William Lester has made an offer of a goose gun that no valley hunter has yet accepted. The gun, now on display at Kelly Bros. hardware store, was made in 1820. It is six gauge and weighs 17 1/2 pounds. It is the oldest and heaviest gun in the Hood River valley, its owner claims.
Members of the Hood River Woman's club are requested to send in their reservations by Saturday to Mrs. C. H. Jenkins for the luncheon to be held at the Columbia Gorge hotel Wednesday, November 16, at 1 o'clock. This will be one of the happy events in club affairs of the year. Dr. H. M. Grant, executive secretary of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, will address the ladies on hygiene. Music and toasts will also be a feature of the afternoon. Members are allowed to bring lady guests.
Moonshine Suspect Flees
When officers Monday visited the ranch home of L. Hicks, on whose place a 40-gallon capacity copper still was found Saturday night, Hicks was gone. His wife reported that he had left on foot early in the morning. It was learned from other sources, however, that the man left Sunday for The Dalles.
Officers Saturday night were unable to find any mash or ingredients for the manufacture of moonshine liquor. Under the Oregon law they were unable to hold Hicks for the mere discovery of the still. He could have been arrested under the federal law.
The plant of a true Kentucky type according to those who know, was located on Whiskey creek, near the site of an early day distillery.
Mr. Pemberton's Mother Passes
Geo. P. Pemberton has received word of the death of his mother, Mrs. H. P. Pemberton, at her home in Pontiac, Ill. Mrs. Pemberton was 71 years old. She and Mr. Pemberton had been married 55 years. Funeral services for the local man's mother were held at the old home Sunday. Death occurred last Thursday.

PLANS FOR SPECIAL TRAIN ARE CANCELLED

Plans for a special train to carry local people to The Dalles tomorrow for the joint Armistice day celebration to be held under auspices of the Hood River and The Dalles posts of the Legion were cancelled for fear that an insufficient number would go by train. It is likely that special cars will be attached to the morning local, and as much space as possible will be provided on the westbound Oregon-Washington limited. Many of the local folk will go to The Dalles by automobile. A large delegation of high school students will accompany their football team, due to meet The Dalles high school in a game there. The Knights of Pythias band will accompany the Legion delegation and participate in the parade.
The Legion Post at the Monday night meeting adopted a resolution endorsing the community hospital plan. The following committee was appointed: F. H. Bell, Kent Shoemaker and Fordham B. Kimball.
The Post nominated officers for the ensuing year as follows: Commander, Ned Van Horn, Fordham Kimball, F. H. Bell, E. E. Fleiselman, Robert McNary, Walter Ford and Geo. R. Wilbur; vice commander, Stewart Kimball, Walter Ford, F. H. Bell, Harold Blackman, Everett Forsythe, Geo. R. Wilbur and Milo Frederick; adjutant, H. Farrell, E. E. Fleiselman, Van Gladden, Lowell Nickelsen, Harold Blackman and Wayne Poland; finance officer, Wayne Poland, F. H. Bell, Ray Lee, Walter Ford and Fordham Kimball; historian, Fordham Kimball; and chaplain, Dr. V. R. Abraham, Dr. H. D. W. Pines, Geo. R. Wilbur and Everett Forsythe.

BOYS' DISAPPEARANCE REMAINS A MYSTERY

The mystery of the disappearance of the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hicks, cannery workers here, remains unsolved. Officers now think that the boy, last seen at daybreak Monday morning, may have been spirited away by a tramp, said to have displayed degenerate actions, who has not been seen since Sunday night.
The mother of the child has collapsed in grief over the situation. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks have just moved to the city from Pine Grove.
Much Cream Comes Here
The following item, taken from the White Salmon Enterprise, is a compliment to the Hood River Creamery:
V. C. Zimmerman, who hauls cream to the Hood River Creamery from this section, brought back 83 large cans on his return trip Tuesday.
"The cream business is growing all the time and I expect to be hauling nearly twice that over to Hood River in the very near future," says Mr. Zimmerman.
Some of the cream comes from Glenwood, Trout Lake, Laurel and Husum. It is hauled to White Salmon by the Myers Stage Co., and then taken by Mr. Zimmerman across the river. He also covers with his truck the Snowden Mt. Brook district.

Budget Meeting Last Night

In view of the budget meeting last night, when an advisory committee met with the council, the Monday night meeting of the council was of short duration. The chief discussion concerned the new system of street lighting to be installed by the Pacific Power & Light Co.
