WALTERS ASKS FOR $13,000 FOR LAKE

Stanley C. Walters, down from his Middle Valley home Tuesday, reported that the roads of the higher altitudes were gradually growing bare. The forest area, however, Mr. Walters said, is covered with a thick coating of ice, as a result of the November sleet storm, and he anticipates that work on the Lost Lake Highway will be delayed until July. Mr. Walters, who next week will attend a meeting of rangers of the state in Portland, says he expects to learn then definitely how much work will be conducted on the new lake highway, the grade of which was completed last fall. He has applied for $13,000, to be utilized in surfacing two miles of the new road and constructing a half mile of new grade around the lake shore.
