest produced in the Northwest, are now rolling from The Dalles. The melons are shipped out to Portland each evening to Portland by motor truck in ton quantities. Fred Wetlie, grower, whose place is near The Dalles, last week marketed the first crate from the Wasco melon fields. The Oregon Growers' Association expects to handle 3,000 crates of melons.
If you have any kind of auto electrical trouble, S. B. Cameron can find where it is and fix it for you or it will cost you nothing if he fails at Cascade Garage. j214f

PORTLAND WOMAN AT HER WITS' END

Mrs. Goodwin Couldn't Have Held Out Much Longer If It Hadn't Been For Tanlac

"I began taking Tanlac just a month ago but am already feeling better than I have in many years," declared Mrs. C. E. Goodwin, 655 Quincy St., Portland, Ore.
"My health was failing fast and I don't believe I could have held out much longer. My appetite was so poor that I was scarcely eating enough to keep body and soul together and I just felt that I might break down any time. My nerves kept me restless and irritated night and day and just couldn't sleep good to save me. I was very weak and badly run down and had fallen off a lot in weight. I worried over my condition till I was at my wit's end to know what to do.
"A friend of mine suggested that I try Tanlac, and I am certainly glad I began taking it, for I took a turn for the better on the very first bottle. After that I improved rapidly and now I am enjoying splendid health once more. My appetite is fine, my nerves are as steady as can be and I have already gained ten pounds in weight. I sleep as sound as I did when I was a child and feel so much stronger that my housework is now a pleasure.
"Tanlac is sold in Hood River by the Kreese Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Williams and Friend to Visit
The following was received last week from Ira E. Williams, who is now president of the Edmonds, Wash., State Bank:

"If present plans do not miscarry, O. L. Miller and wife, of this city, with Mrs. Williams and I will start about the 10th inst. in Mr. Miller's car for Hood River and other points en route.
"Mr. Miller is something of a fruit rancher here including the practice of law, having been president of a business college in both Seattle and Everett and is one of our best boosters for Snohomish county good roads.
"Mr. Miller has no business interests in your city, but comes along as my guest that much further than Portland so I can look after some of my affairs in the valley, and incidentally I want him to see a real fruit growing district."

Summons
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Hood River County.

F. D. Tweedy, Administrator of the Estate of James M. Chitty, Deceased, versus Elisha L. Welsh, et al., Defendants.

To Elisha L. Welsh, Ada L. Welsh, E. C. Laughlin, Jane W. Laughlin, E. E. Vallier, and Elizabeth Vallier, Defendants.
In the name of the State of Oregon, You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed herein against you and each of you, in the above entitled suit on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, viz., on or before the 11th day of August, 1921, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the Complaint, to wit:

For judgment on that certain promissory note set out in the complaint in the sum of $1,000.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent since the 20th day of August, 1920, until paid; for costs including attorney's fees, and for a decree of foreclosure of that certain mortgage set out in the complaint, and sale of the following described real property, to wit:
Lots Ten (10) and Thirteen (13) of Shaylor's Subdivision of Block One (1), Pleasant View Addition to the City of Hood River, Oregon. And for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.

You and each of you are hereby served with Summons by order of the Hon. H. L. Hasbrouck, County Judge of Hood River County, Oregon, made and entered on the 29th day of June, 1921, which order prescribes that you and each of you shall appear and answer the complaint herein on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, and you are notified that the date of the first publication of this Summons is the 30th day of June, 1921.
