HOOD RIVER GLACIER, THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1921

"WHITE Mme. GOLDA AND SIO,000 Dancing Horse PEARL

Earth's Largest

PACHYDERM

Eighteen (18), Township One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East, which point is approximately twenty-five (25) feet South of the Southeast corner of sects with the East line of the Northwest quarter of the Northwest quarter said proposed irrigation district.

for said district. Said election shall be conducted as

August 11, A. D. 1921. Kent Shoemaker, County Clerk of Hood River County,

Citation In the County Court of the State of regon for Hood River County. In the Matter of the Estate of Mary on Sidney, Deceased. To H. M. Sidney gon for Hood River County at the having put the North Bank route in Court House in the City of Hood River excellent shape. court House in the City of Hood stiver on the second day of September, 1921. at the hour of 1.30 p. m., then and there to show cause, if any exist, why the said H. M. Sidney should not be removed as executor of the above enitled estate. Witness the signature of the Honorable H. L. Hasbrouck, Judge of the above entitled court, this 19th day of July, 1921, and the seal of said court hereto affixed. Kent Shoemaker, County Clerk. jy21s1

NOTED LANDMARK Writing in a recent Sunday Oregonian,

story follows:

Such were the impressions of the first tion precinct for said election, and the voting and polling place of and for said election shall be Melsaac's Hall in look upon the giant monolith which the town of Parkdale, Oregon, within stands like a sentinel on the Washington bank of the river at the center of the said proposed irrigation district. That the electors in said election shall cast ballots which shall contain the words "Irrigation District—Yes" and "Irrigation District—Yes" words equivalent thereto, and also the names of the persons to be voted for to fill the said elective efficies in and the said elective efficies in and the said elective efficies in and to fill the said elective efficies in and t to fill the said elective offices in and named not a few of them, including Beacon rock.

Today the same rock, which a century with the general laws of the State of inhabited only by hostile bands of Ind Oregon pertaining to elections, accord- ians, is one of the most interesting This notice is given for and as the notice of said court and will be pub-lished once each week for at least four consecutive weeks prior to such election, in the Hood River Glacier, a newspaper published within Hood River County, Oregon, pursuant to the order of said court duly made and entered bergin and clark. A railroad has laid its track past the base of the rock, at the edge of the river; a high-way has cut its way through the forest behind the rock, and a trail has conentered herein on August 3rd, A. D. 1921. This notice is first published on Beacon rock, which may be justly called the most interesting feature of the Washington side of the Columbia gorge has been made easily available to the motorist, although all the natural features of the mass of stone and its immediate surroundings have been preserved. To reach Beacon rock the motorists may make the run through Vancouver out the North bank highway through Camas and eastward to the rock or may take the Columbia River highway to Cascade Locks, ferry across the river to To H. M. Sidney: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby commanded to appear in the County Court of the State of Ore-the County Court of the State of Ore-the County Court of the State of Ore-> and then returning home through Stevenson and over the Columbia River highway pavement. This is probably the most enjoyable way to make the trip The North Bank route goes east from Vancouver to Washougal, then up the Washongal rrver for some miles, to get around the barriers of Cape Horn' then turns back to the river and follows the er bank up to Beacon rock. The road is in good shape, paved to Camas and graveled most of the way beyond.

There are a few miles of dirt road bumpy, but not offering any difficulty highway and is found without difficulty

outh and west sides slope backward t or nearly 600 feet, it is estimated. Th

oad behind fbe rock is approxamatel

As a result of the keen interest in the rock displayed by Mr. Biddle who has a beautiful homes a few miles north o

ancouver on the Columbia river bank

While the rock and its surroundings

The highway runs immediatly behind except after a severe rain.

base of the rock, over the completed not as wide as the Beacon rock. The name Wahelella, by which both portion of the trail, lost its footing and ell over a 400-foot cliff to instant death. the camping park and the station on This was the only casualty of any kind, the North Bank railroad close to Beacon On May 16, 1919, the trail was sufficient | rock are known, is of Indian origin, it y completed to allow Mr. Biddle and is interesting to note, and was taken by the workmen to get to the top and an Mr. Biddle from Lewis and Clark's H. W. Lyman, automobile editor of the American flag was run up. In April, journal. On the return up the river in the Northeast quarter of the Northeast quarter (18). Township One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence continuing in a Northeasterly direction along a meander line follow. direction along a meander line follow-ing the said line of said right of way for the East Side Lateral inter-where the said East Side Lateral inter-story follows:

Beacon rock is a starting point for many excursions of interest on that side Although the giant rock was origin-

"The rapid which we have just passed of the Columbia. In addition to the ally named Beacon rock by Lewis and of Section Seventeen (17), Township is the last of all the descents of the Coi- road to beautiful Wahclella park, Mr. Clark, the name was lost in obscurity One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; umbia. As we descended we reached a then we built a trail for public use to the and then was known as Castle rock, thence North to the South line of Sectorek under a bluff on the left; in the top of Hamilton mountain, north of the No doubt some still know it by that tion Eight (8), Township One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence East to the place of beginning. In the fight and at some dis-tance from the hills stands a perpendic-ular sock about 800 feet high and 400 be obtained. A wagon road goes The name of said proposed irrigation district is Middle Fork Irrigation District. That the whole of said proposed irrigation district is and will be one electory of the state of the state

A gift of flowers from her husband ! And their perfume froze her soul!

