

THIS YEAR'S MASCOT SELF SUPPORTING

"The Mascot," annual publication of the Hood River high school, edited by the junior class, is being distributed. The annual, a 56-page publication this year, is elaborate with stories of school yillustrated. It is dedicated to the year's graduating class. "The staff of the school publication consists of the following: Frances faculty advisor; Edward Ellis, busi-ness manager; Viola Colvin, associate editor; Edwin Bryan, assistant editor; Dorothy Frey, literary; Bunny Ep-jing, jokes; Paul Friday, advertising manager; Clifford Green, athletics; Jessie Sletton, society; Helen Good-pasture, senior; Margaret Blagg, junior; Kathleen Blakely, freshman, and Margaret Pierson, sophomore. In former years the publication has left a heavy deficit. It is is announced that this years' Mascot will be self-supporting.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Senior class day exercises were held in the auditorium last Thursday after-noon at 2.30 o'clock. Several visitors were present. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music by different class members, speeches, class history, class will, class prophecy, etc. After the program a baseball game be-tween girl teams was played on Gibson field.

Last Friday night at the Mt. Hood Hotel and Oriental Cafe the juniors gave their annual farewell to the sengave their annual farewell to the sen-iors. A banquet was served in the old dining room of the hotel, where a speaking program was given. Prin, Conkle was toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by various members of the juinor and senior classes, faculty and school board. After the program there was dancing and entertainment in the cafe for the remainder of the evening.

The annual Mascot was put on sale last Thursday and 325 of the 400 copies have already been taken. This is an even 100 more than was cold last year or the year before, doubtless due to the reduced price. The Mascot is a credit to the staff and the school, who are to be commended for making it pay for itself. itself.

While the seniors were at Eagle creek on their class picnic Monday, the ex-ams were on at the high school, and regular classes were held in the grades. Decoration Day programs were held in all grade rooms Monday afternoon. School work will be practically finished Wednesday, although the pupils return for report cards Friday at 1 o'clock. The senior class and the high school faculty attended church in a body Sun-day morning at the Riveride Congrega-tional church. The sermon was deliv-ered by Rev. W. H. Boddy, the theme being "Temples Which Were Never Built". being "Temples Which Were Never Built." It was a timely and inspiring address which both old and young would do well to heed.

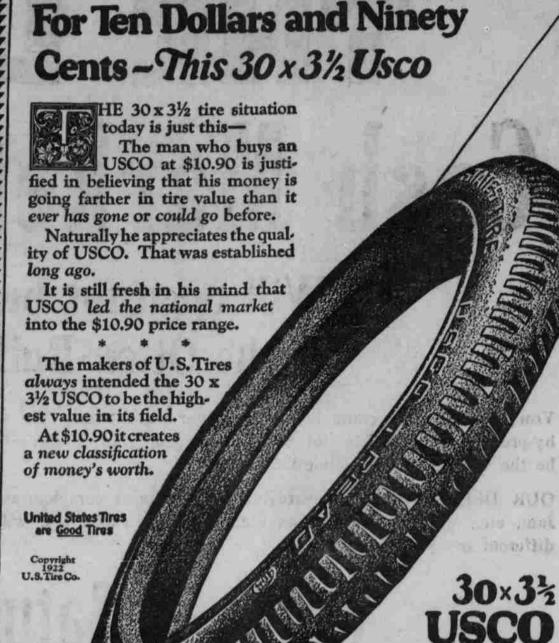

Where

you can

U.S.Tires:

men who are outsiders.

buy

United States Tires United States (1) Rubber Company

No War-Tax

charged

HOW long since you've had delicious raisin bread-since you've tasted that incomparable flavor? Serve a loaf tonight. No need to bake it.

Raisin Bread Tonight

Let's Have

Just telephone your grocer or a bakery. Say you want "full-fruited bread-generously filled with luscious, seeded, Sun-Maid Raisins."

The flavor of these raisins permeates the loaf. A cake-like daintiness makes every slice a treat.

