LEGION CARNIVAL

The Anderson-Srader shows will be-gin six days of carnival shows at the corner of Ninth street and Cascade avenue next Monday. The entertain ment will be presented under the auspices of the American Legion Post, which will get a large percentage of the receipts. J. D. Reilly, publicity manager of the organization, was here

The organization will feature sensa-tional rides and six shows, larger than the average for such carnivals, will be pen every afternoon and evening. A 10,000 carousal is the way Mr. Reilley characterizes the events. The ferris wheel, which will whirl the young and old who like sensations, is the largest ever built for a carnival organization. An appealing Hawaiian show will furan appealing Hawanan show will ful-nish native music, song and dance. A big palace of wonders is available for those who like the mysterious. Washington Harvest Heavy

Washington easily holds first place in the United States in 1921 in apple production. The tonnage September 1, as estimated by the United States department of agriculture, 6,543,000 barrels of commercial apples, is nearly double that of the nearest producer, New York, which is credited by the same authority with 3,707,000 barrels. All the nation's commercial apples. The government figures put the 1920 figure, according to the same authority, was 24,900 cars. It is significant that while the tonnage for the nation has fallen off 50 per cent in 1921 under 1920 and the tonnage of the six big apple-crop pro-ducing states, outside of the north-west, has fallen off about 70, the ducing states, outside of the north-west, has fallen off about 70, the northwest tonnage has actually in-creased 39 per cent and Washington's apple crop has increased 44 per cent merly resided here, died at his home in apple crop has increased 44 per cent over 1920. That can only mean better prices for the northwestern grower because of the shortage in competing districts. This has been demonstrated

Potatoes Fine

The Pine Grove district has produced ome potatoes of high quality this rear. A. F. Bickford, last week ex-hibited tubers of the Netted Gem variety that were of top quality. The dis-trict has the heaviest planting of pota-toes in its history this year, many growers having utilized ground on which trees were killed by the severe 1919 winter weather in planting pota-toes. Pine Grove will harvest about 20 cars. The Upper Valley potato acreage, it is estimated, will yield nearly 100 carloads of fine potatoes.

Adventists Seek Fund

A committee of the Seventh Day Adventist church composed of F. F. Dater, J. J. Knapp and J. W. Hutson, has announced a campaign for foreign missions here. It is stated that the church last year raised an approximate $500,000 for sending the gospel to foreign countries. The goal of this year has been set at $1,000,000.

K. P. Term Lengthened

One of the chief points of business of the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge in Portland last week was that of in-creasing the tenure of officers from six months to one year. Delegates from six Waucoma Lodge to the Grand Lodge were: Jasper Wickham, T. F. John-son, John Baker, F. W. Chinlund and J. H. Hazlett.
