

ODELL

Mrs. Frank Wieden and daughter, Miss Hazel, left February 5, spending a few days at their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson have added greatly to the interior appearance of the postoffice by rearranging the counters and office.

R. E. Miller, who is serving on the federal jury in Portland, spent Sunday at his home.

The costume dancing party given by the alumnae association was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan, who have spent the winter months in southern California, returned home last Sunday.

H. S. Galligan spent the week end in Portland.

Frank Kollas, whose birthday falls on February 13, was very pleasantly surprised by 24 of his friends on that occasion.

E. H. Wheeler was in Portland on business last week.

L. B. Gibson spent Thursday of last week visiting the grammar school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moe were Portland visitors last week.

Miss Alice Tompkins, principal of Pine Grove school, visited the grammar school last Monday.

Miss Ruth Young spent the week end in Portland.

Early Friday morning Prof. T. Forster, accompanied by students and followers, Gordon Graff, Kenneth Malloy, Dorothy Pemberton, Bonnie Weinhelmer and Lulu Mull, will leave for Corvallis to attend the educational exposition held there.

The basketball teams have two more victories to their credit. The boys' team won over Parkdale Friday evening by a score of 20 to 9.

No little excitement was stirred up by the gentleman of Mexican origin discovered by Mr. Peterson in the grammar school rest room last Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Conaway and sons, of Hood River, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Walker.

The Odell basketball teams will play Hood River tonight (Thursday) at 8 P. M. Let's all go!

Spring seems really to have arrived. The spring beauties and blue bells are blossoming here.

There was a splendid turnout at the Methodist church last Sunday. There were 100 present for Sunday school and a very fine congregation for church.

Next Sunday, Sunday school will begin at 10 A. M. Morning services at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. S. Gleaser; Epworth League at 7:15. The League topic is "The Local Church at the Center".

Friday night (tomorrow) the three teams of the church, as listed in the last two issues, will play at Parkdale. Next Friday, one week later, Parkdale will play at the grammar school.

Little Miss Peggy Jane Cameron, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, returned home last Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hansen.

Miss Martha Ferguson spent the week end at her return game here. Pratt and Archie McKewen were also week end guests of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

Mrs. W. P. Kemp and Mrs. Dean were Portland visitors last week.

W. J. Holman and A. N. Davis, the new proprietors of the Odell Store, formerly owned by L. A. Chapman, will assume charge March 1st. Mr. Holman will be in active charge of the store. Mr. Chapman has not yet decided on his plans on re-entering the undertaking business.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Jacques Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent sewing.

Miss Nina McDonald has returned to Odell and is assisting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson in the postoffice.

The following notice which appeared in the Eugene paper of Monday, has been received: "Died at Mercy hospital in Eugene, February 16, 1924, Mrs. Mary L. Hubbard, widow of 1610 Mill street, age 24 years, 7 months, 14 days. Beside her husband, J. Earl Ladd, she is survived by an infant son born February 14; parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hubbard, two sisters, Miss Florence Hubbard, of Dallas, and Miss Ruth, of Eugene, and a brother, Charles, of Corvallis. Mrs. Ladd will be remembered by a number of friends here as Mary Hubbard. She spent her girlhood in this neighborhood, attending grammar school here, until the time when the family moved to Dallas. Our sympathies are with the bereaved husband and family."

Last Sunday the Christian church of Odell elected its officers and got into line for regular services. The elders elected were A. F. Smith, Joe Martin and J. O. Cameron; deacons, Dan Kover, the Rev. Will Cunningham and Wallace Young. The deacons' wives will act as deaconesses. The deacons were ordained by Rev. C. W. Johnson, the Rev. J. A. Sanford and Mr. DeHart, elders of the Christian church of Hood River. Geo. Cutler was elected secretary and C. E. Copley treasurer. The Sunday school officers are: Mrs. A. F. Smith, superintendent; Mrs. Ida Young, assistant superintendent; Miss Ida Cunningham, secretary; Clarence Miller, treasurer; Ruth Young, librarian; Gail Young, chorister, and Mrs. W. P. Kemp, home department. Sunday school meets at 10 A. M. at the union church. Preaching at 3:30 P. M. by Rev. G. W. Johnson. Prayer meetings at 7:30 Thursday evenings.

