HOOD RIVER ASKED TO JOIN CARAVAN

Local civic organizations and individual citizens have received an invitation from The Dalles Chamber of Commerce to participate in the caravan from The Dalles to Klamath Falls over the central Oregon highway for boosting the Dalles-California Highway and the proposed interstate bridge across the Columbia near The Dalles. In a letter of invitation E. F. Van Schoick, secretary of the organization, states that cars from all cities between The Dalles and Klamath Falls are expected to join the cavalcade, leaving The Dalles November 14. A portion of Mr. Van Schoick's letter follows: "The people of The Dalles are very enthusiastic over this trip and reservations are being made freely. The purposes of the trip are: "First: To solidify community sentiment all along the Highway for the completion of this great artery by 1925; by completion we do not mean paving, but expenditure of the money already voted in the several counties through which it passes. "Second: The linking up of the Highway, by means of the bridge over the Columbia river, with the state of Washington which will make the road an inter-state rather than an intra-state highway; more than that, the completion of this bridge will make this highway an unbroken artery from Canada to Mexico. "Third: By making the trip at this season of the year it will demonstrate to the boys and girls of the entire country, that The Dalles-California Highway is the all year round route from California to the Pacific Northwest. "It is planned upon reaching Klamath Falls to turn and return to Bend where a monster banquet and get-together jollification meeting will be held. "This is one of the most important events of its kind ever instituted at any of the mountains. Everyone should participate. The trip is sponsored by The Dalles-California Highway Association and The Dalles-Wasco County Chamber of Commerce. Reservations are open to the world. May we have yours? Remember the date, Monday, November 14, starting at The Dalles."

Brazeau's Car Returned
An automobile, owned by L. F. Brazeau, was returned last week from Portland, where it was recovered by the office of the Multnomah county sheriff. The machine was stolen Saturday night while Mr. Brazeau and family attended a moving picture show. Simultaneously a limousine car stolen from Pat Foley, hotelman of The Dalles, was abandoned here. It is presumed that the Brazeau car was taken by the thief of the abandoned machine.

Foust Finds Pint of Booz
Leon Foust, while en route home from work the other night, noticed a glint of golden rays reflected from a strong light. On investigating he discovered a pint bottle of liquor, still warm, apparently fresh from somebody's hip pocket, in a doorway. "I was mightily tempted," says Mr. Foust, "and reached down for that bottle. But then I thought of the heavy fine a honk had recently paid for being discovered with a bottle on his person, and I quietly left the liquor where I found it."

Electric Automobile Brought Here
The first electric automobile ever seen in Hood River, arrived one night last week over the Highway. It was brought here by Floyd Gibbs and will be used in demonstrations by the Blue Diamond Battery Co., for advertising General Electric batteries. The car was driven under its own power a part of the way over the Highway, but as a single charging was insufficient for the entire trip, the electric was towed a part of the distance by Joe Wendling driving a Buick touring car. The men were accompanied by Harry Wood, joint city and county traffic officer.

Fair Days Aid Spraying
County Fruit Inspector Armstrong expressed the hope that the valley will be fairly clean from anthracnose next year. Dry weather of the past week, it is stated, has permitted orchardists to cover their trees with Bordeaux mixture. This treatment, it is declared, will prevent the spread of spores of the disease. Anthracnose, Mr. Armstrong says, has made its rapid spread because of failure of growers to apply fall sprays. Usually rainy weather prevents much spraying.

Speeders Arrested
Traffic Officers Wood and Murray report the following arrests for speeding on the Columbia River Highway last week: C. L. Bush, of Carlton, alleged to have been traveling at a rate of 40 miles an hour; Dr. E. K. Scott, of Portland, accused of doing 32 miles on dangerous turns; E. C. Hanson, The Dalles, charged with 40 miles, and Lewis Mottell, who it was alleged was driving at an unlawful speed through Cascade Locks. The latter is driver for a motor bus operating between The Dalles and Portland.

Wasco Cherry Prices
Final payments were made last week by the Wasco branch of the Oregon Growers Cooperative Association at The Dalles. Net average prices for growers were announced as follows: Bings, 81 cents; Lamberts, 97 cents; Royal Anns, 6.65 cents; Black Republicans, 5.63; Oregon Blacks, 9.72 cents.

White Salmon Shipments
Up to last week end more than 200 carloads of apples had been shipped from the S. E. & S. R. Company's station at White Salmon. The warehouses still contained capacity quantities. Approximately 20,000 boxes remained in orchards. These were being hastened to protection before a heavy freeze by heat trucks.

Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Her A World of Good
"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Hutton, Kirkville, N. Y. "I have recommended them to a number of my friends and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

FREE TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC SATURDAY

A free tuberculosis clinic will be held here Saturday under the auspices of the County Public Health Association and medical men. Dr. G. C. Bellinger, superintendent of the State Tuberculosis hospital at Salem, will be the examining physician. Dr. Bellinger has conducted similar clinics for the Oregon Tuberculosis Association at Corvallis, Enterprise and La Grande during the year. Mrs. Glendora Blakely, county nurse, has been working on the clinic idea for some time, and is very anxious that every man, woman and child in the county who has any reason to suspect the presence of tuberculosis to make sure by taking advantage of the examination offered on the 12th. Mrs. Blakely is making the arrangements for the clinic and will probably be assisted by a worker from the state office. The clinic is made possible by the sale of Christmas seals and will be the sixth held in the state this year. When it is realized that there are in the state of Oregon 6,500 living cases and that there are 650 deaths per year in the state from this dread disease, it is felt that it is time to give thought to the fact that tuberculosis is a preventable and a curable disease and that the time to cure it is in its early stages. An early examination is greatly to be advised and a determination to accept the doctor's diagnosis and to make a fight to get rid of the disease is the thing people must be educated into doing. This clinic is for anyone. If anyone has any doubt or any reason to suspect himself of being tubercular, let him come to this clinic and be examined. The hours are from 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m.

Miss Jane C. Allen, director of the State Bureau of Nursing, and Clinton O. Bay, field executive of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, will assist in working out all clinic plans. As much privacy as possible will be observed.

The Strictly One-Man Drag Saw
(By Hans K. Hoerlein)
They advertise alluringly the labor-saving drag saw. As a strictly one-man outfit that works without a pause: From 25 to 40 cords of wood it saws a day. And does the work of 15 men, the advertisements say. To be light, rugged, durable, is the maker's aim. Also low cost of operation, easy to maintain. It cuts one foot a minute, (while you smoke your pipe). Through large and small logs, it matters not a mite. But like all advertisements and nice things said in print. There're things you cannot realize, until perhaps by dint. Of arduous toil, like operating, say a strictly one-man saw. For every cut the entire length of a ponderous four foot log: A-grunting, heaving, gurgling, dragging the saw around. Swearing it weighs a ton if it weighs a pound. Exerting every muscle to its very last resource. You cry, "A strictly one-man saw? It takes a good sized horse."

Ewer's Drawings Appear in Judge
In a recent issue of Judge, under the caption, "The Great Northwest—Still Going Strong," appear some interesting pen sketches by Anthony H. Ewer. The captions for the different drawings as given in Judge follow: The Mazamas, an organization of intrepid mountain climbers, scaling a peak before breakfast; a magnificent stand of Douglas fir behind Mount Hood—a sight worth seeing; the Columbia Highway—a superb feat of engineering; when the big salmon drive is on navigation on the Columbia is attended with the utmost peril; likely to happen any time when a Hood River apple breaks loose from its moorings and smashes into the hired man's shack.

Apples Go by Post
Apples in large quantities are now beginning to move from here by parcel post. An average of 75 boxes per day are being mailed from the local post office, and nearly 100 arrive daily at the Mt. Hood R. R. Company's line from Parkdale, Odell and Dee. While apples are being sent out in large quantities to Portland and points in western Washington, the bulk of them go to central and eastern Oregon points. Many growers ship heavy blocks of their fruit by parcel post to dealers in the towns of the interior.

War Risk Date Near
December 31 will be the last day that ex-service men can reinstate their war risk insurance. Under a ruling just made by the treasury department it is necessary to make application and furnish a doctor's certificate on a form furnished by the government, showing the applicant to be insurable, and the payment for two months on the amount of insurance which he desires to reinstate. The applicant may reinstate and convert to a permanent form of insurance issued by the government in the same transaction.

Stoops Hurt In Accident
Young Stoops, local welterweight boxer and track driver, was knocked unconscious when his truckload of apples went through a bridge on Lover's Lane in the Oak Grove district last Thursday. Mr. Stoops fell among apple boxes, one of which struck his head. The bridge had been condemned.

Grant Court Next Week
The regular quarterly session of circuit court will be called Monday with Judge Parker, of Condon, sitting. Judge Wilson has been instructed to go to Portland, where he will be engaged with cases for the next two months.

Good Health
If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular. No one can reasonably hope to feel well, when constipated. When needed, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle.

HELPFUL HINTS

Let us make some suggestions in behalf of the housewives of Valley homes. During these days of leisure, when compared with the rush of harvest days just ahead, plan some domestic improvements that will lift the burden from your wife, Mr. Orchardist. Let us install a Fairbanks-Morse engine to put running water in your house and kitchen. How handy would electric lights be, thus eliminating the drudgery of cleaning lamps. We have an electric system that is just the thing for you.
