DR. DON NICKELSEN WRITES OF RUSSIA

An American in Russia possessing 30 cents is made to feel like a millionaire, according to Dr. Donald Nickelsen, son of Senator and Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen, who is now in the land of bolsheviks engaged with the American Red Cross Association. Writing from Moscow of his experience, Dr. Nickelsen says:

"Just returned from the market where I bought a good pair of shoes on my trip south. It cost 2,500,000 rubles, or about $1.60. Also got a pair of binoculars, for which I paid 3,000,000."

"Last night we went to a vaudeville show. It was very good, although everything was in Russian and seemed like a movie to us. Thence we went to a cabaret, where they gave an excellent singing and dancing program. Our dinner bill was 32,000,000 rubles for the six of us. It seems like a great deal, especially when one considers that it would have represented $16,000,000 before the crash. We got a driver (carriage) to take us home, as the cab vice is no good, and that cost us 10,000,000 rubles."

"Our visit to Riga was interesting, as it is just outside Soviet Russia. It is the capital of Latvia. They are having very hard times there. A man may make 2,000 to 4,000 rubles per month, but a good meal costs 200, a shirt, 600 and a collar, 55. Many of the pretty buildings show the result of the German invasion and the bolshevik occupation. Residents told us that they were relieved of everything worth having and they were nearly starved to death. None of the elevators will run, as all motors were removed."

"Sunday we went to the Ballet, which is the talk of Europe. The music and dancing were certainly wonderful. The theatre is very beautiful. "Everywhere one looks there are dozens of soldiers. I understand the Reds have four to five million men. Trotsky and Lenin live in the Kremlin, which is surrounded by a high wall. The property comprises about 50 acres in the heart of the city. At the Ballet is a large central box that was formerly reserved for the Czar, but now it is the special box of Trotsky."

"After our visit to the theatre we went to Maxine's, a noted cabaret. We had an evening dinner and enjoyed a fine program of music and dancing."

"I have not been definitely assigned but will probably go to Orenburg or Karkoff. The former place is about 900 miles east in the Ural mountains, not a pleasant place of residence at the present time. Karkoff, capital of Ukraine, is down south near the Black Sea."

"We are supplied with automobiles and each American doctor is given the following personnel: A pharmacist, a stenographer, a native doctor and two finkies, one of whom can handle the car."

LUMBER MARKET DECLARED ACTIVE

(By Nelson Emery)

Few people not actively engaged in the lumber business realize the extent to which business has picked up with the saw mills of the state. California is setting a fast pace in building and is a heavy buyer of Oregon lumber. The railroads have a heavy business. The railroads have a long adopted extensive building and replacement programs and have placed large orders with Oregon mills. The result is that heavy mill run operating is loaded with orders and it is practically impossible to place an order for a mixed car for immediate delivery with any of the Portland mills. Although we keep the wires hot in an effort to get our cars loaded promptly, we are nevertheless continually harassed by delayed shipments. Lumber is today distinctly hard to get. This condition will probably become more aggravated as the season advances and it is almost a certainty that it will lead to early increases in mill prices. Builders would do well to anticipate their needs as much as possible as it is impossible with mill conditions as they are and with the present amount of material going into the Hood River valley, to keep stocks up on all items. We keep our best men to give service to Hood River builders but under present conditions this is not always easy.

Local Priests Attend Veteran's Funeral

Rev. Father Maximilian Klein, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, and Rev. Father Thomas Ziegen, in charge of mid-Columbia missions, were present Wednesday of last week at the funeral of Rev. James Molloy, Catholic priest, who died in Eugene Saturday of a malady indirectly resulting from wounds and gas suffered while serving as a chaplain in an Irish regiment during the world war. The services were held at St. Peter's church Saturday. Right Rev. Joseph P. McGrath, bishop of the diocese of Baker, officiated at a pontifical high mass. Rev. Thomas Cantwell, pastor of St. Patrick's church at Eugene, presided over the priest, who had been a life-long friend and former classmate. A firing squad made up of members of The Dalles Post of the American Legion gave a military salute over the grave.

Apple Box Love Letter Answered

The Apple Growers Association has just received from Miss Beatrice Foster, who says she is a young woman of Liverpool, Eng., seeking H. Phillips, an apple packer engaged in the harvest last fall. Mr. Phillips, apparently, placed more than 100 boxes of Newtowns he packed last year. The letter received follows: "Mr. Phillips: In answer to your request, contained in a case of Oregon apples, you are hereby notified, single, married, young, old, or just out for a bark!" The Association is holding the letter, awaiting the coming of Mr. Phillips, whose whereabouts is not now known.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

I Will Never Be Without Tanlac Again, Declares Little S. F. Woman--Tells Of Remarkable Recovery

"I will never be without Tanlac, even if it takes my last dollar to buy it," said Mrs. Georgiana Halfpenny, 262 Myrtle St., San Francisco, Calif. "Five years ago I struck my side a blow that kept me in the hospital for weeks and put me in a terribly weak, nervous and run-down condition. I had no appetite, my digestion was so poor I would have terrible cramping pains in my stomach, and I would bloat up so that my heart palpitated like it would jump out of my body. I was dreadfully constipated, had spitting headaches, and my back seemed like it would break in two."

"But Tanlac has put an end to all my troubles. I've gained sixteen pounds too, and it's the first time in years I've weighed over a hundred. I can never praise Tanlac enough for the splendid health it has given me." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. No. 1186
