AT THE THEATRES

THE RIALTO

Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12, a Cosmopolitan production, "The Wild Goose," from the story by Gouverneur Morris. Through storm and cold and danger, even unto death, the wild goose clings to its mate. So did this man. But the wife and mother, lured by a new love, flew away. The story that follows will fill your heart as only life's greatest struggles and triumphs can do. Also Oregon News and International News, direct from Liberty Theatre, Portland.

Sunday, one day only, November 13, Elaine Hammerstein, one of screen-dom's newest and most fascinating stars in "The Miracle of New York," the story of an unusual compact which led to startling results. A thrilling tale enacted beneath the spires and minarets of "Bagdad on the Subway." Also a one reel comedy. Also Vera Kolstad in concert on The Mighty Voiced Wurlitzer, playing:

"Post and Peasant" Overture Suppe

"Oh Promise Me!" Solo from "Robin Hood" DeKoven

"Wyoming".....Waltz Lullaby 3:30 and 8:30 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 13

Monday and Tuesday, November 14 and 15, we present Zane Grey's greatest novel, "The U. P. Trail," in pictures. No need of description, you all know it's his greatest novel and it is sure some picture. Also the second of the Sunset-Burnd scenes taken in Glacier National Park. If you haven't already seen one of these gems of beauty, don't miss this one. There's also Topics of the Day, and all at us-ual prices.

Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17, a Sir Gilbert Parker novel in picture form, "A Wise Fool," enacted by an all star cast under the direction of Geo. McElford and the author himself. Taken from the wondrous story of Sir Gilbert Parker, "The Money Master." Also a Christie comedy, "Nobody's Wife."

Coming Friday and Saturday, Pauline Frederick in "Salvage."

Monday and Tuesday, November 21 and 22, "Mother of Mine."

N. B. Notice the Rialto's programs lately. We have ceased to buy "stars," we are buying real pictures. A "star" don't mean a thing unless they have a story and a picture. Our programs are all hand-picked and if you see an attraction billed here you will know it's good, no matter if there isn't a star in it, as hereafter all we buy is the picture. The name of some star doesn't put it over.

Vera Kolstad and The Mighty Voiced Wurlitzer daily. Concert every Sunday program.

THE LIBERTY

Open every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Matinee Saturday and Sunday, 2 p. m.

Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12, Elsie Ferguson in "Counterfeit." Also Paramount Magazine.
