

A Painted Neighborhood

YOU are proud of your neighborhood. You delight in having your friends see your home and those that surround it. Every time you come up the street, you thrill with pride that you are able to bring up your family in such pleasant surroundings. The homes may not be costly, but they are well kept. In other words, they're painted.

Just stop and picture those same houses run down for lack of paint—drab, shabby, weather-beaten—and you'll realize what it means to you to live in a well-painted neighborhood. You not only enjoy it, but your children, because of this daily association, are being taught the beauty of harmonious colors.

BASS-HUETER Paints and Varnishes

Give to your home that well-kept appearance every one admires. You can't buy better paint or varnish than that which bears the Bass-Hueter label, representing over sixty years of progress in paint making. These products are made on the Pacific Coast and successfully meet the climatic conditions peculiar to the West.

What you pay for the paint is but a small part of the finished work. It costs just as much to have cheap paint put on, and Bass-Hueter Paint, because it is made of the best materials, will wear twice as long as the average paint. Therefore we suggest that when you repaint your house, or have the interior redecorated, you specify Bass-Hueter products. On the small jobs that you do yourself, you will also find it economy to use a Bass-Hueter product, choosing the one made especially for the work you have to do.

You will be delighted with your results if you follow carefully the directions given on each can.

Our booklet "Paint Facts" or "The Way to Beautiful Homes" will be mailed on request. Write for it, asking for any advice you wish on your painting problems.

Record Asparagus Cut Made

The warm weather of the past week has stimulated the big tracts of asparagus on J. H. Koberg's Twentieth Century Truck Farm east of the city, and Saturday Mr. Koberg's crews made a record cut of 8,000 pounds. The average daily cut from Mr. Koberg's 10 acres of asparagus reaches 2,000 pounds.

The demand for the succulent product remains steady, and it moves out by express as fast as available to Portland, Seattle and Spokane.

STORED APPLE STOCKS REMAIN VERY HEAVY

(From Federal Reserve Bulletin)
Stored stocks of boxed apples in this district are more than three times as large as they were at this time last year. The following table shows in a general way the size of present holdings compared with those of a year ago:

	1922-23	1921-22
	(cars)	(cars)
Total commercial crop of apples	44,800	51,123
Shipments July 1st to March 31st	39,514	49,009

Remaining in storage in the district—5,286 1,621
The figures of shipments of apples, of course, are somewhat smaller than the total sales of apples within and without the district, and storage losses, which are usually greatest in years characterized by dull markets and low prices, have undoubtedly reduced the amount of the crop which is saleable, so that there are now probably considerably less than 5,000 cars of unsold apples in the district. Prices paid growers for apples continued the downward movement of recent months and on April 1 were approximately 44 per cent lower than they were a year ago.

As the late harvesting season has progressed further wisdom of estimates of the 1922-1923 naval orange crop in California has been necessary. The total yield is now placed at 9,516,000 boxes compared with a yield of 8,500,000 boxes estimated on March 1, 1922, and a final yield of 6,445,370 boxes during the 1921-1922 season. Preliminary estimates of the forthcoming Valencia orange crop in California place the total yield at 3,938,000 boxes, of which only a small quantity has yet been picked. There were 5,905,073 boxes of Valencia oranges produced in 1922. The lemon crop is still estimated to be slightly in excess of 4,000,000 boxes.

Total shipments of oranges and lemons up to April 1 of the past two seasons have been as follows:

	Nov. 1 to April 1	1922-23	1921-22
	(cars)	(cars)	(cars)
Oranges	20,529	19,113
Lemons	2,798	3,120

Deciduous fruit orchards of California, in general, have set large crops as a result of unusually favorable weather during the blossoming season. In the other fruit growing sections of the district the season has not progressed far enough to warrant a statement concerning the new crop, but no unfavorable conditions have been reported.

MOTORISTS PREFER CAMPS ON ROADSIDE

Motor tourists, according to J. E. Nickelsen, supervisor of maintenance of the Columbia River Highway between Cascade Locks and The Dalles, much prefer camping at wayside nooks to lodging for the night at municipal auto parks.

"Already," says Mr. Nickelsen, "the Highway at night is lined with the cars of campers. Every parking place has its quota of motor birds of passage. The campers prefer to gather where some spring or stream crosses the right of way, but they will carry their wares a considerable distance, in order to camp by themselves on the wayside. The other night, as our crew was returning from near Cascade Locks we found two Nebraska cars ready to camp beside a little lake. They told us that they would remain there overnight and spend all the next day on a leisurely trip of sightseeing to Portland."

The Near East Relief

Bundle day is nearing. Portland is going to make a big shipment of bundles of clothes and blankets to the Near East to help save the lives of men, women and children; men, women and children just like we are, neither better nor worse, but they are half naked and many are perishing from lack of covering. The whole state is called on to send bundles of clothing. Hood River will not be behind any other communities.

Wednesday, May 16, we will ship our bundles to Portland, from whence they will be shipped to the Near East. Now is your opportunity to be a good Samaritan. You will surely not miss your opportunity.

All the churches will receive bundles and bundles will also be received at Kelly Bros.

C. R. Delepine,

Chairman of Near East Relief Committee for Hood River.

Deft Touches that make the house a home

It may be only a chair, rescued from long oblivion in the attic, that lends a bright spot to an otherwise colorless room; or brilliant basket-holding a bowl of flowers. But surely it is the little touches—the feminine touches—that make the house a home!

Women who are anxious to beautify the interior of their homes are devoted to such Fuller products as Silkenwhite Enamel, Decoret and Fullerwear Varnish. Decoret, a varnish and stain in one, imitates various natural woods—oak, mahogany, walnut, etc.

Whatever your painting need, W. P. Fuller & Co. makes a paint for the purpose. There is a local Fuller agent or dealer who carries Fuller Products. Why not see him today. Write, too, for our "Home Service" booklet.

Judge a Life Insurance Policy by the Company Back of it

What Becomes of the Money?

The investment of the assets of an insurance company has a direct and important bearing on the soundness of the company and the cost of its insurance.

The National Life confuses its investments to the two highest types of trust fund securities—municipal bonds and first mortgages on real estate.

The National does not invest in commercial and industrial stocks and bonds. Being subject to serious fluctuations caused by business conditions, they are not considered by the National's management desirable investments for a life insurance company.

The National's assets are so invested as to add in the extension of agricultural and municipal credit.

Since the Company began making farm loans in 1897 it has loaned on first mortgages on farms $108,854,112, without loss of principal or interest on the total invested or on any loan.

Such a record and such safeguards make the National Life worthy of your patronage.

We've assembled in readable booklet form some insurance facts that are plain as A B C. Ask us to MAIL you a copy.
