Regular services at the church next Sunday. Sunday school 10 a. m. Morning service 11 a. m. Epworth League 7:15 p. m. Evening service 8 p. m.

Although the weather last Friday afternoon and evening was as unpleasant as Oregon weather very often acts, a good crowd attended the annual bazaar given by the Ladies' Aid Society and we believe everyone felt well pleased at having been there. The various committees, of whom the following were chairmen: Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, fancy work; Mrs. M. Hawthorne, Woolworth; Mrs. W. H. Sheirton, white elephant; Mrs. G. A. Weber, practical; Miss May Fletcher, fish pond; Mrs. W. L. Shorbon, dinner; Mrs. Algie Weinheimer, candy; had nicely arranged booths and tables and each did well her part. All did justice to the delicious chicken dinner. The proceeds amounted to approximately $160, a most gratifying success.

PINE GROVE

The cold weather may make it necessary to close the school.

We hope Miss Campbell has prevented an epidemic of measles by sending from school a number of children who had symptoms of the disease. The parents are asked to cooperate with the nurse and teachers by keeping at home all children who have colds and inflamed eyes.

The teachers and pupils, directed by Mrs. Henney, are preparing to entertain the community with a cantata on the Thursday before Christmas at the Grange hall.

All "A" pupils—George and Anne Wuest, Velma Chandler, Myrtle Swyers, Minnie Wornstaff, Charles Ferguson, Everett Chandler, Fred Remison, Alta Smith, Pauline Colvin, Lee Ella Oxford, Marie Henn, Mildred Smith, Mary Hammers, Charlotte Smith, Margaret Mohr, Ruth House, Gertrude Moore, Margaret Stott, Frances Jackson, Pearl Mohr, Arne Hukari, and Jean Roberts.

Pine Grove has just lost two families. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brownlee have moved to Seattle where Mr. Brownlee has a position with an insurance company. Dr. and Mrs. Thrane have moved to Hood River, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Turney left for Portland last week for a visit with relatives.

SCHOOL NEWS

Last Friday was the end of the second six weeks. The report cards were handed out yesterday.

The letter part of last week all English classes were busy getting one book report out of the way. The junior class tried a new way of giving theirs. They used their imagination for a story and brought in parts of their books to make it so interesting that the students would want to read it.

Last Monday Mrs. Hollingworth showed slides on paleolithic man, from the University of Oregon, to her ancient history class. Mr. Keeney's biology classes and Miss Dunning's general science class were also benefited by them.

The Literary Society program which was postponed last week will be given tonight at 7:30 o'clock. This program is put on by Mr. Tingstad and his committee.

On Thursday evening of next week Mrs. Hollingworth and her committee will give the next Literary program. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings of the High School Literary society.

The juniors are giving a high school party next Friday evening. The parents of high school pupils are especially invited and urged to come.

Because of the heavy snow and bad weather during all of last week the local interest in the school program of Americanization Week was somewhat retarded. However, there were a number of visitors who braved the elements and visited classes in the Coe primary and Park Street schools; a few visited the junior high school and two visits were recorded at the high school.

Another visiting day is planned by Mr. Cannon and the teachers, for a date nearer the close of school in the spring when an exhibit of all pupils' work will be made in all classes and departments.

Monday Supt. Cannon gave a number of reasoning and intelligence tests to the eighth grade class in junior high school. These tests are being given in cooperation with the Department of Education of the University of Oregon which is combining data from a large number of schools throughout the Northwest. The tests given Monday were Ferman's Group Test of Mental Ability, Charter's Diagnostic Language and Grammar Tests, Stone's Reasoning Test, Thorndike - McCall's

Reading Circle and Gregory's Tests in American. These tests will all be scored and reports sent to Prof. C. A. Gregory of the University of Oregon. The pupils will also be given their scores in order that their weak spots may be strengthened. Interclass basketball playing began a week ago Wednesday night. Each evening two games were played immediately after school. The games and results were as follows: Wednesday - The seniors beat the sophomores 14 to 11. The freshmen beat the junior 16 to 10. Thursday - a game between the seniors and freshmen was won by the seniors 24 to 16, and the sophomores won a game with the juniors 28 to 13. Friday - The juniors and seniors played and the juniors won 17 to 7. The sophomores won over the freshmen 32 to 9. Monday - Just one game was played and this to determine which class had the championship. This game was between the seniors and sophomores and the seniors won 20 to 12. The following games have been scheduled for certain: January 12, Centerville, here; January 19, at Stevenson; February 2 and 3, trip to Goldendale and Centerville, Wash.; February 16, Stevenson, here; February 22, Dalles, here; then possibly a game here with Pendleton, January 7, and with Vancouver, here, February 9. As a symbol of the cooperation and good feeling existing between the high school student body and the American Legion, a check for $205, representing one-fourth of the proceeds of the Armistice Day football game, was sent to the American Legion this week by Edwin Bryan, treasurer of the student body.
