THE 1925 EXPOSITION

Congress has passed, and President Harding has signed it, the bill that will authorize formal invitation of foreign nations to participate in the 1925 Atlantic-Pacific Highway Electrical Exposition in Portland.

It is four years before the great exposition will be held, but that is all too short a time for working out plans. Many details must be attended to.

THE GLACIER CUP ARRIVES

The silver cup, awarded the Glacier recently by judges of a contest at the Oregon Agricultural College, has arrived.

We invite our Hood River city and rural friends to visit the office and see the trophy.

The value attached to the cup itself is relatively small. It is a symbol of something, however, that is priceless.

We will never look upon it without renewed inspiration. The award came to us in recognition of our weekly record of Hood River valley rural development.

Our undivided effort will be toward such development. We only ask the further full cooperation of all who may read this.

Join the kiddies in emitting a sincere hurrah, for a circus is coming to town. We do not mean this as an endorsement of the performance coming next Thursday.

The federal crop reports, apparently permit more or less serious errors to creep in. In a current report, printed this week, it is stated that the number of Hood River apples will not be more than a year ago, but that the tonnage will be greater due to better size.

Whatever the cause, there was evidently some action down among the innards of Mount Hood last week. When chunks of ice, the size of small pyramids, are juggled around carelessly, and cracks like miniature Panama canals are opened in the glacial ice, we wouldn't say it was a tempest in a teapot.

With the best eastern commercial apple crop far less than a half of that a year ago and northwestern box quality above normal, growers are reaching the opinion that the price should at least be commensurate with conditions.

If Valley folk note an increase in motor tourists they may just ascribe it to the big sign placed west of town in the auto park.

The Tuesday Lunch Club is a precocious and active baby. It is satisfactorily handling many situations.

Ward-Casiday The wedding of Miss Marie Casiday and Glendon Ward was solemnized Friday evening, Rev. Hanna officiating, at the parsonage of the First Christian church.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS LICENSE ORDINANCE

The city council has found that the provisions of an ordinance governing the operation of motor bus transportation concerns doing business here by demanding a $10,000 bond of rigid terms cannot be complied with, and it was decided that the ordinance, which also charges heavy license fees, will be modified.

The council is now engaged in the consideration of an ordinance, increasing the license fees of itinerant shows and circuses, which passed first reading Monday night. Fees are increased over those of an old ordinance, and circuses will be assessed a fee for use of the streets in giving a parade.

The bottom of the streams are of sand and gravel and will be just the thing for spawning. The Eastern Brook will utilize the inlet in the fall, while the Rainbow will go there in the spring."

C. W. Lowrey, of Astoria, deputy state game warden, was here last week conferring with J. H. Fredrick, president of the Hood River County Game Protective Association, and visiting points of the national forest, where game abounds.

Donnerberg's Pictures Still Attract

Although two weeks and more have elapsed since the Legion accusation of Mount Hood, the pictures that Fred W. Donnerberg took remain a drawing attraction. The photographs, some of the most striking that have ever been taken of climbers ascending the snow peak, continue daily to draw crowds at the bloom-Donnerberg store, where they are exhibited.

Stanley C. Walters, chief forest ranger of the county, states that Huckleberry mountain, located to the west of Lost Lake, will be open to berry pickers next Saturday.

"The harvest of the fruit there will be supervised by rangers. No combing of bushes will be permitted. In some manner the report gained currency that we would open the berry district last Sunday, but forest authorities never gave out such information. We will open the berry district on Saturday. Some will remain green even next Saturday."

Mr. Walters states that huckleberries of 11 pickers, who slipped into the forest area last Sunday, were confiscated by rangers, will be given the Cottage hospital.

NORTHWESTERN STOCK SALES GRATIFYING

There's some advantage in having satisfied customers. Believing General Manager Merwin of the Northwestern Electric Company, who attributes much of the early success of the company's recently launched campaign to sell a million dollars of program stock to the fact that it has 9,000 consumers of light and heat who appreciate good service at reasonable cost.

More than 80 per cent of our own employees have placed orders for stock and a particularly gratifying fact is that most of the sales thus far have been to persons included on our list of 9,000 consumers of heating and lighting services. The par value of each share of stock sold is $100 and the purchaser gets it for $95. When the stock is all paid for it nets the purchaser 75 per cent on his investment.