Sanford Smith, of Hood River, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith last week.

The garage meets tonight at the garage hall. The program will consist of a debate. "Resolved: That the High School Should Be Abolished." M. D. Odell and G. A. Weber are the debaters. We hope this subject will not be taken too seriously by the members, as a constructive program rather than a destructive one should be the main policy.

The range members are practicing for a play to be given in the near future, entitled, "The Poor Married Man." It promises, with the splendid cast and its able director, to be an entertaining affair.

A committee of Rebekahs will give a card party at the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday, February 26. All Rebekahs and their invited friends may attend. Lunch will be served.

There is to be a Rebekah convention at Dufur all day and evening of February 22. A large number from the local lodge is planning to attend.

ODELL HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Lela Barrie)

A double-header basketball game was played with Parkdale at the Odell school gymnasium Friday night. Odell won both games, the girls' score being 15 to 10, the boys' 20 to 9.

Probably the most exciting game of the season was played Saturday evening, when the Dufur high boys' team met the O. H. S. boys on the Odell floor. Dufur was defeated by a very small margin, the score being 14 to 13. The teams fought hard and the Dufur boys are to be congratulated on their good sportsmanship and the clean manner in which they played.

The boys' team is to go to Hood River to play a game scheduled for Thursday, February 21. A good representation of Odell is urged to accompany the O. H. S. boys and help them make it a victory.

The senior class has ordered their diplomas and invitations for graduation exercises.

The committee in charge of class rings for the Juniors have made their selection, and an order has been sent in for them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Page and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan returned Sunday from a three months' trip in California.

Mrs. B. E. McDonald was taken very ill last Friday, with an attack of acute indigestion. Bernal McDonald, who has been visiting in Portland, returned Friday evening accompanied by Mrs. E. W. Van Horn. Mrs. McDonald's condition is much improved and Mrs. Van Horn returned to Portland Sunday afternoon.

A. F. Bickford and Hayes Bickford transacted business in Portland last Saturday.

Mrs. A. W. Peters spent several days in Portland last week.

Adah Laraway, Effie Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clark spent the week end in Portland and heard "The Merchant of Venice."

Mrs. Harry Smith, nee Miss Marguerite Juhnke, called on friends in Pine Grove last Monday.

Mrs. F. H. Blackman was a Portland visitor last week.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. A. F. Bickford Friday afternoon. All women in the neighborhood are invited.

Mrs. Willis Van Horn visited friends in Hood River and Pine Grove last week.

Dz. A. L. Beckendorf, of the Philippines, will deliver an address on the missionary work in the islands. Miss Virginia Dufur will be the leader. At 8 o'clock Rev. A. L. Beckendorf, who is a missionary on the Philippines, will deliver an address on the missionary work in the islands. The World's Service campaign scheduled for the month of March.

Friday night (tomorrow) the three teams of the church, as listed in the last two issues, will play at Parkdale. Next Friday, one week later, Parkdale will play at the grammar school.

Little Miss Peggy Jane Cameron, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, returned home last Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hansen.

Miss Martha Ferguson spent the week end at her return game here. Pratt and Archie McKewen were also week end guests of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

Mrs. W. P. Kemp and Mrs. Dean were Portland visitors last week.

W. J. Holman and A. N. Davis, the new proprietors of the Odell Store, formerly owned by L. A. Chapman, will assume charge March 1st. Mr. Holman will be in active charge of the store. Mr. Chapman has not yet decided on his plans on re-entering the undertaking business.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Jacques Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent sewing.

Miss Nina McDonald has returned to Odell and is assisting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson in the postoffice.

