Morioka, Japanese restaurant man, who with Mrs. Morioka was leaving for a visit in the home land. Scores of messages, to be delivered by word of mouth to relatives, were given the departing couple. The formal ceremony of the farewell greetings attracted the attention of many city folk. A number of white families were present to bid goodbye to the Japanese couple.

WEDDINGS
Button-Baker
 At a pretty ceremony yesterday afternoon, the wedding of Miss Katherine Mildred Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, and Allyn Capron Button, son of Mr. F. H. Button, was solemnized at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, recently elected bishop of the eastern Oregon diocese of the church officiated. Miss Catherine Carter was maid of honor and Robert Hinns was best man. Banks Mortimer and Corbett Alexander were ushers, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. A. S. Kolstad.
 The bride wore a handsome going away gown of midnight blue tulle. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink brides' roses.
 Mrs. Button was formerly a student at the University of Oregon and is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Button, formerly a student at the University of California, is a member of Alpha Tau Omega. Both are members of pioneer Hood River families. They are popular young people and prominent in social activities. They received many handsome and valuable presents.
 Mr. and Mrs. Button left following a reception at the home of the latter's parents on a honeymoon at coast points. They will be at home after January 1, at a bungalow now being completed on Oak street. Mr. Button is a great war veteran, having been overseas with the 65th Regiment, Coast Artillery Corps.
 The reception was attended only by immediate members of the wedding party. Mrs. Geo. H. L. Sharp and Mrs. Trafford E. Smith, poured and served ices and cakes.

Club to Aid Oregon Trail
 Following an address by Walter E. Meacham, president of the Old Oregon Trail Association, at a luncheon yesterday the Hood River Commercial Club announced a campaign for local membership. Mr. Meacham, who said that congress has been asked to give the historic transcontinental route official recognition, stated that the Oregon legislature will be asked to adopt similar legislation at the next session. The old trail route includes the Columbia River Highway and will be coupled up with it and the Mount Hood Loop

Highway, preserving the identity of both the latter roads, he said.
 Idaho, Mr. Meacham said, has already given the old trail official legislative recognition.
 The reception was attended only by immediate members of the wedding party. Mrs. Geo. H. L. Sharp and Mrs. Trafford E. Smith, poured and served ices and cakes.
 Mrs. C. F. Anabel Passes
 Mrs. C. F. Anabel, aged 28, of Taft, Calif., here visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph S. George, died yesterday. Arrangements for funeral services, which will be held here, await advices from relatives in California.