For now she knew that "Heliotrope Harry" was free. Out of prison to save his daughter's happiness. Out to wreak vengeance on this inhuman, blackmailing mother !

Yet he never lifted a hand against her. His victory was far more terrible-far more noble-than that.

As "Humoresque" showed to the world the heart of a mother, so "Heliotrope" stands as the greatest story of father-love ever filmed.

TAKEN FROM

Richard Washburn Child's Famous Story

DIRECTED BY

GEORGE D. BAKER

ALSO

Winner of Blue Ribbon Prizes at the New York and Boston Horse Shows Captain JOHN HOFFMAN and His or Jungle Bred Black Maned African Lions WORLD'S PREMIER ROLLER SKATING BEARS Presented by SAM ALBION CHILDREN'S FAIRVLAND Performing DOGS, GOATS, MONKEYS, SHETLAND PONIES LEAPING WOLF HOUNDS, Direct from BELMOND KENNELS MLLE. SILVERS "The Lady with the Doves" Foathered Actors ONLY BIG SHOW COMING - THE YEAR'S BEST HOLIDAY Will Positively Appear Rain or Shine Under Their Newly Constructed Waterproof Tents TWO PERFORMANCES 2 P. M. AND 8 P. M.

Notice of Election

The Biggest Brute That Walks

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Hood River County.

In the Matter of a Proposed Irriga-tion District to be known as Middle Fork Irrigation District.

Notice is hereby given of an election to be held on the 17th day of September, A. D. 1921, between the hours of eight o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, in the said proposed Middle Fork Irrigation District, the boundaries of which are hereinafter described, for the purpose of determining whether or not the same shall be organized under the quarter of Section Thirty-three (33), the bench on a uniform grade to a 25 tons from his first and second cut-Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence continuing in a Nor-therly direction, along a meander line, following the crest of the bench on the West of the southwest quarter of Section Nineteen (19). Township One (1) North, Range following the crest of the bench on the West side of the tast; thence continuing in a tions for feeding from his first and second cdt-tings of alfalfa. He has stored six tons loose for feeding from his cow barns The third crop of alfalfa will be harvested next month. Ten (10) East; thence continuing in a river to a point approximately 100 feet East of the Northeast corner of the line following the crest of the bench Northwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section Twenty-eight (28), Township One (1) North, Range Ten seven hundred fifty (750) feet West of 10) East; thence continuing in a the Northeast corner of the Northwest Northerly direction along a meander quarter of Section Thirty-one (31 time following the creat of the bench on the West side of the East Fork of Hood river to a point approximately four hundred twenty-mne (429) feet line following the creat of the bench East of the Northwest corner of the on the East side of the Middle Fork of the same shall be organized under the provisions of Chapter XIV of Olson's Oregon Laws, and the amendments thereof, and electing officers of said irrigation district, to - wit: Three directors, all as required by said Act and the order of said court. Said elec-tion shall commence and the polls shall be opened at eight o'clock in the fore-noon of said day, and the said polls shall be kept open and the said elec-tion shall continue until five o'clock in tion shall continue until five o'clock in Northwest quarter of the Northeast the said bench intersects with the foot the afternoon of said day, when said polls will be closed. Further notice is given, as follows: That all lands within said conversed That all lands within said proposed Southwest quarter of the Southwest to a point where the foot of the East hundred and forty (240) feet East of the Southeast corner of the Southwest guarter of the Southeast quarter of South, Range Ten (10) East; thence West six hundred in a Northerly direction following the channel of a certain creek to where channel of a certain creek to where said creek intersects the bouth line of the Northeast quarter of Section Eight (8), Tewnship One (1) South, Range Township One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence East to the Southenst corner of the Northeast one (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence continuing in a southerly direction along a meander thence in a Northerly direction, along a meander line, following the creat of the Southwest corner of the bench on a uniform grade to a point eleven hundred and one (1101) feet West conter of the Southwest corner of the Southerly direction, along a meander line, following the creat of the Southwest corner of the bench on a uniform grade to a point eleven hundred and one (1101) feet West corner of the Southerly direction, along a meander line following the complete the South Range South the bench on a uniform grade to a point eleven hundred and one (1101) feet West corner of the Southwest corner of the So a meander line, following the creat of the bench on the West side, of the East Fork of Hood river, to a point southeast quarter of Section Eight (18). Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence continuing in a Northerly direction, along a meander line, following the Southwest corner of the Southwest continuing in a Northerly direction, along a meander line, following the Southwest quarter of Section Nineteen the East Fork of Hood river, to a

