RADIO TRIUMPHANT HERE ON FOURTH

Through a triumph of radio the thousands of folk who celebrated the Fourth in Hood River were enabled to hear the address of President Harding in Portland.

At the suggestion of Lloyd Simson, who is in charge of the Y. M. C. A. Radio School in Portland and who will have charge of radio aboard the President Harrison when she takes the presidential party to South America later in the month, a pair of dead wires was extended a mile and a half from the Atwater Kent receiving set at the home of H. G. Ball to the broadcasting station of KQP, maintained by the Apple City Radio Club. The President's address was fed into the local station by the great radio station of the Oregonian and rebroadcasted throughout the mid-Columbia. The speech was heard in hundreds of homes, and loud speakers placed at vantage points in the city by H. B. Read, operator of KQP, gave the speech to the crowds. The address of the President was heard plainly; even the sibilant Ss were heard. The modulation of the big Oregonian station, according to the local radio experts, deserves the highest praise for making possible the local dissemination of the address.

VENERABLE WILLOW FELLED BY AXEMEN

Last rites were paid last week to a venerable weeping willow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Batchelder, who found it necessary to cut the magnificent old tree as a safety measure. The willow, over 75 years old, was planted by Nathaniel Coe, founder of the city. It formed a canopy for a huge spring flowing from the gorgeside of the Columbia.

Many generations of Hood River families have met beneath the shade of the old willow, and hundreds, who as children had played on the side of the spring beneath its boughs, were saddened at the news of its destruction.

A heavy wind a few days ago blew a large branch from the aged tree. An inspection showed that the trunk was badly decayed, and it was feared that it might be blown down, in some gale, across the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Clark, who live just east of it.

HOMESTEAD GETS PRESIDENT'S SPEECH

Guests of The Homestead were entertained with a radio report of President Harding's speech on the Fourth. Manager Clint Wood recently installed a powerful receiving station at The Homestead. About 50 recreationists were at the inn to celebrate the Fourth, among them Loyd Simson, expert in radio at the Portland Y. M. C. A. school, who will be in charge of radio aboard the s. s. President Harrison, which will take the presidential party to the Canal Zone after the Alaskan tour. Mr. Simson tuned in The Homestead set for securing the President's speech and parts of the Shelby fight.

Mr. Simson is spending his vacation at The Homestead. As a result of his adjustments of the radio set there, the resort is receiving concerts and addresses from all parts of the Pacific coast. He frequently hears reports from ships off the Atlantic coast.

Dudley Coming to Oregon

A. S. Dudley, of Sacramento, said to be one of the best Chamber of Commerce men in the United States, has been selected as executive manager of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, beginning August 1.

The board of directors of the State Chamber authorized the appointment of a highly-trained organization man as a step in the state-wide development program to be undertaken jointly by the Portland and State chambers. Mr. Dudley was selected by a committee of the directors composed of E. B. Hall, of Klamath Falls, I. E. Vining, of Ashland, and Roy T. Bishop, of Portland.

The new State Chamber executive will devote a major part of his time to the state outside of Portland, particularly along the lines of cooperative marketing and the general strengthening and betterment of agricultural conditions, according to State Chamber officials. This line of work is one in which Mr. Dudley is particularly well qualified, and is exactly in line with the state-wide development program for which a fund of $300,000 is now being raised in Portland.

Mr. Dudley was formerly an assistant secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and for the past three years secretary-manager of the Sacramento Chamber. Under his supervision, the Sacramento Chamber has developed into one of the leading organizations of California and recognized nationally as a model of its kind.

J. W. Brewer, general secretary of the State Chamber, will be retained in his present position.

Assault Brings $50 Fine

T. F. Grady last week was assessed a fine of $50 by Justice of the Peace Onthank for an assault on T. Brashear, night clerk of the Mount Hood Hotel. The man, it was stated, in court, had been engaged in sarcastic repartee when Grady attacked the hotel clerk. Constable Olinger happened in on the fight and separated the fighters.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars' outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

Eugene Vauthier Badly Hurt

Eugene Vauthier, Upper Valley boy, was brought to the Cottage hospital last week where he rallied from serious injuries sustained when his team ran away throwing him into a barbed wire fence. The boy's body was terribly gashed, and it was at first feared that he had sustained serious internal injuries. He showed rapid improvement, however, shortly after arrival here.
