The mystery of Russian Women

Men who have traveled far say there is about the women of Russia a strange, baffling, indefinable charm. Nara Alexieff, the heroine of Richard Washburn Child's novel, possesses this mysterious characteristic to a remarkable degree, and the conflict of her spirit with the stark brutality of revolution and pitiless intrigue makes an amazing romance.

ODELL

The second meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, of Odell, took place Tuesday evening of last week and it is to be regretted that not many patrons were out to hear the able talks. Mrs. MacMillan, from Oak Grove, told of the convention at Eugene and what an inspiration it was to her. Mrs. Haxby, our county librarian, spoke on good books for children and their importance. She expressed regret that Odell did not use more freely the privilege afforded by the branch library now housed in the high school building. The next meeting will be the second Tuesday in December. Prof. Davis will have charge of the program which is to be by men only. Everybody come and make it interesting.

Dr. Dutro went to Portland Monday for a short business and professional visit. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davenport expect to leave soon for a visit in Illinois. They hope to arrive there in time for a big game in which a team from their college plays on Thanksgiving Day.

After having spent the past several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. T. Folts, at Eugene, Mrs. L. D. Boyd expects to return home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Chapman motored to Goldendale, Wash., Saturday for a few days' visit with relatives. They planned to return home Tuesday.

Delbert Shepperd, who has spent the apple packing season here, left Monday for his home at Wapato, Wash. While here he stopped at the home of his aunt, Mrs. E. O. Dutro.

C. J. Chevrin and his cousin, Miss Imit Chapman, expect to go to Portland Saturday for a week end visit with friends. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson went to Portland for last week end. She met there her daughter, Miss Martha, of Willamette University, Salem, and they spent the week end together. Mrs. Ferguson returned home Monday night.

No school next week. County institutes Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, then Thanksgiving Day and holiday Friday.

After a long illness Wm. Johnson passed away Thursday in a Portland hospital. Funeral services were held from Anderson's chapel in Hood River Sunday afternoon. Interment was in Pine Grove cemetery. Mr. Johnson is survived by a brother, John Johnson, of White Salmon, Wash.; a sister, Mrs. A. C. Calkins, of California; two brothers, H. C. and Orin, of Odell, and a son, Dean, whose home is in Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. A. C. Calkins and son, Billie, of San Francisco, Calif., arrived in Hood River Sunday for the funeral of Mrs. Calkins' brother. They will stop for a visit with relatives before returning home.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. next Sunday. At 11 o'clock Thanksgiving sermon by Rev. W. S. Gleiser, Epworth League at 7:15 p. m. Subject, "Thanksgiving." Eight o'clock evening services. Special music at both morning and evening services.

Last Sunday evening Rev. Chas. E. Johnson, of Willamette University, delivered an address in the interest of educational work, this having been Willamette Day. Rev. Johnson was accompanied by Rev. Lester Poor, of Portland. The Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage. Mrs. W. S. Gleiser, hostess. This was a week previous to the date for the regular meeting because of the fact that next week will be Thanksgiving.

Last week members of the choir met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Algine Weinheimer for practice. This week on Thursday evening they will meet with Miss May Fletcher at the home of Miss Fletcher and her brother, Leonard Fletcher.

The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held Friday, December 8, in the Grange hall. Practical and fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be for sale. Dinner will be served.

PINE GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells left today for California where they will spend the winter. They will motor south. J. E. Andrews spent the week end in Portland with his daughter, Alice Andrews.

Miss Mary Rolfe visited the school last week. The children are endeavoring to raise $120 for the Near East Relief. A basket social has been arranged at the Grange hall for this fund. The children will furnish a program. Dr. C. R. Johnson, of The Dalles, and Dr. Pore, of Portland, spoke at Pine Grove church Sunday morning in interest of Willamette University.

Lester Jeffries, of Tacoma, visited his parents Monday.

Roger Blackman spent the week end at Corvallis for the U. of O.-O. A. C. game.

Rev. Kaye was in Portland the early part of the week. The Epworth League will give a social at the church Tuesday evening, November 28.

Quarterly conference will meet at the church next Monday evening. Sunday morning a harvest Thanksgiving service will be held instead of Thanksgiving day.

Miss Jessie Turney has returned from Marshfield, and is with her sister, Mrs. F. B. Laraway.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold an all day meeting with Mrs. F. H. Blackman Friday.

Mrs. Fred Mack spent the week end with her daughter, Miss Helen Brost, at O. A. C.

A. J. Miller returned from California Tuesday. He had been south for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan went to Portland last Friday. Mrs. Bryan expects to leave for South Dakota this week to visit her parents until after the holidays.