Horses

Camels

UPPER VALLEY TUBERS ARE SHOWING FINE

Prospects for an excellent potato crop in the Upper Valley were never better, declared J. F. Thompson, who was here Saturday on business. He predicts that the district will ship 100 the top of the rock by H. J. Biddle, the core of there were appreciated about three years ago to the top of the rock by H. J. Biddle, the ars of tubers, 40 cars more than were owner, starts right at the edge of the rolled from there last season. "The acreage of this year is in-creased," says Mr. Thompson, "and northward from the main highway growers have given their crops the best of care. Of course it is too early to give definite data on how the crop will mature, but all indications now boint to tubers of perfect quality. One for the motorist. Beacon rock ha Beacon rock has never been acurately cres, has been planted by Timothy measured, but has been estimated b lewell. Orrin Whitlock, who cleared the United States Geological surrey ew ground for the tubers, has 20 850 feet in height. For perhaps hal that distance the rock is nearly sheer of icres planted to potatoes. Mr. Thompson also declares that the every side, and for the last half th Upper Valley hay tonnage will be better than usual this year. Weather a point which forms the summit. Th nditions have been perfect for curing east and north sides are perpendicula the hay. He states that he has baled the still.

Bull Leads to Moonshine

Over-indulgence of a bull in the con- and who purchased the rock in 1915, th tents of a mash barrel, according to stories of orchardists of the Under-wood district, led to the discovery by ninest trail in the Columbia gorge terriofficers of two stills near Stevenson. The bull, attracting attention by his drunken stagger and his bellowed maunderings, evidently was pleased grade of 15 per cent. The sides are with the effects of the moonshine mak- well protected by concrete walls and ings. Officers followed him as he pur- iron railings and no one, man nor wone sued an erratic course through the an, old or young, so long as they pos undebrush. The goal of the bovine sesses a fairly level head, need lear toper was a barrel, half full of fer-making the ascent. menting mash. In a hidden cabin,

In many places it was necessary t about 100 yards away, was discovered carve the trail along the side of the The Skamania county sher- sheer rock wall. Bridges, some of then iff, it is stated, is holding the property sverhanging are numerous, and at the at the county jail. He states, how- point where the trail climbs the "chim ever, that he expects no owner to call ney" on the south side it was necessary and lay claims to the distillery and to make 32 switchbacks. There are in all 52 turns of the trail in its length of other apparatus. 85 of a mile.

Forest Fires Are Out

are not public property they may be That all lands within said proposed Middle Fork Irrigation District are within Hood River, County, Oregon, and the boundaries of said proposed in rightion district are described as fol-lows: Beginning at the Southwest quarter of Section Eight (8). Township one (1) South, Range Ten of the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) Beginning at the Southwest quarter of Section Eight (8). Township one (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence West to the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence West to the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence West to the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence West to the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence West to the Southwest quarter of Section (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence (18), Township One (1) North, Range Ten (10) East; thence (18), Township One (18), Township One (18), Township One (19) East; thence in the West line of Section Thirteen (18), Township One (1) South, Range Ten (10) East; thence (18), Township One (18), Forest fires that menaced orchard considered as open to the enjoyment of

was expressly stipulated in the deer that the rock be forever preserved in its natural state and be not injured or defaced in any way, Mr. Biddle stated Crows of the A. D. Kern Construction Co., who week before last moved except as was necessary for the building

the East Fork of Hood river, to a point approximately three hundred twenty-seven (327) feet East of the Southerst direction along a meander Southeast corner of the Northwest line, following the Western slope of iy 22if | a 15 per cent maximum grade, aithough

Bring your grouch along and watch it fade as you laugh at this rollicking Comedy.

WHEN YOU ATTEND THE Harvest Moon Festival PINE GROVE

this Afternoon and Evening and join in the revelry of sports and games, leave dull care at home. Just have friend wife slip some coveralls on the kiddies and forget all about the discomforts of cooking a meal, for we will serve

A CHICKEN CAFETERIA DINNER.

Plenty of food dainties and staples, all prepared as only the Pine Grove Ladies know how to get together an appetizing meal.

Come join us, you neighbors of all the Valley. See Billy Sunday in action as umpire. Two big baseball games, old-fashioned sports, and a literary and musical program of decided merit to close the event in the evening.

The more the merrier for this big time! Hurrah!

on EASY TERMS

Complete equipment, including self-starter, together with large driving wheel, mirror, Hassler shock absorbers, foot throttle, special carburetor adjustor, Stewart horn, wind shield cleaner, motometer, and five wire wheels.

Car has been driven less than thousand miles, is in perfect running condition and tires are like new.

Office Phone, 8611.

Residence Phone, 5401.

Will be glud to demonstrate any noon or evening. For information, call:

S. B. CARNINE, Jr. NOOD RIVER.

Paving Progressing Nicely

