PARKDALE

A great community rally is scheduled for Saturday. Everyone is urged to bring a basket and join in the community lunch at noon in the grade school. Coffee, etc., will be furnished free. At 1.30 a free movie show will be given in the McIsaac hall. It is a first class comedy. A program of music and addresses will follow. Col. E. E. Faville, of Portland, will give the principal address. He is one of the greatest authorities on rural problems in the Northwest. To miss his address Saturday is to miss one of the finest things ever given in the Upper Valley. Dr. W. L. Van Noy will also give a brief address. Truman Butler, of Hood River, and several local speakers will contribute to the program. It will be a big day in Upper Valley.

The Parkdale water system just installed is functioning fine. Local residents are highly pleased with the manner in which the enterprise was handled. We are thinking now about a lighting system and fire fighting apparatus.

The high school student body wishes to express its appreciation to all who contributed to the success of its "Hallow'en Rumpus."

Many local orchardists are somewhat uneasy about the car shortage. Should the weather man repeat last year's dose, there is the possibility of considerable loss. It seems as if the railway is a never present help in time of need.

The W. L. Mason family has moved into the Allen house for the winter.

Russell Dowd and Robert Beal carried off premier honors at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition last week in the tri-state potato contest. Can Upper Valley produce potatoes? Blue ribbons don't lie.

The community church has a full schedule for Sunday. The church school and Forum meets at 10.15. At 11.00 Dr. W. L. Van Noy will conduct the service of worship. He has a message of great importance. The teachers and officers will meet for conference in the church at 2.30. The C. E. Society will have their devotional meeting at 7.15. Preaching service at 8 o'clock.
