Sunday is Mother's Day. It will be celebrated throughout all the nation. It should be a day of greater than customary reverence, with men and women become, in their thoughts, as little children again, paying tribute to mothers still alive and glorifying the segred moreover of these passed on from sacred memory of those passed on from

It was fought by the mothers of men.' Get that poem and read it through, and Sunday, if Mother be far away, remember her with a message and a gift. You are still her little girl or her little boy. You can never repay for the sacrifices she made, but little acts of thoughtfulness will be chernobler feeling and sweeten the day for yourself and others.

FITHIAN IS PROGRESSIVE

The following recently appeared in the Portland Telegram. It was written by Henry M. Hanzen, one of the state's keenest poiltical observers. As the article shows, O. H. Fithian, who seeks to represent the state of Oregon on the national Republican committee, is a progressive Republican and a citizen of character. Mr. Hanzen says:

Progressiveism versus reactionism,

Williams is a reactionary, and is seeking reelection on a political platform less Auxiliary were welcomed, and an enjoyable social afternoon followed the promising merely party service. promising merely party service.

Fithian promises to "loyally support the principles of the Republican party," and also to conscientiously labor to advance Oregon's industrial, agricultural and financial interests.

Herbert Cuthbert, executive secretary of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association, knows the value of the home town newspaper in interesting newly arrived tourists. He has just written to all northwestern commercial organizations, asking that they distribute newspapers to all newcomers to respective communities. Says Mr.

"If a visitor is interested in lands and other real estate for sale, he can get it from the newspaper. If he he can get it from the newspaper. If he wants to know reliable real estate agents, he can get it from the news-paper. If he wants to know the character of your stores and the lines they carry, he can get it from the news-paper. If he wants to learn something about the community spirit, education-al facilities or the number of churches and friendly societies, he can get this information from the newspaper.

And still you'll find some people of a community who feel no need of the home town paper.

Auxiliary Meeting Successful

The American Legion Auxiliary held an interesting meeting Saturday af-ternoon. The ways and means committernoon. The ways and means committee reported a naddition of $156.50 to the memorial building fund, from the proceeds of the recent wandeduits. And public service versus professional politics are the principal issues in the contest between O. H. Fithian and Raiph E. Williams for the position of Republican national committeeman.

Fithian is a progressive Republican and is seeking the office on a constructive paltform promising party loyalty, and faithful public srevice to the state.
