ODELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skelton, of Skamania, Wash., and Mrs. Geo. Smith, of Portland, spent the Fourth of July here with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Teague and G. F. Purdy.

Mrs. C. A. Seeger left last week for Seattle where she is to give a concert in the First Presbyterian church. This is the first of a series of concerts to be given by Mrs. Seeger.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Dutro and daughter, Delma, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Hull, motored to Portland Tuesday.

E. G. Owens is delivering strawberries from his berry field on Bald Butte.

Arthur J. Hansen and Miss Grace Winchell were married Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, Rev. W. S. Gleason officiating.

Both the bride and groom are well known in Odell and they have many friends who are pleased to offer sincere good wishes and congratulations.

Saturday night the new street lights installed by the Pacific Power & Light Co. were on for the first time and the improvement was easily noticeable even to the casual observer.

Through the cooperation of property owners these lights will be a permanent feature of our village. They are turned in the evening and off in the morning, giving all night service.

F. A. Dupes is caretaker for three lights and S. M. Dick the fourth.

The state fire marshal on an official trip through the valley stopped at Odell Monday afternoon. He suggested a method for control of fire which appears the most feasible and at the same time the least expensive proposed to date and we hope some definite plan for protection may result.

T. A. Boles and family and boarders have been occupying the new hotel since Monday. This hotel is one of which we are proud one which will mean much to all who are temporarily stopping in Odell and looking for a pleasant, comfortable eating and resting place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Walters' new home and the new home for Mrs. Neisler both are advancing nicely toward completion.

The picnic which was promised those of the primary, intermediate and junior departments of the Sunday school who were not absent during March and April will be given Friday, July 21. Those who attend this picnic are requested to meet at the church at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

They will be taken to the picnic ground near Hood River above Tuckers Bridge for games and outdoor supper.

Next Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium a home entertainment will be given by the Epworth League. The entire program will be of a humorous nature and Manager Wm. Gilkerson promises may surprise.

Sunday school 10 a. m. Morning service 11 a. m. Epworth League 7:15 p. m. Orey Cameron, leader. Evening service 8 p. m. The large chorus choir has been providing excellent music and will lead the singing at both morning and evening service.

Miss Hazel Wieden, student at the University of Washington, is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wieden.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Bowerman and baby boy, of California, arrived here Monday for a summer vacation visit at the home of Mr. Bowerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman.

Limie Sherbon Weinheimer passed away quietly in her sleep at her home Sunday, July 9, after having suffered from heart trouble for many years. She was born at North Elk Grove, Wis. When seven years of age, she with her parents moved to Darlington, Wis. After residing there two years they went to Jo Daviess county, Ill., where they remained five years. At the age of 14 years the family moved to the new prairie country of Iowa near Merrill. At this time she began teaching a class of girls in the Sunday school. She joined the Methodist church and has been an active and faithful member throughout her life.

For 25 years she lived in or near the town of Merrill. It was here she met Louis C. Weinheimer to whom she was married September 5, 1893. To this union was born one child, a son, Algine L. She is survived by her husband, her mother, her son and his wife, three sisters, Mrs. Dollie Mercer, of Medford; Mrs. Elsie Miller, of Westington Springs, S. Dak.; Mrs. Nellie Weinheimer, of Odell, and two brothers, Willis L. and Wilbur H. Sherbon, also of this community. Tuesday afternoon surrounded by the flowers she loved she was the center around whom relatives and friends gathered to show their appreciation and to offer tribute to a character and life made more beautiful by Christian faith. Relative or friend we shall miss her, yet rejoice that we have known her.

PINE GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Goeric and daughter, Elizabeth, of Seattle, were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Sam Freeman, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Turney, who have been in Bend for several weeks, returned last Friday. While away they visited Crater Lake and other Oregon points.

Alice Andrews, who has been in Los Angeles for the past six months, returned home Monday.

Martin Dragseth and E. E. Lage have returned from Cannon Beach. Their wives remained for some time longer. Mr. Lage's father, Hans Lage, accompanied him. It was his first visit to Astoria since he landed in Oregon 47 years ago.

Mrs. J. C. Porter, who has been with her mother since spring, is very ill. Mr. Porter is on his way home from California.

Clare Waugh is recovering from an operation for removal of tonsils last week.

Mrs. William Emrich and two children of Portland, are guests of Mrs. Ed Hawkins.

Little Hazel Jarvis suffered from a severe cut on her arm from broken glass last week. A number of stitches were necessary.

Bishop Case Compromised

The case of A. W. Bishop, who was suing the Apple Growers Association for $10,000, claimed as damages for alleged personal injuries, which was scheduled for trial this week, has been compromised out of court.

Mr. Bishop, it is stated, was given $150 by the cooperative fruit sales agency.

Next Monday the case of The State Highway Department versus J. W. Morton, wherein the state is seeking the condemnation of an approximate 2-acre gorge-side tract at Ruthton hill, will be heard by Circuit Judge Fred W. Wilson.

Negro Motorists Visit City

Motor corteges of all kinds have toured through here since the Columbia River Highway was opened, but never until Tuesday have local folk observed a party of real southern dignitaries, chugging along "far from de old folks at home." A Ford runabout, its sides and rear carrying various articles of camp equipment and bearing a Tennessee license, sped merrily through town. The car was occupied by two negro couples, apparently out on a season's motor outing.

ADDING 59 NEW STORES MAKING 371 STORES IN THIS NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION THE FIGURES INDICATE THE NUMBER OF STORES IN EACH STATE. AN ACORN does not grow into a great, strong, healthy oak tree in a day. The J. C. Penney Company did not become an institution of National importance overnight. Like the growth of the tree, it developed by the process of time, each year becoming stronger with new branches reaching out in every direction.

Brush Fire on Indian Creek A bad brush fire in Indian creek canyon south of the city alarmed Heights residents Tuesday. The Volunteer Fire Department was summoned but were unable to reach the burning brush in the precipitous gorge with their apparatus. The fire was moving east and south, and it is anticipated that it will burn for several days. Unless it crosses to the Elliot woods on the country place of Dr. T. L. Eliot, where a tract of magnificent virgin trees is being preserved, no damage is anticipated.