The following notice which appeared in the Eugene paper of Monday, has been received: "Died at Mercy hospital in Eugene, February 16, 1924, Mrs. Mary L. Hubbard, widow of 1610 Mill street, age 24 years, 7 months, 14 days. Beside her husband, J. Earl Ladd, she is survived by an infant son born February 14; parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hubbard, two sisters, Miss Florence Hubbard, of Dallas, and Miss Ruth, of Eugene, and a brother, Charles, of Corvallis. Mrs. Ladd will be remembered by a number of friends here as Mary Hubbard. She spent her girlhood in this neighborhood, attending grammar school here, until the time when the family moved to Dallas. Our sympathies are with the bereaved husband and family."

Last Sunday the Christian church of Odell elected its officers and got into line for regular services. The elders elected were A. F. Smith, Joe Martin and J. O. Cameron; deacons, Dan Kover, the Rev. Will Cunningham and Wallace Young. The deacons' wives will act as deaconesses. The deacons were ordained by Rev. C. W. Johnson, the Rev. J. A. Sanford and Mr. DeHart, elders of the Christian church of Hood River. Geo. Cutler was elected secretary and C. E. Copley treasurer. The Sunday school officers are: Mrs. A. F. Smith, superintendent; Mrs. Ida Young, assistant superintendent; Miss Ida Cunningham, secretary; Clarence Miller, treasurer; Ruth Young, librarian; Gail Young, chorister, and Mrs. W. P. Kemp, home department. Sunday school meets at 10 A. M. at the union church. Preaching at 3:30 P. M. by Rev. G. W. Johnson. Prayer meetings at 7:30 Thursday evenings.

Sanford Smith, of Hood River, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith last week.

The garage meets tonight at the garage hall. The program will consist of a debate. "Resolved: That the High School Should Be Abolished." M. D. Odell and G. A. Weber are the debaters. We hope this subject will not be taken too seriously by the members, as a constructive program rather than a destructive one should be the main policy.

The range members are practicing for a play to be given in the near future, entitled, "The Poor Married Man." It promises, with the splendid cast and its able director, to be an entertaining affair.

A committee of Rebekahs will give a card party at the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday, February 26. All Rebekahs and their invited friends may attend. Lunch will be served.

There is to be a Rebekah convention at Dufur all day and evening of February 22. A large number from the local lodge is planning to attend.

CENTRAL VALE

(By Lela Barrie)

Mrs. Charlie Sheppard left last Thursday for Corvallis, where she will spend a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Frey, of that city.

The Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Jarvis last Thursday. There were present 18 members, seven guests and 11 babies under four years old. The committee on arrangements for the supper gave a report of their meeting and submitted the following menu for the approaching year: Chicken fricasse, mashed potatoes, scalloped corn, coffee, bread and butter, cake, pie or salad will be served. It was voted to have a candy booth, apron and household article booth, and a quilt for sale that evening. There will also be a program. A committee was appointed to put the quilt together. Unique hand painted invitations were issued to the members by the president, Mrs. G. A. Hoffmann, and Mrs. O. H. Hill to a silver tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Hoffmann Friday, February 22. All present were asked "An old fashioned costume to wear to lead to the party: colonial air, so please put some money in pocket or blouse and come and to the fund for our community house." The date of the supper is to be Friday, March 14, at household article booth. Everybody cordially welcomed. That date was set to avoid the conflict of the date of the declamatory contest. Please keep it open and come, have a good supper, a good time and help good causes.

William Gilkerson is much improved in health. His many friends were glad to greet him at Sunday school Sunday.

The Valentine party at the school house last Friday given by the Parent-Teacher Association was a great success. A large crowd attended and spent the evening very enjoyably at games of all kinds, after which light refreshments were served. It is good for us all to get together and be better acquainted and we hope to have more of these social evenings.

Mrs. Oscar Cameron left last week for her old home in Roseburg, where she will spend several weeks visiting her mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Harry Smith, nee Miss Marguerite Juhnke, called on friends in Pine Grove last Monday.

