Butter is Healthful

No statement was ever truer. Not only does this natural food contain body building elements in abundance, but the butter is a necessity to the system, because of the lubrication it furnishes the body. You may secure substitutes perhaps and pay less for them, but as a matter of health economy the wise housewife will ever see to it that her children are fed on the purest of butter.

Use Hood River Oregon and you'll know you've done your duty to your family, your town and your Valley.

WATER CASE DATA FILED WITH CLERK

Twenty copies of appellants' abstracts of record in the appeal of the litigation involving adjudication of claims on the Hood river water shed to the supreme court were filed last week with County Clerk Shoemaker. Appellants in the case are: The Pacific Power & Light Co., the Oregon Lumber Co., the East Fork Irrigation District and the Mt. Hood Water Co.

The case, which has been before the supreme court once before, having been remanded for fuller testimony, has been in progress since 1914. It is not anticipated by attorneys that a decision will be reached by the supreme court this year.

This abstract is merely a reprinting of some of the records in the case, such as the original statements and proofs of claims, the statements of contest, the findings of fact and order of determination of the State Water Board and certain of the proceedings had in the circuit court, both prior and subsequent to the entry of the circuit court's decree. The 20 copies of the abstract are filed with the county clerk, pursuant to the rules of the supreme court, and are for the use and benefit of any parties to the proceeding, which includes all persons who filed claims with the Water Board. These copies will be given such applicants by the county clerk, upon their request.

Fordson Drop is Stimulating

That a drop of 35 per cent in the price of the Fordson tractor is stupendous is well high conceded by everyone who has heard of the latest reduction of Ford products prices. The Fordson tractor, according to an announcement by the Dickson Motor Co., sells now for $42.85 f. o. b. Hood River. Mr. Mansfield, sales manager for the concern, states that because of this low price the number of tractor sales this season will be greatly increased and the company will experience great difficulty in making deliveries unless ranchers place their orders immediately.

Baker Plans Egg Route

Geo. W. Baker, Barrett orchardist, plans on establishing an egg route for furnishing city patrons with fresh eggs such as the milk man distributes his dairy products. Mr. Baker, who has pens of White Leghorns aggregating 300, will deliver his eggs in numbers as his customers desire each Friday, declaring that he will guarantee their freshness.

The Barrett rancher has developed a strain of prolific layers. His hens during the months of February and January of last year averaged 24 eggs each.

Upper Valley Apple House Burns

Fire thought to have originated in the explosion of a wood stove, used in preventing frost damage, totally destroyed the Upper Valley apple house of L. H. Parker Saturday night. Sixty boxes of packed apples and about 250 boxes of packed grade fruit were burned. E. R. Purpus, in charge of the place for Mr. Parker, who is spending the winter at Pasadena, Cal., says the front of the stove appears to have been blown open by some violent explosion. Mr. Purpus does not know whether any insurance was carried on the property. The damage is estimated at $2,000.

CLUB THANKED FOR FAIR RESOLUTION

C. C. Crew, secretary of the Commercial club, last week received from Julius Meier, chairman of the Portland 1925 Exposition committee, the following expression of endorsement that had been adopted by the local body:

"Please convey to your officers and members the appreciation of the 1925 Exposition organization for the splendid resolution passed by your club and presented in person by Truman Butler, one of your members. When the resolution was read at the conference it received the merit it deserved."

Mr. Meier's letter informed the club of his contemplated trip to Europe and plans of leaving in absence financing of the fair until after the May primaries. He wrote:

"Steps were taken at this conference to await the adoption of any definite financial program until after the May primaries. In the meantime, the public will be fully advised as to the full merits of the Exposition and what it will mean to the state of Oregon and the northwest. We feel assured that when the people will be fully advised there will be no doubt about financial support. The conference reaffirmed its purpose to carry on the work and bend every effort to national participation."

Announcement has already been made of my contemplated trip to Europe and the Orient. Here again a spirit of cooperation has been displayed that means success. In extending the invitation of the United States for European powers to participate with Oregon I will have the support of the Associated Industries, the Tourist Bureau, and the newspapers of the state. Arrangements have been made for a special representative to accompany me and the public will be fully advised in the progress made. On my return in June I expect to resume my activities and take up the work again. The managing committee in the meantime will be entrusted with the administration policy and there will be no lessening of the interest toward the goal we seek to gain."

White Salmon Has Bad Fire

Fire starting at 4:15 Thursday morning in Breedlove's shoe store, completely destroyed five frame store buildings on Main street at White Salmon. The fire originated between the ceiling of the store and the floor of a physician's office on the upper floor. Bursting of a water main from the reservoir to fire hydrants reduced the water pressure to the extent of rendering the system practically useless. Buildings which were burned were two-story structures, one owned by William Powers, of Salem. The second was owned and occupied by J. W. Breedlove, as a shoe shop. The two others were owned by K. Laterbach. No insurance was carried on any of the buildings or contents. Dr. W. H. Warner had rooms over the shoe store and lost the entire contents of his office and $150, which was in his trousers pocket. Dr. Warner was forced to flee only partially dressed. In descending a stairway he fell and was seriously injured. The losses are Powers, $1,000; Breedlove, $3,000 on building and stock; Laterbach, $4,000 on building.
