Million Dollar Companies Sell Their Fruits At Auction

66% of the Fruits sold through the New York Auctions are sold for the account of large Cooperative organizations and million dollar concerns like the United Fruit Co.

Big organizations can afford to hire big men to select the best selling methods. And big men, like big companies, do not make many mistakes. They know what they're doing before they make a move.

When concerns like these sell at Auction, isn't it a pretty safe guide for you to follow?

If you are dissatisfied with the prices you are receiving for your fruits—if you are displeased with the service you are getting, or with the delay in getting your money, then you will be interested in receiving full particulars about our 20th-century way of handling sales. Better let us send you full particulars anyway. What's your address?

Mr. McGrew Dies in South
Word has been received here of the death in Woodland, Calif. of Isaac McGrew. Mr. McGrew owned a place in the California city and his wife has a Hood River home. It was their custom to spend the cold seasons in the south, coming here for the summer months. They were preparing to come north when Mr. McGrew was fatally stricken.