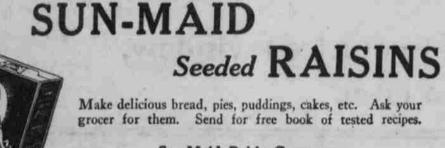

Serve it plain at dinner or as a tasty, fruited breakfast toast.

Make delicious bread pudding with left-over slices. Use it all. You need not waste a crumb.

Raisin bread is luscious, energizing, iron-food. So it's both good and good for you.

Serve it at least twice a week. Start this good habit in your home today.

But don't take any but a real, full-fruited, genuine raisin bread. Your dealer will supply it if you insist.

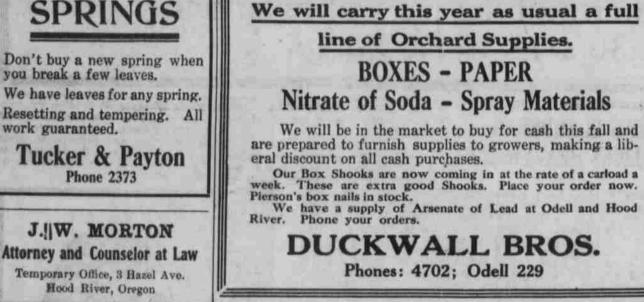

Sun-Maid Raisin Growers Membership 13.000

Dept. N-234-2, Freano, Calif.

ackage

Had Your Iron Today!

Our half dollars will build a greater Oregon diverted 50 cents a day of penditure to the purchase of mediate result would be:

Oregon industries.

output of Oregon factories.

you make your purchases.

chool wa s not in session Tuesday. Decoration Day. Commencement exercises will be held Thursday night. Eighth grade gradua-tion program in the high school Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Supt. L. B. Gibson will be the speaker.

Dust Cloud Covers Mid-Columbia

From noon Saturday until Sunday night many tons, of eastern Oregon real estate were deposited over this section of the mid Columbia. A strong section of the mid Columbia. A strong wind swept over the eastern Oregon plains, "bringing with it clouds of thick dust. Many local folk Saturday thought a forest fire was prevailing. The cloud was so dense in the canyon of the Co-lumbia that the Washington bank was blotted out, and the sun's rays were dimmed as though by a pall of smoke. The fine dust filled the nostrils, left a deposit on scalps, face and hands. The polished surface of furniture was left covered with a film.

overed with a film. The dust storm died down as th wind abated Saturday night, but again Sunday, when the east wind again prevailed, it was repeated. A dust storm prevailed last November during a part of the heavy sleet storm, and an inch layer of the heavy snow was chocolate

Berry Shipments Grow

Mid-Columbia strawberries, although en days later than in normal seasons ue now beginning to move in truck quantities to Portland and small express shipments are being made. Ber-ries are not yet ripe in the Hood River Valley proper, and the harvest now reaching the market at top prices is coming from Columbia river lowlands. Most of the fruit is taken from fields urday night to participate in a large ceremonial there. A number of Hood River members of the order boarded a special train, carrying a large delega-tion of Portland Dokkies to the Wasco

FISS, FURS AND FEATHERS.

DICKSON MOTOR CO., Hood River Careful attention paid to repairing au-omobiles. Howell Bros., Tel. 2551. a4tf The Fletcher TRADE WITH MEN YOU KNOW EXTERNAL BRAKE And Your Trade Is Appreciated EVERY dollar you pay for insurance to this agency is subject to taxes that help to build up this community. It costs no more to patronize men you know FOR FORDS and who trade with you in your varied lines than to favor And in addition the men you Play Safe, Install a Fletcher. know are working to make the town safe from fire. They are Price $9.00 Installed. helping you get lower rates for your fire insurance. That is Manufactured and Sold by the claim of this agency of the JOE FLETCHER Hartford Fire Insurance Co. 1121 TWELFTH STREET HOOD RIVER, OREGON Now is the time to buy a

Two hundred and thirty-five Branch

