WOULD YOU STORE $50 BILLS IN A DESK DRAWER?

"Of course not," you answer. Nor would you allow any clerk or employee to do so.

Yet—around your home, and your place of business, probably, there are papers and securities, such as bonds, mortgages, stocks, certificates, that are worth more to you than a whole stack of $50 bills.

Gather together those papers you can't afford to lose—and put them in one of our Safe Deposit Boxes, which were built for just such things. They will be safe, and easily accessible when you want them.

How Other People Get Ahead

The United States Government Savings System recently published a pamphlet in which the subject of Thrift is discussed from a very practical standpoint.

We quote from the preface of the booklet:

"Why am I not as prosperous as my neighbor, whose income is less than mine," is a question frequently asked. Have you ever inquired whether your neighbor saves from his income systematically? If not, do so. You will probably find he does, and that the savings habit is the underlying secret of his success."

his office, shop or ranch. He devotes much careful thought and considerable time and money to the proper arrangement of his shop, office or machinery in order that lost time and effort may be eliminated.

And yet YOU, when you want to hurriedly press out a dress, must drag an ironing board out of a closet and prop one end up on a chair.

Is not efficiency as important for you as it is for him?

MASS MEETING HELD ON SATURDAY

Butler and Steele Report on Outcome of Yakima Meeting - Dord Appoints Upper Valley Committee

TRIP TO CLOUD CAP IS PLANNED

Despite inclement weather a few strenuously inclined folk of the city and valley motored over the Mount Hood Loop Highway to the edge of the Oregon National Forest in the Upper Valley Sunday to join the American Legion skiing party. But for a morning snowstorm, it is likely that more than 50 would have joined the caravan to the snow fields.

Plans are under way for the Legionnaires to next Sunday lead a party to Cloud Cap Inn, a hike of about six miles. The Post members, who have done much toward popularizing Mount Hood for summer recreation, plan on devoting much time the remainder of the winter in creating an interest in winter sports.

The Legion men declare that the Loop Highway now makes snow fields accessible not only to Hood River folk but those of Portland, and a growing interest is being shown here and in the metropolis.

While all will be welcomed to motor to the snow fields and participate in skiing and other sports next Sunday, Kent Shoemaker advises that no one undertake the journey to the Inn unless he or she has had some experience in skiing or snowshoeing. The journey will be a strenuous one, and no one should undertake it unless in good physical condition.

Hans Hoerlein says he will be glad to report to anyone Saturday night on the condition of the snow. Frequently the weather of the high altitude is fine when it is poor here.

Edgar Franz is planning on taking a motor truckload of friends to the snowfields Sunday. Coasting, it is said, is as fine as skiing.

ANNUAL INSTITUTE NEAR

PINE GROVE FOLK MEET TOMORROW

Prominent Out of Town Speakers to Deliver Addresses at Three Day Session—School Will Participate

The eleventh annual institute of the Pine Grove district, which every year attracts many residents from other parts of the Valley, will be held next Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The mid-winter meeting is a combination of social pleasure and activities westward civic, economic and educational betterment. The children of the Pine Grove school will take an active part in the program. The session will end with Sunday School, Sunday morning, followed by a sermon by Dr. Edwards, Portland minister.

Other out of town speakers who will be present are: Paul V. Maris, of the Oregon Agricultural College, who will deliver an address Friday afternoon on "An Agricultural Program for Oregon." Jas. H. Gilbert, of the University of Oregon, who will discuss the government ownership of railroads, and Mrs. Mary Matley, of Portland, state president of the W. C. T. U.

The institute program appears on page 10.

CHESTER A. LYON
HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

Chester A. Lyon, who for years has devoted entire time and energy to the problems of boys, will give an address here Sunday night at Riverside church. Mr. Lyon will aid local folk, while here, in their problem of providing facilities for the youth. Last Sunday he delivered an address at Marshall Street Presbyterian church, Portland. An extract from his talk there follows:

"Some parents give everything to their children but themselves. If a father and mother want their children to be interested in home and school work, something should be put into the home to hold their interest." Mr. Lyon said. "The biggest thing is a dad and mother who get the child's viewpoint. Boys believe that 'dad' should love electricity, dogs, chickens, rabbits, stars, stamps, in fact a whole list of many things dear to the boy's heart. Boys are subject to getting a hobby and this is a father's big opportunity.

"The Godless home is one of our big problems today. If your boys and girls are not going to Sunday school, see that they go and still better, go with them. We all need the instruction received while in attendance. Out of 100 boys appearing before me while I was associated with the juvenile court, only 12 attended Sunday school."

PIERCE AGENTS NOT TO GET LOCAL FUNDS

District Attorney John Baker, who was present in Portland Saturday when Governor Pierce issued his edict to the District Attorney's Association, that two agents from the state prohibition enforcement office would be sent to each county, declared Monday that no funds from fines collected in Hood River prohibition cases would be made available for the local government special agents. Governor Pierce declared that he would expect his agents to be so financed. Mr. Baker agreed that any such attempt here would result in litigation.

Governor Pierce created a sensation when he declared that a man's home was no longer his castle, but that people should so conduct the affairs of their homes that they would be ready at any time to welcome inspectors for the government.

BLUE DIAMONDS TO PLAY STEVENSON

Diamonds, which are winning a record will meet the town team of Stevenson, Wash., at the high school gymnasium Saturday night. The local team has developed the best town team in a number of years, and has arranged a full schedule, including a number of Portland teams.

Cecil Lafferty, manager of the Blue Diamonds, which are winning a recognition over the entire Northwest, says that it has been found necessary to charge adults 50 cents for games; school students, 35 and children under 16, 25 cents each. This price is necessary, he says, in order that the team may meet expenses. As the boys who play make nothing out of the games, merely giving their time for the purpose of aiding their town in getting recognition and publicity, it is urged that all support the games.

Saturday night the Blue Diamonds will appear for the first time in new suits.

PAINT UP CAMPAIGN WILL BE LAUNCHED

Coupled to a campaign for beautification of rural and city homes by planting flower gardens will be another to stimulate interest in the painting of homes, apple packing plants and garages. Citizens who own business property will also be urged to paint up.

The two campaigns will be boosted by the Chamber of Commerce, women's clubs and other civic organizations.

Legion, Auxiliary to Meet

The February meetings of the American Legion Post and the Women's Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. The Auxiliary, following the meeting, will serve refreshments for its members and for those of the Legion.

THE HUNCH BACK OF NOTRE DAME COMING

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame," Victor Hugo's world famed novel, will be shown at the Rialto theatre February 20 and 21. Many local folk saw this famed picture, declared one of the greatest silent drama presentations ever given to the public, recently in Portland, where it ran week after week. They all have recommended it