Mrs. James Clark, who has one of the valley's handsomest flocks of young, fat turkeys, will furnish the Columbia Gorge Hotel with birds for Thanksgiving. A Tuesday Walkover Club was organized last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. W. Radford with a membership of 19 ladies. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jarvis spent the first part of the week in Portland. Don't forget the dance and basket social at the Grange tonight. H. L. Harbrunck, optometrist.

CENTRAL VALE

Lecil Allen, of Willow Flat, has been suffering from the effects of an extracted tooth. He was advised to see a specialist in Portland, but is improving and we hope to see him fully recovered.

Mr. Shultz, Mrs. Fawbush's father, left for his home in Wichita, Kas., yesterday. He has been spending the summer with his daughter, and returns to be with his son, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sylvester and children drove up from Goble Friday to visit with Mrs. Sylvester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moss. They returned Tuesday. While here Mr. Sylvester installed a radio, and each evening the family enjoyed concerts in Los Angeles, El Monte, Seattle, Salt Lake City, Great Falls, Hood River and Yakima. The latter place was heard very plainly. The operator between numbers said, "Hello, George, now is your mustache?" Presumably he meant the George in our community.

Mrs. H. H. Fawbush and little son, Walter, have been quite sick with throat trouble but are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Montana, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Allen. Mrs. Lewis is a niece of Mr. Allen.

Little Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lecil Allen, underwent an operation for removal of tonsils and adenoids last Saturday. He is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Downing, on Willow Flat, gave a surprise party for her little daughter, Frances, last Saturday. The occasion was to celebrate her ninth birthday. About a dozen guests were present and a jolly time was had.

Mrs. Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends in Hood River. The Thanksgiving program will be held at the school house Friday at 2 p. m. The three days of next week, preceding Thanksgiving Day, the teachers will be in attendance at the institute in Hood River.

MOUNT HOOD

November 13.

The regular evening meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the Mount Hood hall Friday evening, Nov. 24. Please note the change in the place, as these meetings have been held at the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ringer attended the stock show in Portland and returned home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rush and son, Robert, were Hood River visitors Friday.

L. B. Gibson visited the Mount Hood school Thursday.

Marius Petreus and Maudie Rogers were married Thursday, November 9. After a brief honeymoon spent in Portland, they returned here to make their home.

Mrs. Ross Higgins has been on the sick list, suffering from neuralgia. Mrs. C. W. Clark has returned home from the hospital and is recovering rapidly from her recent operation.

Honor Rogers entertained at a party Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Marius Petreus.

W. T. Wyatt was a Hood River visitor Monday.

November 20.

The usual church services were held Sunday morning. The regular evening services will be held next Sunday. Christian Endeavor meets at 7 o'clock with W. T. Wyatt as leader and preaching at 8 o'clock by the pastor, R. S. Hutchison.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. DeWitt were Hood River business visitors Saturday. Brice and Honor Rogers entertained friends at a party Saturday evening.

W. O. B. Davidson and Kenneth Dimmick took 25 head of horses to pasture for the winter to The Dalles Thursday. They returned home with J. C. Davidson, who went after them with his Ford.

Mrs. Ida F. Everson went to Park-dale Tuesday to help her grandson, Johnnie Shurake, celebrate his seventh birthday.

George Higgins was a Parkdale visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clark have gone to California to spend the winter.

John Klobis is here from Portland visiting his brother, Joe Klobis, and family.

We report the marriage of Donald Kendall and Bertha Fitzgerald, but we don't know where, nor when. We wish you much joy, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall. C. W. Kitchel has purchased from Ed Spencer at Parkdale an acre of land and is busy clearing it.

Bishop Remington Likes Valley

Bishop William P. Remington, who was installed at Pendleton Sunday, while recently here expressed himself highly pleased with Hood River surroundings. He declared that the chief factor against his making Hood River his official headquarters was the distance from the remainder of the diocese. The city, however, still remains under consideration. Bishop Remington will address Hood River folk on the evening of December 16.

Mrs. F. C. Wittenberg, official representative of St. Mark's church at the installation, will make a report at a meeting of St. Mark's Guild at the rectory Friday night.

Fourth-Class Postmaster Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Hood River, Ore., on December 2, 1922, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth-class postmaster at Odell and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill any vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $716 for the last fiscal year.

Applicants must have reached their 21st birthday on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a state where women are declared by statute to be at full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the post office for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements. Application blanks, Form 1753, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at the place of vacancy or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Application should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practical date.
