BRIDAL EMPLOYEES BUY HOOD BOX PLANT

H. A. Bell and E. J. Baker, of Hood River, and L. C. Stewart, of Palmer, all veteran employees of the Hood River Lumber Co., last week purchased from H. T. DeWitt, Banks Mortimer and J. R. Phillips the Hood River Box Company's plant. The concern, utilizing a brick structure formerly used in meat packing, began the manufacture of boxes last spring. They have operated to capacity throughout the season.

"We expect to add a large amount of equipment," said Mr. Bell, "and begin the next season running a double shift. We will be equipped to turn out 8,000 boxes per day. We expect to employ about 30 men. Our raw material will be purchased from the DeWitt mill of the Oregon Lumber Co."

PARCEL POST DELIVERY IS ORDERED

Truman Butler, who in behalf of local merchants had petitioned, through Representative N. J. Sinnott, action from the postoffice department in establishing parcel post delivery here, last week received from Mr. Sinnott a telegram announcing that a carrier would be detailed to spend four hours daily in distributing parcels to stores. Mr. Sinnott stated in his message that the department was considering placing in commission a vehicle here for delivery of parcels in all parts of the city.

Mr. Crosby Writes of Potatoes

Hampton Falls, N. H., Oct. 28, 1921.

Editor Glacier: A few lines more to my friends in Hood River. I am sure having the time of my life. I find things very interesting in this part of the United States as I travel. I left Brooks for Bangor by auto at 8.30 p. m. and arrived at Bangor about 10 p. m. Stopped at Bangor one night and arrived at Sherman Mills in time for a good warm dinner at my old friend's, J. M. Darling.

I was somewhat surprised to find such a fine farming country in Arson, took county. In some ways it reminds me of Hood River inasmuch as nearly everybody talks potatoes instead of apples. It is a great potato country; they plant quite an acreage, all the way from 10 to 20 acres. They have a good crop of late potatoes this year, averaging around 150 barrels per acre and a fine grade. I was somewhat surprised at the price they hold their farms here. As we traveled through the farming country, I asked my friend what they valued their farms at. He pointed out several farms that had been sold from $25,000 to $50,000, from 200 to 300 acres to the farm.

I am sending a clipping from a Boston paper marked, "Old Apples are now Selling at $18" at Brooks. What is the matter with Brooks, or should I have said Hood River?

As ever your humble servant,
J. R. Crosby.

Flaming Car Causes Sensation

Tom Brady, driving a motor truck laden with apples, created a sensation one day last week as he drifted with nonchalance down the steep grades of the city's business streets, the brake lining of one of his rear wheels blazing merrily. The driver, who was in vain at the driver. Finally a motorist in a small runabout sped ahead and driving alongside the flaming car apprised the surprised driver of his predicament.

A fire extinguisher from another truck was commissioned, and the flames were soon put out.

Long Distance Hiker Calls Here

James Abby Hill, who is nearly 70 years old and who attracted attention here by his flowing white hair, arrived here last week on a walking tour from his home at Berkeley, Calif., to Eastport, Me.

"My trip is being made solely for health," says Mr. Hill. "I am staking no spectacular stunts and seeking no advertising. I have set no time limit and am making no wagers."

Mr. Hill called on C. C. Crew, secretary of the Commercial club, whom he asked for a letter to the secretary of the Commercial club at Hood Hills, Md.

How Not to Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with awind-down open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilling and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

Man Sentenced for Forgery

Sheriff Johnson left Thursday for Salem with Geo. Edwards, sentenced to 22 months in the penitentiary on a charge of forging checks. Edwards, posing here as having a contract for work on the Highway, purchased goods from grocers and meat merchants.

The grand jury returned a no true bill in the case of Andrew Imrie, young man held for appropriating the automobile of William Rasch, Mt. Hood rancher, recently. The prosecuting witness did not appear at the hearing.

FRIENDS TALKING OF CHANGE IN HER

Seattle Woman After Years of Suffering Has Health Restored
by Tanlac

"My friends are all talking about the wonderful change Tanlac has made in me and I just can't praise the medicine enough," said Mrs. Sarah E. Wilson of 834 W. 51st St., Seattle, Wash.

"For a long time I suffered with indigestion in all its forms, and was in such terrible pain both night and day, that it was almost unbearable. My appetite left me, and even the little I did manage to eat bloated me up until I could hardly get my breath and was simply miserable. I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep, and on getting up mornings was so dizzy I could hardly get from falling. I also had rheumatism in my hand and feet and they ached nearly all the time. I became so weak and run down I couldn't even do my housework and was greatly worried over my condition."

"My friends persuaded me to try Tanlac, and I just think it's the greatest medicine ever made, for it has given me a wonderful appetite and relieved me of all my stomach ailments. The rheumatism has entirely disappeared, I never have an ache or pain and sleep like a child every night. I can do all my housework with ease now, just feel fine all the time and am certainly grateful to Tanlac for my good health."

Tanlac is sold in Hood River by the Krease Drug Co.—Adv.