Mrs. F. H. Blackman was a Portland visitor last week.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a silver tea at the home of Mrs. A. F. Bickford Friday afternoon. All women in the neighborhood are invited.

Mrs. Willis Van Horn visited friends in Hood River and Pine Grove last week.

Dz. A. L. Beckendorf, of the Philippines, will deliver an address on the missionary work in the islands. Miss Virginia Dufur will be the leader. At 8 o'clock Rev. A. L. Beckendorf, who is a missionary on the Philippines, will deliver an address on the missionary work in the islands. The World's Service campaign scheduled for the month of March.

Friday night (tomorrow) the three teams of the church, as listed in the last two issues, will play at Parkdale. Next Friday, one week later, Parkdale will play at the grammar school.

Little Miss Peggy Jane Cameron, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, returned home last Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hansen.

Miss Martha Ferguson spent the week end at her return game here. Pratt and Archie McKewen were also week end guests of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

Mrs. W. P. Kemp and Mrs. Dean were Portland visitors last week.

W. J. Holman and A. N. Davis, the new proprietors of the Odell Store, formerly owned by L. A. Chapman, will assume charge March 1st. Mr. Holman will be in active charge of the store. Mr. Chapman has not yet decided on his plans on re-entering the undertaking business.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Jacques Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent sewing.

Miss Nina McDonald has returned to Odell and is assisting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson in the postoffice.

The following notice which appeared in the Eugene paper of Monday, has been received: "Died at Mercy hospital in Eugene, February 16, 1924, Mrs. Mary L. Hubbard, widow of 1610 Mill street, age 24 years, 7 months, 14 days. Beside her husband, J. Earl Ladd, she is survived by an infant son born February 14; parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hubbard, two sisters, Miss Florence Hubbard, of Dallas, and Miss Ruth, of Eugene, and a brother, Charles, of Corvallis. Mrs. Ladd will be remembered by a number of friends here as Mary Hubbard. She spent her girlhood in this neighborhood, attending grammar school here, until the time when the family moved to Dallas. Our sympathies are with the bereaved husband and family."

Last Sunday the Christian church of Odell elected its officers and got into line for regular services. The elders elected were A. F. Smith, Joe Martin and J. O. Cameron; deacons, Dan Kover, the Rev. Will Cunningham and Wallace Young. The deacons' wives will act as deaconesses. The deacons were ordained by Rev. C. W. Johnson, the Rev. J. A. Sanford and Mr. DeHart, elders of the Christian church of Hood River. Geo. Cutler was elected secretary and C. E. Copley treasurer. The Sunday school officers are: Mrs. A. F. Smith, superintendent; Mrs. Ida Young, assistant superintendent; Miss Ida Cunningham, secretary; Clarence Miller, treasurer; Ruth Young, librarian; Gail Young, chorister, and Mrs. W. P. Kemp, home department. Sunday school meets at 10 A. M. at the union church. Preaching at 3:30 P. M. by Rev. G. W. Johnson. Prayer meetings at 7:30 Thursday evenings.

Sanford Smith, of Hood River, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Smith last week.

The garage meets tonight at the garage hall. The program will consist of a debate. "Resolved: That the High School Should Be Abolished." M. D. Odell and G. A. Weber are the debaters. We hope this subject will not be taken too seriously by the members, as a constructive program rather than a destructive one should be the main policy.

The range members are practicing for a play to be given in the near future, entitled, "The Poor Married Man." It promises, with the splendid cast and its able director, to be an entertaining affair.

A committee of Rebekahs will give a card party at the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday, February 26. All Rebekahs and their invited friends may attend. Lunch will be served.

There is to be a Rebekah convention at Dufur all day and evening of February 22. A large number from the local lodge is planning to attend.

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Jennie Madden)

The community dance held at the O. O. F. hall Saturday night was well attended and pronounced an enjoyable affair.

Joe Tyson, of Portland, was a week end guest of the Glover brothers, Mrs. Jennie Madden has leased the Inn of the Bridge of the Gods to Mrs. Mae Silva for the year 1924.

