A Help to Housewives

This is the season when the house wife does not have any great choice of fresh fruits and vegetables to supply a variety for her table. But in this age of the canner's art, she should not worry.

UPPER VALLEY WILL SEE STUMPS BURNED

(By Gordon G. Brown) Those in the Upper Valley who were disappointed because the stump burning demonstration, scheduled for December 8, did not take place, will be glad to know that this project has not been abandoned. The Extension Department of the Oregon Agricultural College has assured the writer that this demonstration will be held this coming spring. March 24 has been set for this purpose inasmuch as the already too crowded schedule will not permit earlier appearance here.

Prisoners to Go to Portland Because the county court of Wasco county decided to add an extra 50 cents per day to the $5 per week that sheriffs are allowed for keeping prisoners, Sheriff Johnson, who for the last 10 years has incarcerated long term prisoners in the basement of the neighboring county, was forced to seek other accommodations. He has arranged to lodge his long term prisoners with the Multnomah officials, and hereafter convicted bootleggers and other wrongdoers under sentence will be taken at once to Portland.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Aids Nature Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It silences the cough, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the passages and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.