D. C. Eckles, president of the Wind River Timber Co., who has been in the east for some time, returned to Portland Monday, bringing the good news that he will re-open the mill about the first of March. He is not to work making necessary repairs preparatory to opening.

Jeas Forrester was home over the week end.

Wallace Glover was in Portland Monday.

Paul and Virginia Tompkins are convalescing after having been ill with the measles.

A. W. Meyers attended the auto show in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buttz, Mrs. Leonard Day, Mrs. Anna Sprague, Miss Fanny McDonald, Anna Campbell and

Louis Mumpower, were the week end guests of the W. M. Lane and attended the community ball.

W. M. Rush spent several days in Portland last week.

Mrs. Eller was here from Portland over the week end, the guest of her daughter, Miss Theima Eller, our primary teacher.

Harold and Robert Rush, Elmer George and Chester Butterfield have recovered from the measles and returned to the grade school Monday. Loyd and Leo Butterfield also returned to their school duties at the school Monday.

Ernest Swager was a Portland visitor last week.

Mrs. Mary Leone Tucker has gone to Chicago to visit relatives.

The roads having settled after the rain, Adolph Paterson resumed hauling logs Saturday.

Benjamin Daggert was home from Reed College last week end.

Mothers were guests Friday afternoon in the primary room to see their children's work.

Joe Hess and Ross Higgins returned to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Tom Hopper is taking treatment at the Dalles hospital. She is suffering from stomach trouble.

George Hanel and H. C. Wyatt were Hood River business visitors one day last week.

Mr. Moody was over from Parkdale Thursday to spend the day with his son, Wallace, and family.

February 20. Miss Beatrice Campbell was home from Hood River over the week end.

The boys of the Mount Hood school played a game of baseball with the freshmen of Parkdale high Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. M. Butterfield has the first baby chicks of the season.

Miss Gladys Aubert, who is attending the University of Oregon, remembered members of the Sunbeam Sunday school class with a valentine. Miss Aubert had charge of that class before going west to school.

Boyd Campbell was a Hood River visitor several days last week.

The regular church services will be held at the Mount Hood church Sunday evening.

Those returning on Gov. meander line to place of beginning containing 427 acres shore lands in NW 1/4 Sec. 32, T. 3 N. R. 11 E. W. M.

Applications should be accompanied by check or draft of the amount of bid and should be addressed to G. G. Brown, Clerk of the State Land Board, Salem, Oregon, and marked "Application and bid to purchase River front land."

Clerk State Land Board. Dated at Salem, Oregon, February 13, 1924. 22124

Buying a Tractor Harrow? The John Deere tractor harrow is not a rigid, one-piece frame. It penetrates and pulverizes its entire width even when going over depressions and obstructions. It is a flexible harrow. Each section and, in fact, each gang works independently, dishing all the ground without twisting or binding the frame. Repair parts always obtainable. It is a flexible harrow. See it at Bennett Brothers before buying. m6

We have several tractor plows on hand at a real buy. These are plows we handled during our Cretasage agency. Hood River Garage. 228

World's Largest Chain Department Store Organization J. C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION - Hood River, Oregon. 475 DEPARTMENT STORES. Reliable Quality Goods Always at Low Prices.

Small Wares for the Family. Notions at Worth While Savings. Buttons, fish eye, two hole, 12 on card 4¢-8¢. Toilet Pins, steel or fine quality brass, different sizes, per paper 4¢-8¢. Crochet Hooks, extra fine quality, sizes 9 to 14, each 8¢. Men's Tie and Scarf Pins, each 25¢ to 98¢. Men's Tie Holders, each 23¢ to 49¢. Cuff Links, separable and for soft cuffs, pair 23¢ to 98¢. Women's Hair Brushes, aluminum face, black stiff bristles, each 49¢. Barrettes, gold and silver plated, various styles 8¢. Shell Hair Pins, in boxes of 5 or 10 4¢-9¢. Folding Curling Irons 12¢. Dress Shields, Japanese Silk, invisible 29¢. Lather Brushes, good bristles, each 49¢ to 98¢. Bill-Folds, all leather, 4 pockets, black seal or brown leather, each 49¢-98¢. Safety Pins, all sizes, per dozen 4¢-8¢. Suspenders, good qual., strong leather ends, pr. 23¢ to 89¢. Arm Bands, plain and fancy styles, silk elastic, pr. 8¢-23¢. Shoe Laces, extra heavy quality, 40 and 72 in. lengths 4¢-8¢. Shinola Shoe Polish, box 8¢. Shoe Polish, box 10¢. Men's Purses, 3 ball riveted frame, brown and black leather, each 23¢. Folding Coin Purse, nickel plated riveted frame, black and brown leather, each 49¢. Sanitary Belts made of surgical-elastic, various sizes, each 23¢. Baby Bloomers of pure rubber, with or without ventilator 23¢-49¢. Single Powder Compacts in metal case with large mirror 49¢. Double Compacts, powder and rouge, in metal case with large mirror 98¢. Hind's Honey and Almond Cream 39¢.

Goods You Like To Carry Home. Added to the helpful personal service, we give you, is the assurance of crisp fresh goods which you like to carry home. Our cooperative buying power with the 474 other Stores in this Nation-Wide Institution, brings the new things and the good things to you while they are still new and good. And not the least factor in making your shopping here a pleasure and a profit are the uniformly low prices you are asked to pay for goods of thoroughly reliable quality.

HAIR NETS, made of human hair, double hair nets of fine quality, each 8¢. CUTICURA Soap, healing and refreshing; For toilet, bath and nursery 19¢. WOODBURY'S Facial Soap, a wonderful cleanser for the skin and a good skin food 19¢. PACKERS Tar Soap, a popular soap with good healing qualities 19¢. BALSAMIC, an ideal soap perfumed with Balsamic aromas 8¢. DENTAL CREAMS. Colgate's Tooth Paste, small size 8¢. Colgate's Tooth Paste, large size 19¢. Peppodent Tooth Paste 39¢. Pebecco Tooth Paste 39¢. Nu-Mix Tooth Paste 49¢.

W. J. A. BAKER'S LETTERS INTERESTING. W. J. A. Baker, formerly of the inspection department of the Apple Growers Association, who left last fall with one of the two handomely equipped motor trucks of the cooperative organization on a sales and advertising campaign, in his letters to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker, tells of interesting experiences in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi. Mr. Baker says that the roads of the south are the worst he has encountered. On one occasion the mud was so deep that it dragged his gasoline tank off.

PLAY WILL RAISE CONVENTION FUND. "The 13th Chair" will be the vehicle of a play to be presented at the Rialto theatre Friday evening, March 7, by members of the Business Women's Club of The Dalles. The play will be presented under auspices of the Rebekah lodge, of Hood River, the proceeds being applied to defraying expenses of the state convention of the grand lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to be held here in May.

Musical at the Baptist Church. One of the best musical treats of the season is coming to Hood River Thursday, February 28, at 8 p. m., when the ladies of the Baptist church present Sheridan Delpine, violinist, and Dorothea Schoop, pianist, well known Portland artists, in joint recital in the auditorium of the Baptist church. Sheridan Delpine is a young violinist who has won a great number of friends and admirers in Oregon and attracted to himself a large following of students. He knows how to use to the best advantage an exceptionally beautiful-toned instrument. Dorothea Schoop is recognized as one of the most finished and brilliant pianists in the west and will appear for the first time at Hood River. The two have performed together very successfully during the past year.

Hotel Oregon is Leased. The Hotel Oregon, owned by H. F. Davidson and his sister, Miss May Davidson, was leased Tuesday to F. E. Russell, a former North Dakota resident, who will assume the management May 1. Mr. Russell, here with his wife left at once following closing of the deal, for Texas on business. The hotel for the past several years has been managed by Miss Davidson.